Nomadic Societies in the Middle East and North Africa Dawn Chatty,2018-11-12 A scholarly volume devoted to an understanding of contemporary nomadic and pastoral societies in the Middle East and North Africa This volume recognizes the variable mobile quality of the ways of life of these societies which persist in accommodating the nation state of the 20th and 21st century but remain firmly transnational and highly adaptive Composed of four sections around the theme of contestation it includes examinations of contested authority and power space and social transformation development and economic transformation and cultures and engendered spaces Nomads and Ottomans in Medieval Anatolia Rudi Paul

Lindner,2017-07-12 First published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Change and Development in Nomadic and Pastoral Societies ,2022-10-17 Nomadic Theory Rosi Braidotti,2012-02-07 Rosi Braidotti s nomadic theory outlines a sustainable modern subjectivity as one in flux never opposed to a dominant hierarchy yet intrinsically other always in the process of becoming and perpetually engaged in dynamic power relations both creative and restrictive Nomadic theory offers an original and powerful alternative for scholars working in cultural and social criticism and has over the past decade crept into continental philosophy queer theory and feminist postcolonial techno science media and race studies as well as into architecture history and anthropology This collection provides a core introduction to Braidotti s nomadic theory and its innovative formulations which playfully engage with Deleuze Foucault Irigaray and a host of political and cultural issues Arranged thematically essays begin with such concepts as sexual difference and embodied subjectivity and follow with explorations in technoscience feminism postsecular citizenship and the politics of affirmation Braidotti develops a distinctly positive critical theory that rejuvenates the experience of political scholarship Inspired yet not confined by Deleuzian vitalism with its commitment to the ontology of flows networks and dynamic transformations she emphasizes affects imagination and creativity and the politics of radical immanence Incorporating ideas from Nietzsche and Spinoza as well Braidotti establishes a critical theoretical framework equal parts critique and creation Ever mindful of the perils of defining difference in terms of denigration and the related tendency to subordinate sexualized racialized and naturalized others she explores the eco philosophical implications of nomadic theory feminism and the irreducibility of sexual difference and sexuality Her dialogue with technoscience is crucial to nomadic theory which deterritorializes the established understanding of what counts as human along with our relationship to animals the environment and changing notions of materialism Keeping her distance from the near obsessive focus on vulnerability trauma and melancholia in contemporary political thought Braidotti promotes a politics of affirmation that has the potential to become its own generative life force Advances in Archaeological Method and Theory Michael B Schiffer,2014-06-30 Advances in Archaeological Method and Theory Volume 9 is a collection of papers that describes protohuman culture pastoralism artifact classification and the use of materials science techniques to study the construction of pottery Some papers discuss contingency tables geophysical methods of archaeological site surveying and predictive models for archaeological resource location One paper reviews the methodological and theoretical advances in the archaeological studies of human origins particularly covering the Plio Pleistocene period Another paper explains the historic and prehistoric development of pastoralism through archaeological investigation One paper traces the three phases of artifact classification each being a representation of a different attitude and approach Another paper evaluates pottery artifacts using a number of basic materials science concepts and analytic approaches toward the study of their mechanical strength and also reviews their use in archaeological studies of pottery production and organization To investigate archaeological intrasites the archaeologist can use different specialized methods such as seismic electromagnetic resistivity magnetometry and radar Another paper describes various empiric correlative models for locational prediction developed in both contexts of cultural resource management and academic research Sociologists anthropologist ethnographers museum curators professional or amateur archaeologists will find the collection immensely valuable

Nomadic Peoples and Human Rights Jérémie Gilbert, 2014-03-26 Although nomadic peoples are scattered worldwide and have highly heterogeneous lifestyles they face similar threats to their mobile livelihood and survival Commonly nomadic peoples are facing pressure from the predominant sedentary world over mobility land rights water resources access to natural resources and migration routes Adding to these traditional problems rapid growth in the extractive industry and the need for the exploitation of the natural resources are putting new strains on nomadic lifestyles This book provides an innovative rights based approach to the issue of nomadism looking at issues including discrimination persecution freedom of movement land rights cultural and political rights and effective management of natural resources Jeremie Gilbert analyses the extent to which human rights law is able to provide protection for nomadic peoples to perpetuate their own way of life and culture The book questions whether the current human rights regime is able to protect nomadic peoples and highlights the lacuna that currently exists in international human rights law in relation to nomadic peoples It goes on to propose avenues for the development of specific rights for nomadic peoples offering a new reading on freedom of movement land rights and development in the context of nomadism

