Pet Projects Elizabeth Young, 2019-12-15 In Pet Projects Elizabeth Young joins an analysis of the representation of animals in nineteenth century fiction taxidermy and the visual arts with a first person reflection on her own scholarly journey Centering on Margaret Marshall Saunders a Canadian woman writer once famous for her animal novels and incorporating Young's own experience of a beloved animal's illness this study highlights the personal and intellectual stakes of a pet project of cultural criticism Young assembles a broad archive of materials beginning with Saunders's novels and widening outward to include fiction nonfiction photography and taxidermy She coins the term first dog voice to describe the narrative technique of novels such as Saunders's Beautiful Joe written in the first person from the perspective of an animal She connects this voice to contemporary political issues revealing how animal fiction such as Saunders's reanimates nineteenth century writing about both feminism and slavery Highlighting the prominence of taxidermy in the late nineteenth century she suggests that Saunders transforms taxidermic techniques in surprising ways that provide new forms of authority for women Young adapts Freud to analyze literary representations of mourning by and for animals and she examines how Canadian writers including Saunders use animals to explore race ethnicity and national identity Her wide ranging investigation incorporates twenty first as well as nineteenth century works of literature and culture including recent art using taxidermy and contemporary film Throughout she reflects on the tools she uses to craft her analyses examining the state of scholarly fields from feminist criticism to animal studies With a lively first person voice that highlights experiences usually concealed in academic studies by scholarly discourse such as detours zigzags roadblocks and personal experience this unique and innovative book will delight animal enthusiasts and academics in the fields of animal studies gender studies American studies and Canadian studies

Is Your Pet Psychic? Richard Webster, 2012-07-08 You probably know about some of the amazing feats regularly accomplished by animals from salmon who navigate through hundreds of miles of water to their birthplace to spawn to bloodhounds who can track the tiniest trace of a scent with noses one million times stronger than ours Although psychic powers such as telepathic communication have yet to be explained by modern science all animals both human and nonhuman have the potential But like any talent psychic talent must be developed and practiced Part collection of amazing animal stories part psychic manual Is Your Pet Psychic is your guide to understanding and developing your pet's psychic powers Read extraordinary tales of animal heroes animal ghosts and more Discover how you can test your pet's psychic abilities Learn how to communicate telepathically with your pet The exercises in this book will help you and your pet develop the natural psychic potential inherent within all living things As you experiment with them you will explore one of the true wonders of nature and strengthen the special bond you share with your pet      One Nation Under Dog Michael Schaffer, 2025-08-22 A witty insightful and affectionate examination of how and why we spend billions on our pets and what this tells us about ourselves In 2003 Michael Schaffer and his wife drove to a rural shelter and adopted an emaciated dreadlocked Saint Bernard who they named Murphy They vowed that they d never become the kind of people who send dogs named Baxter and Sonoma out to get facials or shell out for 12 000 hip replacements But then they started to get weird looks from the in laws You hired a trainer Your vet prescribed antidepressants So Schaffer started poking around and before long happened on an astonishing statistic the pet industry estimated at 43 billion this year was just 17 billion barely a decade earlier One Nation Under Dog is about America s pet obsession the explosion over the past generation of an industry full of pet masseuses professional dog walkers organic kibble leash law militants luxury pet spas veterinary grief counselors upscale dog shampoos and the like a booming economy that is evidence of tremendous and rapid change in the status of America s pets Schaffer provides a surprising and lively portrait of our country as how we treat our pets reflects evolving ideas about domesticity consumerism politics and family through this fabulously reported and sympathetic look at both us and our dogs      Pets Erica Fudge, 2014-12-05 When I play with my cat who knows if I am not a pastime to her more than she is to me Michel de Montaigne Why do we live with pets Is there something more to our relationship with them than simply companionship What is it we look for in our pets and what does this say about us as human beings In this fascinating book Erica Fudge explores the nature of this most complex of relationships and the difficulties of knowing what it is that one is living with when one chooses to share a home with an animal Fudge argues that our capacity for compassion and ability to live alongside others is evident in our relationships with our pets those paradoxical creatures who give us a sense of comfort and security while simultaneously troubling the categories human and animal For what is a pet if it isn t a fully fledged member of the human family This book proposes that by crossing over these boundaries pets help construct who it is we think we are Drawing on the works of modern writers such as J M Coetzee Elizabeth Marshall Thomas and Jacques Derrida Fudge shows how pets have been used to think with and to undermine our easy conceptions of human animal and home Indeed Pets shows our obsession with domestic animals that reveals many of the paradoxes contra dictions and ambiguities of life Living with pets provides thought provoking perspectives on our notions of possession and mastery mutuality and cohabitation love and dominance We might think of pets as simply happy loved additions to human homes but as this captivating book reveals perhaps it is the pets that make the home and without pets perhaps we might not be the humans we think we are For anyone who has ever wondered like Montaigne what their cat is thinking it will be illuminating reading      Pet Prayers and Blessings Laurie Sue Brockway, Victor Fuhrman, 2008 A collection of blessings that addresses the spiritual needs of modern day pet owners In encompassing elements from many cultures faiths and traditions it includes healing prayers ceremonies for special occasions such as the arrival of a new pet and blessings for a long and happy life with your animal companion      More Of... the Best Pet Tales
