The Sacred Art of Lovingkindness Rabbi Rami Shapiro,Rami M. Shapiro,2006 Open your heart and mind and discover through the sacred art of lovingkindness the image and likeness of God in yourself and others The question at the heart of this book is this Will you engage this moment with kindness or with cruelty with love or with fear with generosity or scarcity with a joyous heart or an embittered one This is your choice and no one can make it for you Heaven and hell are both inside of you It is your choice that determines just where you reside from the Introduction We are all born in the image of God but living out the likeness of God is a choice This inspiring practical guidebook provides you with the tools you need to realize the divinity within yourself recognize the divinity within others and act on the obligation to manifest God s infinite compassion in your own life Guided by Rabbi Rami Shapiro you will explore Judaism s Thirteen Attributes of Lovingkindness as the framework for cultivating a life of goodness Shapiro translates these attributes into practices drawn from the teachings of a variety of faith traditions that allow you to actualize God s glory through personal deeds of lovingkindness You will enrich your own capacity for lovingkindness as you Harvest kindness through compassionate honesty Make room in your heart for reality Recognize the manifestations of God Embrace the paradoxical truth of not knowing Be present in the moment Do right by others With candor wit and honesty Shapiro shows you that by choosing to act out of love rather than fear with kindness rather than anger you can transform how you perceive the world and ultimately lead a more complete spiritual life Living into the Answers Valerie K. Isenhower, Judith A.

Todd, 2022-09-14 What do I do now Face life s forks in the road and write your own future fearlessly Be guided to your own wisdom within the context of the always present divine voice Living into the Answers teaches a way to ask for and receive God s guidance as you approach an issue or choice Large or small the decisions of life point toward particular paths write Isenhower and Todd Paying attention to the process of discerning God s desire for our life starts us on a journey that leads to abundant life It opens us to a larger number of life choices and to a more interactive relationship with God who calls us for future possibilities Discernment isn t magic It isn t passive Discernment isn t a complicated mystical practice Rather it s a process of listening and choosing based on the understanding that God is to be at the center of decision making The authors explain how to live in a way that satisfies the yearning for a deeper connection with the spiritual There may not always be one right answer because there s no shortcut to knowing which job to take house to buy or relationship to pursue But we don t have to make these decisions alone As people of faith we know every aspect of our lives is important to God who created us for a purpose Living into the Answers is an inspiring and practical personal workbook that introduces tools and practices that invite God in as we consider priorities and alternatives guides us to create prayerfully considered options helps us live with the confidence that God will use our choices to invite us into a deeper and more fruitful relationship With Isenhower and Todd as your guides you ll learn how to make every decision an opportunity for living in God s presence more deeply The Practice of Prophecy Li Ming Dennis Lum, 2018-03-26 The charisma of prophecy is found throughout the history of the global Pentecostal movement Within the movement prophecy is seen as the communication of an inspired spontaneous revelation bringing edification to the faith community Despite its prevalence academic research has mostly focused on the biblical theological aspect neglecting the actual contemporary practice This book addresses this gap with a study on the practice of prophecy within the Assemblies of God of Singapore The book investigates the nature purpose and significance of the phenomenon It also identifies theological variables that are correlated with its practice and explicates these relationships The investigation employs the empirical theological method of Johannes van der Ven utilizing both a qualitative and a quantitative study The results provide a rich description of the actual reception delivery and judging of prophecy Significant findings include relationships between prophecy and courage love personality types prayer types and evangelism

New Creation Frank C. Senn, Although the twentieth century has witnessed a thorough liturgical revival and renewal the last ten years have exploded in diverse and conflicting styles settings and even media of corporate worship traditional high church liturgies alternative worship for small communities women church services seeker services at megachurches and more Does this innovation portend a brave new liturgical world or is it just dumbing down For example do megachurch services simply revive the old frontier revival and in an effort to reach out accommodate Christianity to the reigning consumer culture One of today's most knowledgeable liturgical theologians and historians contemplates the future shape of liturgy He believes that ritual systems liturgy express and inculcate a worldview an implicit theology and he fears lest the community of faith gain the whole world and lose its soul New Creation proposes the lines of a Christian culture or worldview or way of life that can inform liturgical renewal Twelve erudite and earnest chapters further specify this counter cultural matrix as it pertains to God Christ church creation world worship hospitality culture evangelism prayer and life itself

