Effective Counselling with Young People Hazel Reid, Jane Westergaard, 2011-05-20 This book examines key theoretical counselling perspectives and applies these specifically to work with young people It establishes how to build counselling relationships in order to support young people and enable them to achieve positive outcomes and to manage their lives effectively It also identifies the key counselling skills needed to engage in purposeful helping conversations There are sections on understanding adolescent development exploring person-centred principles and understanding and using motivational interviewing all of which help to blend academic theory with the realities of practice

Person-Centred Counselling Supervision Richard Bryant-Jeffries, 2017-11-22 Each preceding book in the Living Therapy series provides a demonstration of the application of the person-centred approach to counselling and psychotherapy to clients presenting with particular issues To complement these this book focuses more on the supervisory element of the therapeutic process It brings together examples of supervision sessions from the Living Therapy series and presents each one as an example of person-centred supervisory practice of person-centred counselling The supervision sessions deal with a range of issues that arise when working with clients who are seeking counselling in order to resolve difficulties from a wide range of difficult human experience Each supervision session is introduced with a summary of the background and points for discussion are included

at the end of each chapter to stimulate further thought and debate The book does not attempt to demonstrate a definitive way to apply person centred principles to supervision but does demonstrate core principles It will prove valuable to experienced and novice supervisors and to those uncertain about supervising counsellors working in areas outside their own professional experience It should also be read by counsellors in training who are preparing to be supervised for whom the book offers insights into this collaborative process Co-Creative Transactional Analysis Graeme Summers, Keith Tudor, 2018-05-01 Co creative transactional analysis is an approach to a particular branch of psychology which as the phrase suggests emphasises the co mutual joint aspect of professional relationships whether therapeutic educative and or consultative and by implication of personal relationships The co of co creative acknowledges the transactional inter relational mutual joint and co operative as well as partnership Developed by the authors over some fifteen years the co creative approach has found a resonance not only amongst psychotherapists but also educationalists consultants and coaches The book itself represents and reflects the co creative approach in that it is based on a critical dialogue between the authors themselves about their collaborative and independent work as well as between invited contributors and the authors

Person-Centred Counselling in a Nutshell Roger Casemore, 2011-02-11 Person Centred Counselling in a Nutshell is a short accessible guide to one of the most popular approaches to counselling Using examples drawn from practice Roger Casemore outlines in a clear jargon free style the main principles of the person centred approach using the core therapeutic conditions congruence unconditional regard empathy This revised and updated second edition includes new material on professional issues on the use of person centred counselling in short term therapy and on the wider application of the person centred approach in other settings Providing a concise introduction to the theory and practice of person centred counselling Person Centred Counselling in a Nutshell is the ideal place to start for anyone reading about the approach for the first time Roger Casemore is Senior Teaching Fellow and Director of Counselling courses at University of Warwick Developing Inquiry for Learning Peter Ovens, Frances Wells, Patricia Wallis, Cyndy Hawkins, 2012-04-27 Developing Inquiry for Learning shows how university tutors can help students to improve their abilities to learn and to become professional inquirers An increasing proportion of students entering higher education seem to assume that learning is a relatively passive process This may be the largest single limitation on their achievement University tutors need to be able to respond creatively to students learning needs and difficulties The modern teaching environment in higher education demands a sophisticated approach to teaching learning and assessment i e the curriculum its planning its development and tutors professional development Tutors need fresh ideas about how to challenge students spoon fed approach to enable them to become collaborative yet independently motivated learners In the innovative and practically proven approach developed by the authors of this book students are guided to implement action research into their learning practices and reflections Using a rolling programme of cyclical inquiries and whole group conferences on improving learning students write patches on learning development which are then shared across the year group online Each student s cumulative set of patches together with their regular reflective writing provide the basis for assembling a composite final assignment a Patchwork Text for assessment This style of curriculum and assessment organisation encourages regular peer feedback and formative assessment as part of the whole module process This is a dynamic approach which builds personal confidence within students both as learners and as professionals Providing teaching materials and examples of students responses including the use of blogs wikis and discussion boards Developing Inquiry for Learning analyses and theorises on the deeper characteristics of the difficulties being addressed With the provision of relevant frameworks of theory and values readers are amply equipped to adopt adapt and experiment within their own developments of teaching and curricula Tutors particularly programme leaders and those who are responsible for the quality of student learning across programmes are challenged in various ways to re evaluate current provision and are helped to improve it in ways which can be matched to local situations and priorities Peter Ovens was Principal Lecturer in Professional and Curriculum Development at Nottingham Trent University and is now a Senior Research Fellow at the University of Cumbria Frances Wells is a Principal Lecturer in Education at Nottingham Trent University Pat Wallis is a Senior lecturer in Professional Studies at Nottingham Trent University Cyndy Hawkins is a Senior Lecturer in the School of Education at Nottingham Trent University
