

SELF-REFLECTION

DEFINITION

Self-reflection is the process of introspectively analyzing one's thoughts, feelings, and actions to gain deeper understanding and insight. It's a conscious effort to step back and assess one's experiences, decisions, and overall life journey. Through self-reflection, individuals can identify strengths, weaknesses, patterns, and areas for growth or change.

EXAMPLES

- Journaling: Regularly writing down thoughts, feelings, and experiences to process emotions.
- Meditation: Setting aside time for stillness and inner exploration to understand oneself better.
- Feedback Seeking: Actively asking peers, mentors, or colleagues for input on your behavior and performance.

Personal Reflections:

Personal Reflections on Counseling Gerald Corey, 2020-02-28 Gerald Corey's Reflections is an absolute delight. Each chapter is packed with nuggets of wisdom he has gained over the decades. What makes the book particularly engaging is that it invites us into Corey's inner world and we feel as though we are reading a series of letters from a friend. This book could serve as an excellent supplemental reading in an introductory course or as a useful resource for advanced students as they navigate the complexities of graduate school and look ahead to their careers. Barbara Herlihy PhD, University of Texas at San Antonio. In this inspirational book, Gerald Corey shares his most heartfelt personal reflections and lessons learned as he describes his journey over a 60-year counseling career. He is honest, self-disclosing, humble, and insightful in this compendium that encourages readers to embrace their vision and entertain their dreams. This is a must-read gem that provides an opportunity for counseling students and young professionals to learn from the master. Robert Haynes PhD, Psychologist and author, Borderline Productions. In an easy-to-read question and answer format, Dr. Corey provides sage insight on a broad range of topics concerning professional issues, career development, the counseling process, and work-life balance. Responding to an array of questions often asked by students over the years, he uses candid personal examples to highlight key lessons and engage readers in an active process of personal and professional self-reflection on their own journeys. Topical question themes include creating your professional path, mentoring and being a mentee, surviving graduate school, benefiting from personal therapy, focusing on self-care and wellness, becoming an ethical counselor, managing value conflicts in counseling, using self-disclosure therapeutically, dealing with difficult clients, getting the most out of supervision, and becoming a writer. In each chapter, reflection questions encourage readers to consider their own views and experiences related to the questions raised, and recommended readings provide suggestions for further information. Personal Reflections of a Ghanaian Foreign Service Officer - Whither Ghanaian Diplomacy? William G. M. Brandful, 2013. Dr. William G. M. Brandful, born on December 04, 1952, in Cape Coast, Ghana, will turn sixty years old on December 04, 2012, when he will launch his book Personal Reflections of a Ghanaian Foreign Service Officer: Whither Ghanaian Diplomacy. The book chronicles Dr. Brandful's experiences as a Foreign Service Officer in a way that those experiences serve to mirror the diplomacy of Ghana, which then gets examined to see how it may have excelled in the past, how it is being confronted currently with challenges to the point of sometimes blunting its efficacy, and how it could be re-engineered towards greater future achievement. The attempt may be ambitious, but it is motivated by a passionate sincerity only equaled by the other commitment to also contribute through the book to the creation of institutional memory for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Regional Integration of Ghana. Currently the Ambassador of Ghana to Japan with concurrent accreditation to Singapore.

as non Resident High Commissioner the author served previously at the Ghanaian Missions in Zambia Mali Germany and Benin Between the date of joining the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Regional Integration in May 1977 and the specified diplomatic assignments Ambassador Brandful worked at various positions at the Ministry in Ghana including Chief of Protocol and later as Supervising Director Policy Planning Research and Monitoring Dr Brandful had his Secondary education in Ghana at Mfantshipim School from 1964 to 1971 and pursued his initial university studies at the University of Ghana 1971 75 including one year abroad 73 74 at the University of Dakar Senegal followed by post graduate studies successively at the Polytechnic of Central London University of Nairobi Kenya International Institute for Public Administration in Paris I I A P The Hague Academy of International Law and the University of Paris XI Sceaux Faculty France from where he obtained a Doctorat de Troisieme Cycle in International Relations in January 1986 Dr Brandful is married to Dinah Brandful nee Coleman has four daughters and three grandchildren He speaks French As hobbies Ambassador Brandful plays squash tennis piano and golf

Living the Abundant Life Roger Weldon, 2004-08 A Life Endured Is Not a Life As Christ Followers we are called to do more than endure life Created in God s image we are overcomers and more than conquerors with specific tasking from the King of kings Yet cynicism negativity and the frantic pace of life send us the message that we should disengage in order to make it through Power riches and pleasures call out to others and lure them down paths they were never meant to travel Boredom and broken dreams distract others but from time to time we all see with amazing clarity The way we are living just isn t the way things were supposed to turn out There was supposed to be more victory more joy more significance this cannot be all there is to our journey Our vision is more than simple insight it is a seed planted in John 10 10 when Jesus said He came to provide more than the wonderful gift of salvation I have come that they may have life and that they may have it more abundantly

MacCormick's Scotland Neil Walker, 2012-03-26 This book analyses in depth the distinctively Scottish themes in the work of Sir Neil MacCormick, the world-renowned legal philosopher and prominent Scottish public intellectual who died in 2009 after holding the Regius Chair in Public Law and the Law of Nature and Nations at Edinburgh University for 36 years. MacCormick's work and works about MacCormick attract both a domestic and an international audience. Readers will gain an understanding of how MacCormick's Scottish roots, interests, and commitments coloured his work, both his distinctively Scottish writings and the overall intellectual outlook that informed his broader legal and philosophical writings. The book provides a well-rounded appreciation of the Scottish dimension in MacCormick's thinking and writing. It focuses on a number of prominent Scottish themes in MacCormick's work and life and is structured around four key themes: 1. the nature and identity of a legal system, 2. sovereignty, European integration, and Scottish independence, 3. the legacy of the legal and political thought of the Scottish enlightenment, and 4. the role of the academic in the Scottish public sphere.