Prayer in the Workaday World Arthur Middleton, 2007 Real prayer consists of three essential constituents oral or bodily prayer prayer of the mind and prayer of the heart or of the mind in the heart and if one or other constituent is absent it is not prayer at all This book is not just about theory it is also about the practicalities of prayer The author's concern is to help people discover their rule of prayer in a way of living where contemplation and action can harmonize so that they can pray without ceasing in a world where coal is mined and candy floss is made To pray is to share in God's life to participate in the life the Father lives with the Son in the Holy Spirit That living experience and knowledge of God lies not in some far off country but in our own backyard the real and living circumstances of life in the workaday world as we respond to the spiritual fullness of life as it is and not as we imagine it to be or as we would like it to be It is not a flight of the alone to the Alone We journey with fellow members of the Body of Christ as we join in the apostles teaching and fellowship the breaking of bread and the prayers Acts 2:42 The weekly Liturgy is our School of Prayer where we are nourished in Word and Sacrament in the way of salvation so that the other six days are lived in the power of the Risen Christ and according to his will As an experienced retreat conductor and spiritual guide over many years Arthur Middleton brings out of his treasury things old and new and it is a welcome relief to read a book on Christian praying so rooted in the Christian tradition the Fathers the great spiritual writers of the Middle Ages the Anglican seventeenth century divines and the Tractarians and their successors and which is yet so properly practical as to how to go about the business of praying both personally and corporately Arthur Middleton's gift of writing with exemplary lucidity and theological profundity has served him well in what he has offered to us in this book BISHOP GEOFFREY ROWELL Arthur Middleton spent ten years in Sunderland and was Rector of Boldon from 1979-2003 Emeritus Canon of Durham Cathedral and Tutor at St Chad's College he served on the College Council and was Acting Principal in 1997 He is a Fellow of the Royal Historical Society and a Patron of the Society of King Charles the Martyr On the Editorial Board of New Directions he is a member of the Church Union Council His books include Towards a Renewed Priesthood and Fathers and Anglicans the Limits of Orthodoxy both published by Gracewing He has also lectured in Canada and Australia Married to Jennifer they have two sons

Jesus, Man of Prayer Kevin Perrotta, 2009-07-20 Jesus and prayer two topics that are inextricably linked together In Jesus Man of Prayer we learn about what it means to pray and how to do it by studying the way Jesus prayed Gain a greater understanding of Jesus and prayer as you work your way through this helpful and practical Bible study A Guided Discovery of the Bible The Bible invites us to explore God's word and reflect on how we might respond to it To do this we need guidance and the right tools for discovery The Six Weeks with the Bible series of Bible discussion guides offers both in a concise six week format Whether focusing on a specific biblical book or exploring a theme that runs throughout the Bible these practical guides in this series provide meaningful insights that explain Scripture while helping readers make connections to their own lives Each guide is faithful to Church teaching and is guided by sound biblical scholarship presents the insights of Church fathers and saints includes questions for discussion and reflection delivers information in a reader friendly format gives suggestions for prayer that help readers respond to God's word appeals to beginners as well as to advanced students of the Bible By reading Scripture reflecting on its deeper meanings and incorporating it into our daily life we can grow not only in our understanding of God's word but also in our relationship with God

Intertextual Explorations in Deuterocanonical and Cognate Literature Jeremy Corley, Geoffrey David

Miller,2019-05-06 This volume explores the fundamentals of intertextual methodology and summarizes recent scholarship on studies of intertextuality in the deuterocanonical books The essays engage in comparison and analysis of text groups and motifs between canonical deuterocanonical and non biblical texts Moreover the book pays close attention to non literary relationships between different traditions a new feature of research in intertextuality Evangelical Spirituality James McMillan Gordon,2006-07-10 Of the twenty two Evangelicals who have been studied some have been so widely influential that they are obvious inclusions others though less prominent are still remembered while a few are all but forgotten Selection was controlled by several considerations The period covered spans from the eighteenth century Revival to the present day Figures are included from only Britain and America The aim throughout has been to provide an appreciative exposition of Evangelical spirituality with some evaluative comment In Evangelicalism there is extraordinary diversity in spiritual experience doctrinal emphasis and personal temperment to the enrichment of the whole Church It has its share too of weaknesses blind spots and inner tensions But judged by its best representatives some of them to be found in this book the Evangelical spiritual tradition is a continuing witness to the power of the gospel and the mission of the Church from the Preface