Tourism Recovery Based on Digital Nomadism Post-COVID-19 in Ubud Bali Fransisco Situmorang, 2022-05-30 The COVID 19 pandemic is the worst crisis and historical record for the global tourism sector since the 1950s Destinations that rely heavily on the tourism sector will face this pandemic s extraordinary impact such as Bali which experienced a significant depreciation of economic growth However the COVID 19 pandemic is also the right opportunity and momentum to redesign tourism development more sustainable to overcome the overtourism issue in Bali Tourism recovery efforts must be carried out immediately by prioritizing product diversification and increasing destinations value and quality according to tourism development trends such as digital nomadism Digital nomadism as a lifestyle allows individuals to work regardless of location and take advantage of that freedom to travel worldwide The practice of digital nomadism has developed rapidly pre pandemic in the Ubud Tourism Area Bali and it will increase further due to the digital transformation of human life during the COVID 19 pandemic The Ubud Tourism Area recovery as a digital nomadism destination must be a priority consideration by the government tourism entrepreneurs and local communities in entering the post normal tourism period Perspectives on Travel Writing Glenn Hooper, 2017-05-15 Ranging from the early modern to the postcolonial and dealing mainly with encounters in Europe the Americas and the Middle East Perspectives on Travel Writing is a collection of new essays by international scholars that examines some of the various contexts of travel writing as well as its generic characteristics Contributions examine the similarities between autobiography and memoir fiction and travel writing and attempt to define travel writing as a genre Utilising a variety of approaches the essays display a shared concern with what travel writing does and how it does it The effects of encounter and border crossing on gender race and national identity are considered throughout The collection begins with a review of some of the problems and issues facing the scholar of travel writing and moves on to a detailed discussion of the qualities of travel writing and its related forms It then presents in chronological order a number of case studies before closing with a critical discussion of approaches to the subject An essay collection with broad historical and geographical coverage this volume should appeal to students and researchers of travel and travel related literatures from across the Humanities Nomads of Eastern Tibet Rinzin Thargyal, 2007 This book presents the first comprehensive anthropological account of premodern Tibetan pastoral economy and social organization in the Kham region of eastern Tibet and convincingly readdresses anthropological debates and political claims about feudalism or serfdom in Tibetan societies Social Science Perspectives on Global Public Health Vincent La Placa, Julia Morgan, 2022-09-30 Approaching global health through a social justice lens this text explores both established and emerging issues for contemporary health and wellbeing Divided into two parts the book introduces key concepts in relation to global public health such as ethics economics health disparities and globalisation The second part comprises chapters exploring specific challenges such as designing and implementing public health interventions the role of social enterprise climate change sustainability and health oral health violence palliative care mental health loneliness nutrition and embracing diverse genders These chapters build on and apply the theoretical frameworks laid out in part one linking the substantive content to broader contexts Taking an inclusive global approach this is a key text for both undergraduate and postgraduate students of global health public health and medical sociology Asian Perspectives, 2007 Nomad Family Bonds Estelle Whitford, 2025-02-27 Nomad Family Bonds explores the vital role of kinship and daily life in nomadic societies across the globe Challenging conventional views of family structure the book demonstrates how strong family bonds serve as a critical adaptive strategy for survival and prosperity in mobile communities Kinship networks in nomadic societies are often broader than those in sedentary societies acting as the primary framework for social support and resource allocation Investigating how these groups manage resources in harsh environments offers key insights into human adaptability The book progresses by examining diverse nomadic groups starting with pastoral nomads in Central Asia and their lineage based systems It then delves into the daily lives of African hunter gatherers highlighting their unique survival techniques and concludes with an analysis of Southeast Asian seafaring communities and their maritime skills This comparative approach reveals common threads and unique adaptations emphasizing kinship as a cornerstone of nomadic life By synthesizing historical accounts ethnographic studies and archaeological findings the book provides a holistic understanding of nomadic societies and their enduring family bonds

Nomadic and Indigenous Spaces Judith Miggelbrink, Joachim Otto Habeck, Nuccio Mazzullo, Peter Koch, 2016-05-06 This volume is devoted to aspects of space that have thus far been largely unexplored How space is perceived and cognised has been discussed from different stances but there are few analyses of nomadic approaches to spatiality Nor is there a sufficient number of studies on indigenous interpretations of space despite the importance of territory and place in definitions of indigeneity At the intersection of geography and anthropology the authors of this volume combine general reflections on spatiality with case studies from the Circumpolar North and other nomadic settings Spatial perceptions and practices have been profoundly transformed by new technologies as well as by new modes of social and political interaction How do these changes play out in the everyday lives identifications and political projects of nomadic and indigenous people This question has been broached from two seemingly divergent stances spatial cognition on the one hand and production of space on the other Bringing these two approaches together this volume re aligns the different strings of scholarship on spatiality making them applicable and relevant for indigenous and nomadic conceptualizations of space place and territory

The Global Nomad Greg Richards, Julie Wilson, 2004-03-16 Backpackers have shifted from the margins of the travel industry into the global spotlight This volume explores the international backpacker phenomenon drawing together different disciplinary perspectives on its meaning impact and significance Links are drawn between theory and practice setting backpacking in its wider social cultural and economic context
