Personalities Around Paul:

Personalities Around Paul Holmes Rolston, 1954      Paul's Last Letter Mark Sweetnam, 2024-05-30 The Second Epistle to Timothy is by any standard a remarkable document Even as the apostle urges his friend and coworker hasten to Rome for a final meeting the intimacy and urgency of Paul's words make clear his awareness that Timothy might not arrive in time to say goodbye This makes the epistle deeply personal But Paul has a much larger purpose in view than just Timothy's consolation The epistle vibrates with Paul's concern for Timothy's endurance in the apostle's mission after Paul's death Paul is at pains to emphasize for Timothy the seriousness of his responsibility the difficulty of the context in which that duty will be discharged and the divine assistance that will allow him to preserve and transmit the apostolic deposit to faithful men Even as he addresses Timothy Paul is deliberately speaking beyond him to everyone who remains faithful to the apostolic gospel in the last days following the apostle's departure This commentary provides a detailed but nontechnical treatment of 2 Timothy which interacts with contemporary scholarship on the epistle while providing a literary rhetorical and parenetic analysis of Paul's last letter      Personalities Around Paul David Edmond Hiebert, 1973-01-01      The New Unger's Bible

Phillips, 2010-01-01. Aside from Jesus the Apostle Paul had the greatest formative influence on the early Christian movement. Yet who was this passionate missionary who carried the message of Christ throughout the Mediterranean world? The New Testament writings give us not one but two portraits of Paul. We read numerous details of Paul's life and relationships in the Book of Acts and we also find an additional set of details about Paul's activities in his letters. Yet how consistent are these two portraits? And which one gives us the most accurate picture of the historical Paul? In this volume Thomas E. Phillips examines the portrayals of Paul in recent biblical scholarship in the light of these two major NT portraits. Believing the apostolic conference at Jerusalem to be a watershed event, Phillips draws conclusions that help contemporary readers get a more accurate picture of Paul. The Art of Understanding Your Building's Personality Wayne P. Sayer, 2020-05-14. Wayne reveals how the human body was used as the model for creating the buildings and high rise structures we live and work in today. Yet more telling, he walks us through scientific evidence that shows how our buildings and structures can communicate with people. He uses a number of analogies and real life experiences to reveal how buildings and facilities operate and communicate. He systematically interconnects your cognitive functions with facilities related processes. These interrelated functions encompass reasoning, memory, attention, and related facility engineering terms which lead directly to the attainment of information and in turn enhance your understanding as a current and future facilities professional as well as that of a novice that would just simply like to know of Wayne's exploits or a basic curiosity of just how buildings work. Daisy Gallagher, a global Who's Who within the built environment and Washington DC insider, advances the Foreword of this book to introduce a number of Wayne's achievements and teachings that includes Wayne being recognized by the 114th Congress of the United States. She shares how Wayne takes the wrapper off some of America's most prestigious companies and organizations to share a few of his insights and dealings with some of these recognizable structures while ultimately convincing you that buildings are people too. Horizon Chasers Gerry Max, 2007-03-07. Richard Halliburton was the quintessential world traveler of the early 20th century. In 1930 his celebrity equaled that of Charles Lindbergh and Amelia Earhart. Halliburton called himself a horizon chaser and recommended that one should see the world before committing to a routine. Not only did he live up to his ideal but he was eager to write about his adventures. A prolific partnership with gifted editor and ghost writer Paul Mooney produced excellent work and theirs became a close personal relationship. Sadly Halliburton and Mooney disappeared at sea on March 24, 1939 along with the entire crew of Halliburton's Chinese junk Sea Dragon as they attempted to cross the Pacific from Hong Kong to the San Francisco World's Fair. This biography records the life and adventures of Halliburton and Mooney focusing as no other

Halliburton biography has on the productive literary collaboration between the two Drawing on the recollections of people who knew them both the work discusses their backgrounds the early years of their acquaintance and their possible romantic relationship Finally their fateful journey to Hong Kong and the ill advised voyage of the Sea Dragon is described in detail A good deal of first hand evidence is provided by William Alexander Paul Mooney s best friend and designer of Halliburton s Laguna Beach house Appendices contain seven poems by Mooney and facsimile letters including one of praise written by Richard Halliburton to William Alexander Never before published photographs are also included A FRESH LOOK AT PAUL'S THEOLOGY Edward D.
