Travel, Discovery, Transformation Gabriel R. Ricci,2013-12-30 This latest volume in the Culture Civilization series gathers interdisciplinary voices to present a collection of essays on travel and travel narratives The essays span a range of topics from iconic ancient travel stories to modern tourism They discuss travel in the ancient world modern heroic travels the literary culture of missionary travel the intersection of fiction and travel narratives modern literary traditions and visions of Greece personal identity and expatriation Essays also address travel memoirs the re imagining of worlds through travel transformed landscapes and animals in travel narratives diplomacy English women travel writers and pilgrimage and health in the medieval world The history of travel writing takes in multiple pursuits exploration and conquest religious pilgrimage and missionary work educational tourism and diplomacy scientific and personal discovery and natural history and oral history As a literary genre it has enhanced a wide range of disciplines including geography ethnography anthropology and linguistics Moreover twenty first century interests in travel and travel writing have produced a global framework that promises to expand travel s theoretical reach into the depths of the Internet thus challenging our conventional concept of what it means to travel The fact that travel and travel writing have a prehistory that is embedded in foundational religious texts and ancient narratives of journey like the Odyssey and the Epic of Gilgamesh makes both travel and travel writing fundamental and essential expressions of humanity Travel encourages writing particularly as epistolary and poetic chronicling This is clearly a history and tradition that began with human communication and which has kept pace with our collective development

The Worlds of the Moche on the North Coast of Peru Elizabeth P. Benson, 2012-07-15 The Moche or Mochica created an extraordinary civilization on the north coast of Peru for most of the first millennium AD Although they had no written language with which to record their history and beliefs the Moche built enormous ceremonial edifices and embellished them with mural paintings depicting supernatural figures and rituals Highly skilled Moche artisans crafted remarkable ceramic vessels which they painted with figures and scenes or modeled like sculpture and mastered metallurgy in gold silver and copper to make impressive symbolic ornaments They also wove textiles that were complex in execution and design A senior scholar renowned for her discoveries about the Moche Elizabeth P Benson published the first English language monograph on the subject in 1972 Now in this volume she draws on decades of knowledge as well as the findings of other researchers to offer a grand overview of all that is currently known about the Moche Touching on all significant aspects of Moche culture she covers such topics as their worldview and ritual life ceremonial architecture and murals art and craft supernatural beings government and warfare and burial and the afterlife She demonstrates that the Moche expressed with symbolic language in metal and clay what cultures in other parts of the world presented in writing Indeed Benson asserts that the accomplishments of the Moche are comparable to those of their Mesoamerica contemporaries the Maya which makes them one of the most advanced civilizations of pre Columbian America The food & drink guide for Peru

, 2025-09-25 Moche Art and Visual Culture in Ancient Peru Margaret A. Jackson, 2008-12-16 Scattered throughout their coastal homelands the remains of impressive artworks produced by the Moche of northern Peru survive These works include ceremonial centers extensively decorated with murals as well as elaborate and sophisticated ceramic vessels textiles and metalwork that serve to visually represent an ancient American culture that developed a complex systematized pictorial code used to communicate narratives sets of ideas and ideological constructs In this study Margaret Jackson analyzes Moche ceremonial architecture and ceramics to propose the workings of a widely understood visual language Using an interdisciplinary approach that incorporates archaeology and linguistics with art history and studies of visual culture Jackson looks at the symbolism of Moche art as a form of communication the social mechanisms that produced it and how it served to maintain the Moche social fabric

Peru's Indian Peoples and the Challenge of Spanish Conquest Steve J. Stern, 1993 This second edition of Peru's Indian Peoples and the Challenge of Spanish Conquest includes Stern's 1992 reflections on the ten years of historical interpretation that have passed since the book's original publication setting his analysis of Huamanga in a larger perspective This book is a monument to both scholarship and comprehension comparable in its treatment of the indigenous peoples after the conquest only to that of Charles Gibson for the Aztecs and perhaps the best volume read by this reviewer in several years Frederick P Bowser American Historical Review Peru's Indian Peoples and the Challenge of Spanish Conquest is clearly indispensable reading for Andeanists and highly recommended to ethnohistorians generally In technical respects it is a job done right and conceptually it stands out as a handsome example of anthropology and history woven into one tight fabric of inquiry Frank Salomon Ethnohistory

Discovery and Invention Charles T. Stewart Jr., 2019-06-12 The history of humanity can be written in terms of discovery and invention They are very different cognitive processes search for order and problem solving This book is a search for explanation of the Scientific and Industrial Revolutions It surveys seven civilizations in terms of both their achievements and their failures What were the characteristics they shared that promoted progress What prevented or discouraged progress in discovery and or in invention Sumer was creative the mother of civilizations Egypt was not In Sumer authority was divided and it was a trading economy Egypt was authoritarian and closed Rome and Islam inherited the Greek legacy Rome was not interested it had a different agenda Islam progressed but civilization conflicted with religion and then regressed China led in inventions but then stagnated and always lagged in discovery Its ultimate failure has multiple explanations that include the scope of authority structure of society and economy and of language and script But so was its preference for intuition over logic or evidence as the method of seeking the truth It is Greek capacity for abstraction origin a mystery that was essential for its achievements discoveries of the structure of the universe and the cognitive approach to truth seeking Much invention was a byproduct of discovery It is Greek achievements in discovery and abstract reasoning that Europe adopted and advanced leading to the scientific and subsequent industrial revolutions Ours is a new phase in human history What were some of its consequences and what are its prospects
