Perspectives ,1987 Perspectives San Diego Museum of Art, 1988 African and Diaspora Aesthetics Sarah Nuttall, 2006 In Cameroon a monumental statue of liberty is made from scrap metal In Congo a thriving popular music incorporates piercing screams and carnal dances When these and other instantiations of the aesthetics of Africa and its diasporas are taken into account how are ideas of beauty reconfigured Scholars and artists take up that question in this invigorating lavishly illustrated collection which includes more than one hundred color images Exploring sculpture music fiction food photography fashion and urban design the contributors engage with and depart from canonical aesthetic theories as they demonstrate that beauty cannot be understood apart from ugliness Highlighting how ideas of beauty are manifest and how they mutate travel and combine across time and distance continental and diasporic writers examine the work of a Senegalese sculptor inspired by Leni Riefenstahl's photographs of Nuba warriors a rich Afro Brazilian aesthetic incorporating aspects of African Jamaican and American cultures and African Americans Africanization of the Santer a movement in the United States They consider the fraught intricate spaces of the urban landscape in postcolonial South Africa the intense pleasures of eating on R union and the shockingly graphic images on painted plywood boards advertising morality plays along the streets of Ghana And they analyze the increasingly ritualized wedding feasts in Cameroon as well as the limits of an explicitly African aesthetics Two short stories by the Mozambican writer Mia Couto gesture toward what beauty might be in the context of political failure and postcolonial disillusionment Together the essays suggest that beauty is in some sense future oriented and that taking beauty in Africa and its diasporas seriously is a way of rekindling hope Contributors Rita Barnard Kamari Maxine Clarke Mia Couto Mark Gevisser Simon Gikandi Michelle Gilbert Isabel Hofmeyr William Kentridge Dominique Malaquais Achille Mbembe Cheryl Ann Michael Celestin Monga Sarah Nuttall Patricia Pinho Rodney Place Els van der Plas Pippa Stein Fran oise Verg s Black Enterprise ,1987-04 BLACK ENTERPRISE is the ultimate source for wealth creation for African American professionals entrepreneurs and corporate executives Every month BLACK ENTERPRISE delivers timely useful information on careers small business and personal finance Understanding African Philosophy Richard H. Bell, 2002 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Art of the Dogon Kate Ezra, 1988 Primitivist Modernism Sieglinde Lemke, 1998-04-30 This book explores a rich cultural hybridity at the heart of transatlantic modernism Focusing on cubism jazz and Josephine Baker's performance in the Danse Sauvage Sieglinde Lemke uncovers a crucial history of white and black intercultural exchange a phenomenon until now greatly obscured by a cloak of whiteness Considering artists and critics such as Picasso Alain Locke Nancy Cunard and Paul Whiteman in addition to Baker Lemke documents a potent cultural dialectic in which black artistic expression fertilized white modernism just as white art forms helped shape the black modernism of Harlem and Paris Coining the term primitivist modernism to designate the multicultural heritage of this century's artistic production Lemke reveals the generative and germinating black cultural Other in the arts She examines this neglected dimension in full fascinating detail blending literary theory social history and cultural analysis to document modernism's complex absorption of African culture and art She details numerous ways in which African and African American forms visual styles musical idioms black dialects and fantasies Baker's costume and dance say permeated high and mass culture on both sides of the Atlantic So called primitive art and high modernism savage rhythms and European music hall culture European and African American expressions in jazz European primitivism and the racial awakenings of African American culture paired and freshly examined by Lemke these subjects stand revealed in their true interrelatedness Insisting on modernism's two way cultural flow Lemke demonstrates not only that white modernism owes much of its symbolic capital to the black Other but that black modernism built itself in part on white Euro American models Through superbly nuanced readings of individual texts and images fifteen striking examples of which are reproduced in this handsome volume Lemke reforms our understanding of modernism She shows us in clear invigorating fashion that transatlantic modernism in both its high and popular modes was significantly more diverse than commonly supposed Students and scholars of modernism African American studies and cultural studies and those with interests in twentieth century art dance music or literature will find this book richly rewarding

Kwame Anthony Appiah Christopher J. Lee, 2021-05-23 This clear and engaging introduction is the first book to assess the ideas of Kwame Anthony Appiah the Ghanaian British philosopher who is a leading public intellectual today The book focuses on the theme of identity and is structured around five main topics corresponding to the subjects of his major works race culture liberalism cosmopolitanism and moral revolutions This helpful book Teaches students about the sources opportunities and dilemmas of personal and social identity whether on the basis of race gender sexuality or class among others in the purview of Appiah Locates Appiah within a broader tradition of intellectual engagement with these issues involving such thinkers as W E B Du Bois John Stuart Mill and Martha Nussbaum and thus how Appiah is both an inheritor and innovator of preceding ideas Seeks to inspire students on how to approach and negotiate identity politics in the present This book ultimately imparts a more diverse and wider reaching geographic sense of philosophy through the lens of Appiah and his intellectual contributions as well as emphasizing the continuing social relevance of philosophy and critical theory more generally to everyday life today

