Perspectives On Bereavement:

Perspectives on Loss John H. Harvey, 1998 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

The World of Bereavement Joanne Cacciatore, John DeFrain, 2015-04-15 This visionary work explores the sensitive balance between the personal and private aspects of grief the social and cultural variables that unite communities in bereavement and the universal experience of loss Its global journey takes readers into the processes of coping ritual and belief across established and emerging nations indigenous cultures and countries undergoing major upheavals richly detailed by native scholars and practitioners In these pages culture itself is recognized as formed through many lenses from the ancestral to the experiential The human capacity to mourn endure and make meaning is examined in papers such as Death grief and culture in Kenya experiential strengths based research Death and grief in Korea the continuum of life and death To live with death loss in Romanian culture The Brazilian ways of living dying and grieving Death and bereavement in Israel Jewish Muslim and Christian perspectives Completing the circle of life death and grief among Native Americans It is always normal to remember death grief and culture in Australia The World of Bereavement will fascinate and inspire clinicians providers and researchers in the field of death studies as well as privately held professional training programs and the bereavement community in general

Perspectives on Bereavement Irwin Gerber, 1979

Men and Loss Kerry Jones, Martin Robb, 2024-07-19 This important book draws together new research and theories about bereavement on the one hand and men and masculinities on the other to increase our understanding of men s experience of loss and contribute towards improving support services for men following bereavement Bereavement and loss are unavoidable events in life and can be challenging experiences for anyone regardless of gender However in contemporary western cultures men s experience of bereavement continues to be framed by socially constructed ideas surrounding masculinity which dictate that men must be stoic following a loss with grief manifesting in either anger or despair Men who do not grieve in accepted masculine ways can feel judged alienated or disenfranchised This interdisciplinary and interprofessional collection presents theoretical analysis reports of research findings reviews of support and interventions and a wealth of personal accounts It includes chapters discussing partner loss childhood bereavement perinatal loss and bereavement through suicide as well as bereavement at all stages of the life course Men and Loss is an essential read for advanced students and researchers with an interest in men s health and bereavement studies from a range of disciplinary backgrounds including nursing medicine counselling sociology social work and psychology

New Perspectives in Bereavement and Loss: Complicated and Disenfranchised Grief Along the Life Cycle Manuel Fernández-Alcántara, Francisco Cruz-Quintana, María Nieves Pérez-Marfil, Cyrille Kossigan Kokou-Kpolou, 2021-07-27

The Meaning of Mourning Mikołaj Sławkowski-Rode, 2023 Grief is a universal human response to death and loss Mourning is an equally universally observable practice that enables the bereaved to express their grief and come to terms with the reality of loss Yet despite their prevalence there is no unified understanding of the nature and meaning of grief and mourning The Meaning of Mourning Perspectives on Death Loss and Grief brings together fifteen essays from diverse disciplines addressing the topics of death grief and mourning The collection moves from general questions concerning the putative badness of death and the meaning of loss through the phenomenology and psychology of grief to personal and cultural aspects of mourning Contributors examine topics such as theodicy and grief reproductive loss mourning as a form of recognition of value the roots of grief in early childhood grief in COVID times hope phenomenology of loss public commemoration and mourning rituals mourning for a devastated culture the Necropolis of Glasgow and the art of outliving Edited by Miko aj S awkowski Rode the volume provides a survey of the rich topography of methodologies problems approaches and disciplines that are involved in the study of issues surrounding loss and our responses to it and guides the reader through a spectrum of perspectives highlighting the connections and discontinuities between them Death John B. Williamson, Edwin S. Shneidman, 1995 These classic and contemporary essays explore the broad range of structural and social contexts of death They cover issues including the psychology sociology and ethics of death and dying Perspectives on Loss John H. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2009-07-15 This two volume Encyclopdia through multidisciplinary and international contributions and perspectives organizes defines and clarifies more than 300 death related concepts Perspectives on Bereavement Irwin Gerber, Alfred Wiener, Austin H. Kutscher, 1978-10-01 Dying and Grieving Alicia Skinner Cook, Kevin Oltjenbruns, 1998 From a lifespan development perspective the authors address the major aspects of the dying and grieving process The text focuses on the practical application of the theories and explanations presented Features Holistic perspective includes physical emotional social psychological and spiritual aspects In each chapter there are personal accounts The text is family oriented Chapter 1 illustrates how issues in this field have changed quite rapidly over time A separate chapter on suicide illustrates that sudden death involves many unique issues when compared to an expected death New to this edition Chapter 1 has been completely revised to provide context for changes in the primary causes of death the increase in violence in U S society bioethical and legal issues the impact of technology and multicultural environments An increased focus on various aspects of culture recognizes the diversity within the U S Ethnic differences and international comparisons are evident in Multicultural Environments section of Chapter 1 examples and boxes throughout the text and in personal accounts More focus on sudden death and life threatening illness as well as Death, Dying, and Bereavement Judith M. Stillion, Thomas Attig, PhD, 2014-11-07 Print CourseSmart Loss and Bereavement Sheila Payne, 1999-11-16 How have people sought to understand loss and bereavement What are the current theoretical approaches to loss and bereavement What are the implications of these approaches for interventions This book aims to provide students with an understanding of important theoretical perspectives and specific models of adaptation to loss It is assumed that loss and change are normal processes which occur within a social and cultural context and the reader is introduced to historical and cultural perspectives which illustrate the diversity of approaches to loss Major theoretical perspectives are explored to enable students to understand their origins and influence The authors go on to review the development of common models used to conceptualise individual reactions to loss and provide a critique of these models highlighting the assumptions that underpin them Finally they discuss how these conceptual models have actually been used in clinical and community interventions This is a comprehensive text describing the variety of approaches available to understand the process of loss and bereavement

