Jesus This book offers strategies for educational practices with children in congregations as it seeks to address the question What might educational practices that welcome children and contribute to their flourishing look like in the context of a faith community where children s learning happens in collaboration with experienced practitioners of faith Outlining a feminist practical theology of childhood it explores five basic theological claims 1 children as gifts and parenting as a religious practice of stewardship 2 welcoming those who welcome and care for children 3 children as already fully human 4 children as part of the purposes of God and 5 acknowledging and transforming the sufferings of children Peace Psychology Review ,1994 A Comparison of Eastern and Western Parenting Low Yiu Tsang Andrew,2019-03-06 Parenting adolescents is a challenging task for parents Professionals offer a range of support and parenting programmes to support parents However the importance of culturally adapting parenting programmes to benefit parents and their adolescent children hasn t always been understood This book provides a comparison of East and West parenting approaches and parenting programmes to show how vital a culturally sensitive approach is to the positive development of the parent adolescent relationship It offers a comprehensive overview of current theories and research on parenting adolescents It focuses on comparing the differences in parenting style and practice between Chinese parents and their Western counterparts and the policy context in Chinese culture with that in the West It also offers guidance on how to conduct an evaluation of parenting programmes and how to adapt them for the right cultural setting Postgraduate students studying parenting developmental psychology or social work will find this work particularly useful as will researchers in any of these areas Children's mental health : problems and services. , Children's Mental Health Leonard Saxe,1987 Power and Parenting K. Bonner,1998-09-14 The power to act is two sided in that it refers to the parent s ability to initiate having children or responding to their actions and to the ability to suffer consequences irreversibility and unpredictability The book argues that the best way of responding to these essential limits is for the parent to develop the interrelation between wisdom ethicality and self mastery that is practical wisdom Peer Coaching for Educators Barbara Little Gottesman,2000 Can teachers principals and professors lead their students toward profound learning until they have been there themselves Peer coaching offers a remarkable vehicle to join with students as learners and together build a community of learners Peer coaching is a powerful process whereby professional educators can assist and be assisted by fellow educators of equal status and this volume presents it all with clarity economy honesty and conviction This volume will be of interest and value not only to classroom teachers and school administrators but also to central office personnel and university faculty committed to promoting adult development within the schools
