Pesn O Gaiavate:

Russian Studies of American Literature Valentina A. Libman,1969 Women of the Catacombs ,2021-03-15 The memoirs presented in Women of the Catacombs offer a rare close up account of the underground Orthodox community and its priests during some of the most difficult years in Russian history The catacomb church in the Soviet Union came into existence in the 1920s and played a significant part in Russian national life for nearly fifty years Adherents to the Orthodox faith often referred to the catacomb church as the light shining in the dark Women of the Catacombs provides a first hand portrait of lived religion in its social familial and cultural setting during this tragic period Until now scholars have had only brief scattered fragments of information about Russia s illegal church organization that claimed to protect the purity of the Orthodox tradition Vera Iakovlevna Vasilevskaia and Elena Semenovna Men who joined the church as young women offer evidence on how Russian Orthodoxy remained a viable alternative presence in Soviet society when all political educational and cultural institutions attempted to indoctrinate Soviet citizens with an atheistic perspective Wallace L Daniel s translation not only sheds light on Russia s religious and political history but also shows how two educated women maintained their personal integrity in times when prevailing political and social headwinds moved in an opposite direction About Chekhov Ivan Alekseevich Bunin,2007-06-05 Seven years after the death of Anton Chekhov his sister Maria wrote to a friend You asked for someone who could write a biography of my deceased brother If you recall I recommended Iv Al Bunin No one writes better than he he knew and understood my deceased brother very well he can go about the endeavor objectively I repeat I would very much like this biography to correspond to reality and that it be written by I A Bunin In About Chekhov Ivan Bunin sought to free the writer from limiting political social and aesthetic assessments of his life and work and to present both in a more genuine insightful and personal way Editor and translator Thomas Gaiton Marullo subtitles About Chekhov The Unfinished Symphony because although Bunin did not complete the work before his death in 1953 he nonetheless fashioned his memoir as a moving orchestral work on the writers existence and art Even in its unfinished state About Chekhov stands not only as a stirring testament of one writer s respect and affection for another but also as a living memorial to two highly creative artists Bunin draws on his intimate knowledge of Chekhov to depict the writer at work in love and in relation with such writers as Tolstoy and Gorky Through anecdotes and observations spirited exchanges and reflections this memoir draws a unique portrait that plumbs the depths and complexities of two of Russia s greatest writers

Twentieth-Century Russian Poetry Katharine Hodgson,Joanne Shelton,Alexandra Smith,2017-04-21 The canon of Russian poetry has been reshaped since the fall of the Soviet Union A multi authored study of changing cultural memory and identity this revisionary work charts Russia s shifting relationship to its own literature in the face of social upheaval Literary canon and national identity are inextricably tied together the composition of a canon being the attempt to single out those literary works that best express a nation s culture This process is of course fluid and subject to significant shifts particularly at times of epochal change This volume explores changes in the canon of twentieth century Russian poetry from the 1991 collapse of the Soviet Union to the end of Putin's second term as Russian President in 2008 In the wake of major institutional changes such as the abolition of state censorship and the introduction of a market economy the way was open for wholesale reinterpretation of twentieth century poets such as Iosif Brodskii Anna Akhmatova and Osip Mandelstam their works and their lives In the last twenty years many critics have discussed the possibility of various coexisting canons rooted in official and non official literature and suggested replacing the term Soviet literature with a new definition Russian literature of the Soviet period Contributions to this volume explore the multiple factors involved in reshaping the canon understood as a body of literary texts given exemplary or representative status as classics Among factors which may influence the composition of the canon are educational institutions competing views of scholars and critics including figures outside Russia and the self canonising activity of poets themselves Canon revision further reflects contemporary concerns with the destabilising effects of emigration and the internet and the desire to reconnect with pre revolutionary cultural traditions through a narrative of the past which foregrounds continuity Despite persistent nostalgic yearnings in some quarters for a single canon the current situation is defiantly diverse balancing both the Soviet literary tradition and the parallel contemporaneous literary worlds of the emigration and the underground Required reading for students teachers and lovers of Russian literature Twentieth Century Russian Poetry brings our understanding of post Soviet Russia up to date 'Writing Race' in Nineteenth Century American Literature Joseph Franklin Lockard, 2000 Sacred Stories Mark D. Ivan Bunin: The Twilight of Emigre Russia, 1934-1953 Thomas Gaiton Marullo, 2002-07 In his late years still living in self imposed exile from the Soviet Union Bunin sought only to think and write in undisturbed peace He had won the Nobel Prize and received more accolades than he had ever experienced now he wished only to divide his time between Paris and his country home in Grasse But the onset of war in Europe enmeshed Bunin in the tumult and chaos that had marked his first sixty years Coupled with this disarray were the formidable pressures of his compatriots in Russia Abroad the community of exiles who now demanded that he represent the best attributes of patriarchal Russia in his personal deportment as well as his literary activities A Nobel laureate he was now also a man god to his emigre community Mr Marullo draws from letters diaries and memoirs to compose a picture of Bunin amidst these times including his continued hatred for Soviet leaders as well as for the rising aggression of fascist Germany BOOK JACKET The Scratch on the Mirror Vicki Williams
