

THE 4 MAJOR PERSPECTIVES OF PSYCHOLOGY (social problems)

1. Functionalist : society is like the human body, every organ has a function to keep it working
  - Dysfunctions can be a result of gmonie - a state of unawareness where social rules are not well understood
2. Conflict : norms in society that exist because they serve those with wealth and or power
  - Social problems arise because society is held together through coercion of the powerness by the powerful, and social problems are the result of exploration or competition
3. Feminist : many of societies problems can be traced to the norma established through patriarchy
  - Where society is dominated by men
4. Symbolic interaction : the subjective reality of social problems differs based on our understanding of language, words, and symbols
  - All norms are created and negotiated through social interaction
  - More focused on how problems are communicated rather than how they actually affect people
