Wesson, 1987-01-19 Eight political scientists offer their analyses of the political situations institutions and future of democracy in the regions of Western Europe North America Latin America and the Caribbean Sub Saharan Africa North Africa and the Near East South Asia East Asia and the Pacific and the Soviet Union and eastern Europe The contributors survey the movement in these regions toward or away from democracy West Africa, 1996 From Tyranny to Anarchy Hussein Mohamed Adam, 2008 An exploration of the Somali crisis which reveals the political cultures of Somalia and Somaliland in the process and the underlying complexities that can result in the collapse or sustained development of a society Dr Adam explores how the indigenous political structures of Somalia and Somaliland foster local initiatives in peace building and democratic governance whilst examining the inner workings of the Siyad dictatorship and its militarism and the civil wars of Somali past Constitutional Developments in Southern Cameroons, 1946-1961 Victor Julius Ngoh, 1990 Africa Report, 1983 France in Black Africa Francis Terry McNamara, 1989 When in 1960 France granted independence to its colonies in West and Central Africa an empire covering an area the size of the contiguous United States the French still intended to retain influence in Africa Through a system of accords with these newly independent African nations based upon ties naturally formed over the colonial years France has succeeded for three decades in preserving its position in African affairs The course of Franco African relations in the near future though is less than certain In this book Ambassador Francis Terry McNamara outlines France's acquisition and administration of its Black African empire and traces the former colonies paths to independence Drawing upon that background the ambassador examines the structure of post independence Franco African relations and recent strains on those relations especially African economic crises and the French tendency to focus on Europe Because of those strains he suggests France alone may be unable to support its former dependencies much longer He believes that long term solutions to African problems will have to involve international organizations like the World Bank and International Monetary Fund as well as other nations such as the United
