Personality Development And Psychotherapy In Our Diverse Society A Sourcebook:

Personality Development and Psychotherapy in Our Diverse Society Rafael Art. Javier, William G. Herron, 1998-11 This important new work encompasses the entire range of cultural influence in clinical work today The Bilingual Mind Rafael Art. Javier, 2007-08-06 As bilingual individuals enter the educational system and the clinical landscape they struggle with intricate often painful questions of identity culture and assimilation Professionals working with these individuals need to complement their knowledge of specific cultural issues with the psychological processes that all bilingual speakers share The Bilingual Mind Thinking Feeling and Speaking in Two Languages fills a critical gap in the cross cultural literature by illuminating the bilingual experience in both its social and clinical contexts Rafael Javier makes a convincing empirically founded case for what he terms the bilingual mind with its own particular approach to cognition memory and emotional and social development From this framework he proceeds to salient but seldom examined questions such as What are the effects of bilingualism on cognitive development Is some degree of language shifting always present in bilingual thinking Do interpreters improve or compromise communication What assessment instruments are best suited to bilingual individuals What are the key issues in providing appropriate treatment interventions to bilingual patients How can professionals be better trained to work with this population Given the prevalence of and controversies surrounding bilingualism today the author intends his text to benefit a wide range of therapists education professionals and scholars The Bilingual Mind will prove as valuable to the frontline clinician and the evaluator as to the linguistic student and the policymaker designing the future of bilingual services Sourcebook of Rehabilitation and Mental Health Practice David P. Moxley, John R. Finch, 2003-09-30 This volume addresses the promise and challenges of employment service roles and contexts in rehabilitation and mental health practice developing readiness for employment sustaining employment and responding to the needs of people coping with a range of disabilities The book is relevant to the education of human service professionals and will enable practitioners to expand their awareness understanding and knowledge of the interface of rehabilitation and mental health Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women Cheris Kramarae, Dale Spender, 2004-04-16 For a full list of entries and contributors sample entries and more visit the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women website Featuring comprehensive global coverage of women s issues and concerns from violence and sexuality to feminist theory the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women brings the field into the new millennium In over 900 signed A Z entries from US and Europe Asia the Americas Oceania and the Middle East the women who pioneered the field from its inception collaborate with the new scholars who are shaping the future of women s studies to create the new standard work for anyone who needs information on women related subjects Specialty Competencies in Psychoanalysis in Psychology Dolores O. Morris, Rafael Art. Javier, William G. Herron, 2014-10-01 In its evolution psychoanalysis has become a broad spectrum of theories making use of an approach that can be considered psychoanalytic in that it is based on the existence and importance of unconscious motivation In Specialty Competencies in Psychoanalysis in Psychology Morris Javier and Herron discuss and delineate the functional and foundational competencies of psychoanalytic practice The book is designed for all mental health professionals and will be very helpful to psychologists seeking to strengthen their background in psychoanalytic theory or treatment Additionally individuals who aspire to specialize in this area of professional psychology will find it invaluable Because the authors describe these complex theoretical ideas in terms of practical competencies this book also makes for an especially useful guide for teaching students Series in Specialty Competencies in Professional Psychology Series Editors Arthur M Nezu and Christine Maguth Nezu As the field of psychology continues to grow and new specialty areas emerge and achieve recognition it has become increasingly important to define the standards of professional specialty practice Developed and conceived in response to this need for practical guidelines this series presents methods strategies and techniques for conducting day to day practice in any given psychology specialty The topical volumes address best practices across the functional and foundational competencies that characterize the various psychology specialties including clinical psychology cognitive and behavioral psychology school psychology geropsychology forensic psychology clinical neuropsychology couples and family psychology and more Functional competencies include common practice activities like assessment and intervention while foundational competencies represent core knowledge areas such as ethical and legal issues cultural diversity and professional identification In addition to describing these competencies each volume provides a definition description and development timeline of a particular specialty including its essential and characteristic pattern of activities as well as its distinctive and unique features Written by recognized experts in their respective fields volumes are comprehensive up to date and accessible These volumes offer invaluable guidance to not only practicing mental health professionals but those training for specialty practice as well

Assessing Trauma in Forensic Contexts Rafael Art.

Javier,Elizabeth A. Owen,Jemour A. Maddux,2020-02-29 This book examines the different ways that trauma is involved in the lives of those who interact with the justice system and how trauma can be exacerbated in legal settings It includes both victims and perpetrators in providing a perspective on trauma in general and a framework that will guide those who evaluate and treat individuals in forensic settings Comprehensive in scope it covers key areas such as developmental issues emotions linguistic and communication difficulties and special populations such as veterans immigrants abused women incarcerated individuals and children The main objective of this book is to bring trauma to the fore in conducting forensic evaluations in order to understand these cases in greater depth and to provide appropriate interventions for a range of problems This masterful book edited by Rafael Art Javier Elizabeth Owen and Jemour A Maddux is a refreshing original and thoughtful response to these needs demonstrating beyond any doubt why lawyers and forensic mental health professionals must be trauma informed in all of their relevant work Michael L Perlin Esq New York Law School