Africa in the American Imagination Carol Magee,2012-04-26 In the American world the presence of African culture is sometimes fully embodied and sometimes leaves only a trace Africa in the American Imagination Popular Culture Racialized Identities and African Visual Culture explores this presence examining Mattel s world of Barbie the 1996 Sports Illustrated swimsuit issue and Disney World each of which repackages African visual culture for consumers Because these cultural icons permeate American life they represent the broader U S culture and its relationship to African culture This study integrates approaches from art history and visual culture studies with those from culture race and popular culture studies to analyze this interchange Two major threads weave throughout One analyzes how the presentation of African visual culture in these popular culture forms conceptualizes Africa for the American public The other investigates the way the uses of African visual culture focuses America s own self awareness particularly around black and white racialized identities In exploring the multiple meanings that Africa has in American popular culture Africa in the American Imagination argues that these cultural products embody multiple perspectives and speak to various sociopolitical contexts the Cold War civil rights and contemporary eras of the United States the apartheid and post apartheid eras of South Africa the colonial and postcolonial eras of Ghana and the European era of African colonization

Making Representations Moira G. Simpson,2012-12-06 Drawing upon material from Britain Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand Making Representations explores the ways in which museums and anthropologists are responding to pressures in the field by developing new policies and practices and forging new relationships with communities Simpson examines the increasing number of museums and cultural centres being established by indigenous and immigrant communities as they take control of the interpretive process and challenge the traditional role of the museum Museum studies students and museum professionals will all find this a stimulating and valuable read

The Lower Niger Bronzes Philip M. Peek,2020-07-27 This book demonstrates that copper alloy casting was widespread in southern Nigeria and has been practiced for at least a millennium Philip M Peek s research provides a critical context for the better known casting traditions of Igbo Ukwu Ife and Benin Both the necessary ores and casting skills were widely available contrary to previous scholarly assumptions The majority of the Lower Niger Bronzes which we know number in the thousands are of subjects not found elsewhere such as leopard skull replicas grotesque bell heads ritual objects and humanoid figures Important puzzle pieces are now in place to permit a more complete reconstruction of southern Nigerian history The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history African studies African history and anthropology In My Father's House Kwame Anthony Appiah, 1993-05-27 The beating of Rodney King and the resulting riots in South Central Los Angeles The violent clash between Hasidim and African Americans in Crown Heights The boats of Haitian refugees being turned away from the Land of Opportunity These are among the many racially charged images that have burst across our television screens in the last year alone images that show that for all our complacent beliefs in a melting pot society race is as much of a problem as ever in America In this vastly important widely acclaimed volume Kwame Anthony Appiah a Ghanaian philosopher who now teaches at Harvard explores in his words the possibilities and pitfalls of an African identity in the late twentieth century In the process he sheds new light on what it means to be an African American on the many preconceptions that have muddled discussions of race Africa and Afrocentrism since the end of the nineteenth century and in the end to move beyond the idea of race In My Father's House is especially wide ranging covering everything from Pan Africanism to the works of early African American intellectuals such as Alexander Crummell and W E B Du Bois to the ways in which African identity influences African literature In his discussion of the latter subject Appiah demonstrates how attempts to construct a uniquely African literature have ignored not only the inescapable influences that centuries of contact with the West have imposed but also the multicultural nature of Africa itself Emphasizing this last point is Appiah's eloquent title essay which offers a fitting finale to the volume In a moving first person account of his father's death and funeral in Ghana Appiah offers a brilliant metaphor for the tension between Africa's aspirations to modernity and its desire to draw on its ancient cultural roots During the Los Angeles riots Rodney King appeared on television to make his now famous plea People can we all get along In this beautiful elegantly written volume Appiah steers us along a path toward answering a question of the utmost importance to us all

American Multicultural Studies Sherrow O. Pinder, 2013 American Multicultural Studies Diversity of Race Ethnicity Gender and Sexuality provides an interdisciplinary view of multicultural studies in the United States addressing a wide range of topics that continue to define and shape this area of study Through this collection of essays Sherrow Pinder responds to the need to open up a rich avenue for addressing current and continuing issues of race gender ethnicity sexuality cultural diversity and education in their varied forms Substantial thematic overlaps are found between sections and essays all of which are oriented toward a single broad objective to develop new and different ways of addressing how multicultural issues in their discursive sociocultural contexts are inextricably linked to the operations of power Power as a site of resistance to which it invariably gives rise is tackled from a perspective that attends to the complexities of America's history and politics
