English for Academic Purposes (EAP) in Asia Indika Liyanage,Tony Walker,2014-09-11 The adoption of English as the language of study and scholarship is becoming increasingly common among universities across Asia But does this adoption of the English language not also mean the adoption of Western approaches to scholarship and knowledge This most timely and important book critically examines how EAP practitioners can negotiate between Western and Asian academic practices and approaches to knowledge and scholarship and is essential reading for anyone involved in international education Andy Kirkpatrick Professor in Linguistics Griffith University      Contemporary Perspectives on Reading and Spelling Clare Wood,Vincent Connelly,2009-09-10 With contributions from leading international researchers Contemporary Perspectives on Reading and Spelling offers a critique of current thinking on the research literature into reading reading comprehension and writing Each paper in this volume provides an account of empirical research that challenges aspects of accepted models and widely accepted theories about reading and spelling This book develops the argument for a need to incorporate less widely cited research into popular accounts of written language development and disability challenging the idea that the development of a universal theory of written language development is attainable The arguments within the book are explored in three parts overarching debates in reading and spelling reading and spelling across languages written language difficulties and approaches to teaching Opening up the existing debates and incorporating psychological theory and the politics surrounding the teaching and learning of reading and spelling this edited collection offers some challenging points for reflection about how the discipline of psychology as a whole approaches the study of written language skills Highlighting ground breaking new perspectives this book forms essential reading for all researchers and practitioners with a focus on the development of reading and spelling skills      Linguistic perspectives from the classroom ,2004      Local Research and Glocal Perspectives in English Language Teaching Rubina Khan,Ahmed Bashir,Bijoy Lal Basu,Md. Elias Uddin,2023-01-01 This book provides an overview of recent trends and developments in the field of English language education It showcases research endeavors from a heterogenous group of scholars from different parts of the world and brings together perspectives from both experienced and emerging scholars This book provides a platform for established as well as emerging practitioners and scholars in the field of English Language Teaching to share their research It synthesizes local expertise and culture with innovative ideas from other contexts and brings theory and practice together in one volume      Marxist Perspectives on South Korea in the Global Economy Martin Hart-Landsberg,Seongjin Jeong,Westra Richard,2017-03-02 This volume brings together work by international scholars to provide a unique analysis of the past present and possible future trajectory of Korea s political economy from a distinctly Marxist perspective The volume differentiates the Marxian approach to the political economy of Korean development from the Keynesian social democratic approach that currently dominates the critical literature In doing so the volume provides a unique view of the development of the South Korean Economy
