Cultivating Personal and Organizational Effectiveness Chiku Malunga, 2012-12-14 Cultivating Personal and Organizational Effectiveness presents a holistic understanding of personal and organizational development It builds on the African concept of personhood and community known as ubuntu and draws on insights from the wisdom contained in African proverbs Malunga shows that the human spirit is the missing link or ingredient in most change efforts and initiatives Most individuals and organizations are not able to surface identify and confront their shadows to enable lasting transformation because they do not go deep enough to touch and unleash the human spirit Cultivating Personal and Organizational Effectiveness aims to raise the consciousness of the significance of the human spirit in personal and organizational development The book discusses the concept and indispensability of the human spirit the stages of spiritual development ways to cultivate the human spirit and the place of the human spirit in personal and organizational effectiveness My Three Wars William Weir,2012-03-11 My Three Wars is the Story of Three Life Wars

Few wars have been fought that have so spectacularly brought heroes to the fore front of history World War II saw the bravery of some very special men and women Bill Weir is one such a man who lived a life championing causes all the time See how he not only survived the war to end all wars but helped build an entire community from scratch In this real life story you will see what it took to live not only in the war era but in the age of reconstruction after that Another masterpiece in the Acashic WW2 Series showcasing human achievement despite the odds We Are at War Vitalis Chi. OUR MISSION IN THESE SIX BOOKS 1 Growing Decline in World Peace We started our long journey in these six Books with an expression of concern over the growing decline in world peace Our Mission throughout our Six Books had therefore focused on our views on how the state of World Peace can be advanced 2 Enhancing unity between Christianity and Secularity We expressed at the beginning of our first Book that one major source of the growing decline in world peace is the on going wars and crises between the Religious and Secular worlds of today This source of global crises had been acknowledged in a recent conference of global Religious Leaders held in Assisi at the invitation of Pope Benedict XVI The Conference participants resolved unanimously to address this source of crises in world peace Global Secular Leaders had also expressed much concern on the growing decline in world peace They did so again at the last meeting of the United Nations General Assembly in New York 3 Our Mission to contribute to Pope Benedict XVI's New Evangelization In our view the recent launching of the New Evangelization by Pope Benedict XVI reflected in part the resolution of Religious Leaders in the Assisi Conference to find ways of addressing the growing decline in world peace due partly to Religious conflicts with Secularity across the world The Pope called on all Lay members of the Catholic Church and Christians in general to contribute to the success of the Popes New Evangelization PCNE As we expressed throughout our six books our mission in these Books is to respond to the call by Pope Benedict XVI 4 Military and Secular Perspectives on the Religious and Secular Peace We stated clearly from the start that our contribution would reflect on the military and secular aspects of the growing conflicts between Christianity and Secularity using the global experience in both sectors by our Author throughout his career We had to take these perspectives because we must identify the source leadership and strategies in the wars and conflicts between the Religious and Secular worlds Unless we know the leaders in the conflicts and their missions we cannot achieve any progress in resolving these wars and crises and enhance the level of world peace 5 My Background A few words of introduction on my background may enable the Reader understand my perspectives in these Books I started the project of writing the Books because I am convinced that I can contribute to the PCNE by bringing my African background in Nigeria education at the London School of Economics and exposure to global secular governance through my position as a former Economic Adviser with The U K Government and a Senior Economist at The World Bank 6 Is anything wro

Personal Narratives, Peripheral Theatres: Essays on the Great War (1914-18) Anthony Barker, Maria Eugénia Pereira, Maria Teresa Cortez, Paulo Alexandre Pereira, Otília Martins, 2017-12-14 This book is a collection of essays on neglected aspects of the Great War It begins by asking what exactly was so Great about it before turning to individual studies of various aspects of the war These fall broadly into two categories Firstly personal micro narratives that deal directly with the experience of war often derived from contemporary interest in diaries and oral histories Presenting both a close up view of the viscerality and the tedium and powerlessness of personal situations these same narratives also address the effects of the war on hitherto under regarded groups such as children and animals Secondly the authors look at the impact of the course of the war on theatres often left out in reflections on the main European combatants and therefore not part of the regular iconography of the trenches in places such as Denmark Canada India the Levant Greece and East Africa
