Long Road Home Vicki Lewis Thompson,2012-05-22 Wyatt Locke believes in second chances Sure meeting his half brother last year was a complete disaster but blood is blood right Now Wyatt is returning to the Last Chance Ranch to try to make peace with a family he hardly knows Then he comes across beautician Olivia Sedgewick stranded on the side of the road As it turns out most of the Chance clan is away for the weekend and Olivia proves to be a very delicious and sexy distraction But as his brother s return draws closer Wyatt has to decide Can he leave this cowboy life and Olivia behind Or would the ranch be the setting of Wyatt s last stand

The Long Road Home Danielle Harvel,2012-10-01 Nicole awoke to her own screams shrieking at the very top of her lungs Her voice was distant to her as though she was in a cave Her throat burned with each wail from days of the same The dream awakened her at the same time every morning She lay in a puddle of sweat the perspiration and tears soaking her eyelashes Her heart beat without any rhythm just hurriedly It was like someone striking a key of a typewriter over and over as quickly as possible until the chime would ring announcing the margin had been reached Her whole body ached as though it had been running a race that it was not conditioned for It would only be a moment before her aunt would burst through the doors to make sure she was okay She began taking deep breaths to calm herself and wiped her face furiously She looked around the strange room that was to become her own and felt like a flower that had sprung up in a desert She was wilting in a foreign land dying in a place where she was not supposed to be where she could not breathe

1966 Bobby Charlton,2016-06-02 Wembley 1966 England wins the World Cup to roars of a euphoric home crowd Sir Bobby Charlton England s greatest ever player was there on the pitch In 1966 he looks back on the most glorious moment of his life and England's greatest sporting achievement. He takes us through the build up to the tournament and to the final itself: what he saw, what he heard, what he felt. He tells us what it was like to be part of Sir Alf Ramsey's team, his memories of his teammates, the matches, the atmosphere, the emotion of being carried on the wave of a nation's euphoria and how it felt to go toe to toe with some of the foremost footballers to ever play the game. His life was forever defined by a single moment: one day when a man stood side by side with his best friends, united in a single aim in front of a watching nation. This is his story. It's gripping stuff. This is a mellow book, the product of many years' contemplation and emotional in a way that may surprise you. He has a wonderful story to tell. Daily Mail      The Long Shadows of War David Evered, 2025-09-28 A dual timeline novel set against the historical and political events immediately after the war and in the time leading up to the reunification of Germany in 1990. It explores the tensions and stresses of wartime absences on family relationships.

Forced Migration in/to Canada Christina R. Clark-Kazak, 2024-10-22 Forced migration shaped the creation of Canada as a settler state and is a defining feature of our contemporary national and global contexts. Many people in Canada have direct or indirect experiences of refugee resettlement and protection, trafficking and environmental displacement. Offering a comprehensive resource in the growing field of migration studies, Forced Migration in to Canada is a critical primer from multiple disciplinary perspectives. Researchers, practitioners and knowledge keepers draw on documentary evidence and analysis to foreground lived experiences of displacement and migration policies at the municipal, provincial, territorial and federal levels. From the earliest instances of Indigenous displacement and settler colonialism through Black enslavement to statelessness, trafficking and climate migration in today's world, contributors show how migration as a human phenomenon is differentially shaped by intersecting identities and structures. Particularly novel are the specific insights into disability, race, class, social age and gender identity. Situating Canada within broader international trends, norms and structures both today and historically, Forced Migration in to Canada provides the tools we need to evaluate information we encounter in the news and from government officials, colleagues and non-governmental organizations. It also proposes new areas for enquiry, discussion, research, advocacy and action.      The Sunday at Home, 1895      Browned Off and Bloody-minded Alan

Allport, 2015-01-01 More than three and a half million men served in the British Army during the Second World War, the vast majority of them civilians who had never expected to become soldiers and had little idea what military life with all its strange rituals, discomforts and dangers was going to be like. Alan Allport's rich and luminous social history examines the experience of the greatest and most terrible war in history from the perspective of these ordinary extraordinary men who were plucked from their peacetime families and workplaces and sent to fight for King and Country. Allport chronicles the huge diversity of their wartime trajectories, tracing how soldiers responded to and were shaped by their years with the British Army and how that army, however reluctantly, had to accommodate itself to them. Touching on issues of class, sex, crime, trauma and national identity through a colorful multitude of fresh individual perspectives, the book provides an enlightening, deeply moving perspective on how a generation of very modern minded young men responded to the challenges of a brutal and disorienting conflict      Traumatic Memories of the Second World War and After Peter Leese, Jason Crouthamel, 2016-10-05 This collection investigates the social and cultural history of trauma to offer a comparative analysis of its individual communal and political effects in the twentieth century Particular attention is given to witness testimony to procedures of personal memory and collective commemoration and to visual sources as they illuminate the changing historical nature of trauma The essays draw on diverse methodologies including oral history and use varied sources such as literature film and the broadcast media The contributions discuss imaginative communal and political responses as well as the ways in which the later welfare of traumatized individuals is shaped by medical military and civilian institutions Incorporating innovative methodologies and offering a thorough evaluation of current research the book shows new directions in historical trauma studies      The Dirty War Martin Dillon, 1999 With all the intrigue of a good spy novel The Dirty War uncovers a real life underground world of double and triple agents many of whom have shared their stories with the author In this enthralling and controversial book Martin Dillon examines the roles played by the Provisional IRA the State forces the Irish Government and the British Army during this troubled period He unravels the mystery of a war in which informers agents and double agents operate and reveals disturbing facts about the way in which the terrorists and the intelligence agencies target undermine and penetrate each other's ranks      Variety TV REV 1991-92 17 Prouty, 1994-03 First published in 1994 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      The Good Pub Guide 2014 Alisdair Aird, Fiona Stapley, 2013-09-20 The 32nd edition of The Good Pub Guide is as invaluable as ever Organised county by county its comprehensive yearly updates and countless reader recommendations ensure that only the very best pubs make the grade Here you will find classic country pubs town centre inns riverside retreats historic havens and exciting newcomers plus gastropubs and pubs specialising in malt whisky or own brew beer Discover the top pubs in each county for beer dining and accommodation and find out the winners of the coveted titles of Pub of the Year and Landlord of the Year Packed with hidden gems The Good Pub Guide 2014 provides a wealth of honest entertaining and indispensable information Whether you are planning a night out a weekend away holidaying in the UK or simply looking for a local pub Alisdair Aird and Fiona Stapley have it covered      Silk Stocking Road Carla Landreth, 2006-10-25 Just outside of a small Texas town on a lazy hot day in 1919 sixteen year old Rachel Brock was found in the sea canes by the railroad tracks brutally murdered A black man Samuel Ford was accused of the crime and was illegally hung Seventeen years later Texas Special Agent Cal McKleen returns home to face the crime that not only tore a town apart but his family His judgement comes into question when his partner Jim Connors learns that Cal and his cousin Jack have three things in common a very lucrative family owned and operated mercantile Katie Jack's kind and caring wife who had been Cal's true love that he abandoned years earlier and a deadly secret they all share that is sure to destroy them Can the combination of the three be the reason two innocent people died that hot August day If so will Cal be able to find the truth
