Marital Arts Caroline DeVore Markett,2010-12-03 I was a weirdo in high school and college I wanted to hang out with boys instead of girls and never could understand it Hardly any girls wanted to hang out with me either so I was a loner Then when I became an adult I had a personality profile done and discovered that a male member of our church had the same personality as I did I was amazed Then my light bulb turned on when I learned that only 15% of the people with my profile were females My friend suggested that I write a book oriented toward that 15% so they could relate more easily to their husbands So here it is This book differs from others based on psychology in that it has a Christian basis and helps Christian women to understand themselves better Also I have heard that most women with this profile do not become Christians hopefully this book will inspire them to do so So how can I possibly know enough to write a book like this I took psychology courses in college and have a Masters degree in Bible
