A Cultural History of the Modern Age Vol. 3 Egon Friedell, Volume three of A Cultural History of the Modern Age finishes a journey that begins with Descartes in the first volume and ends with Freud and the psychoanalytical movement in the third volume Friedell describes the contents of these books as a series of performances starting with the birth of the man of the Modern Age followed by flowering of this epoch and concludes with the death of the Modern Age This huge landscape provides an intertwining of the material and the cultural the civil and the military from the high points of creative flowering in Europe to death and emptiness The themes convey multiple messages romanticism and liberalism opens the cultural scene encased in a movement from The Congress of