Brief Interventions with Bereaved Children Barbara Monroe, Frances Kraus, 2005 The contact between a health care professional and a bereaved child can often be very brief and yet the interaction can have a profound effect on the child and on the professional themselves This book describes and illustrates the concept of brief therapeutic work with bereaved children and families Recent years have seen increasing interest in the needs of children facing bereavement and a corresponding increase in services to support them Brief Interventions with Bereaved children addresses and explains the theoretical concepts and practical implications behind the idea of brief work with bereaved children and families Flexible and accessible short term services delivered at the right time underpin the strengths of bereaved children supporting their recovery rather than pathologising the grief process The topic of this book is unique in the field and will appeal to palliative care practitioners educators and service providers managing scarce resources The book features some distinguished contributors with backgrounds in health care education social work and the police alongside theoretical and practice based chapters from workers in the field of bereavement care for children There is also a chapter from the service user s perspective

Cambridge Handbook of Psychology, Health and Medicine Susan Ayers, Andrew Baum, Chris McManus, Stanton Newman, Kenneth Wallston, John Weinman, Robert West, 2007-08-23 Health psychology is a rapidly expanding discipline at the interface of psychology and clinical medicine This new edition is fully reworked and revised offering an entirely up to date comprehensive accessible one stop resource for clinical psychologists mental health professionals and specialists in health related matters There are two new editors Susan Ayers from the University of Sussex and Kenneth Wallston from Vanderbilt University Medical Center The prestigious editorial team and their international interdisciplinary cast of authors have reconceptualised their much acclaimed handbook The book is now in two parts part I covers psychological aspects of health and illness assessments interventions and healthcare practice Part II covers medical matters listed in alphabetical order Among the many new topics added are diet and health ethnicity and health clinical interviewing mood assessment communicating risk medical interviewing diagnostic procedures organ donation IVF MMR HRT sleep disorders skin disorders depression and anxiety disorders

Dying, Death and Bereavement in a British

Hindu Community Shirley Firth, 1997 This study is an exploration of the religious beliefs attitudes traditions and rituals of a British hindu community with respect to dying death and bereavement The observations of this community are compared with material obtained during three months of fieldwork in India and ethnographic sources The primary focus of this study is on individual Hindus seen in the context of their family and community their beliefs experiences and perceptions about death and their reactions to the changes that take place It also examines the process of adaptation and change in the death rituals and the role of the pandits in maintaining continuity The first part of this study sets the context introducing the issues confronting Hindus facing death and bereavement in Britain It discusses theoretical issues in a multicultural study as well as beliefs about death and life after death In the second part Hindu ritual practices around death are explored using a model of nine stages from preparation for death to the final post mortem and annual ancestral rituals The third part explores the social and psychological dimensions of death grief and mourning the implications of death in hospital and the professional and bureaucratic issues which affect Hindu deaths in Britain The social aspects of mourning are discussed with reference to pollution the role of the family and community young people and widows Finally the author examines the implications of social changes for British Hindus and for those who are involved with them in the caring professions Dying, Death and Bereavement Inge B. Corless, Barbara A. Germino, Mary Pittman, 1999-07-01 This collection of original essays by major scholars in the field provides a comprehensive view of dying death and bereavement for students of thanatology in a variety of disciplines This exceptional text provides a broad perspective for all courses on death and dying or serves as an excellent resource for students and professionals alike in fields such as nursing and medicine sociology psychology religion and philosophy and health Discusses the care of individuals during dying death and bereavement while incorporating social cultural aesthetic and scientific issues Presents both experiential and theoretical perspectives
