Peter Howson Peter Howson,Eduardo Alessandro Studios,2011 Benezit Dictionary of British Graphic Artists and Illustrators Stephen Bury,2012-06-21 This dictionary consists of over 3000 entries on a range of British artists from medieval manuscript illuminators to contemporary cartoonists Its core is comprised of the entries focusing on British graphic artists and illustrators from the 2006 Benezit Dictionary of Artists with an additional 90 revised and 60 new articles Trapped by History Darryl Cronin,2021-04-15 The Australian nation has reached an impasse in Indigenous policy and practice and fresh strategies and perspectives are required Trapped by History highlights a fundamental issue that the Australian nation must confront to develop a genuine relationship with Indigenous Australians The existing relationship between Indigenous people and the Australian state was constructed on the myth of an empty land terra nullius Interactions with Indigenous people have been constrained by eighteenth century assumptions and beliefs that Indigenous people did not have organised societies had neither land ownership nor a recognisable form of sovereignty and that they were savage but could be civilized through the erasure of their culture These incorrect assumptions and beliefs are the foundation of the legal constitutional and political treatment of Indigenous Australians over the course of the country s history They remain ingrained in governmental institutions Indigenous policy making judicial decision making and contemporary public attitudes about Indigenous people Trapped by History shines new light upon historical and contemporary examples where Indigenous people have attempted to engage and dialogue with state and federal governments These governments have responded by trying to suppress and discredit Indigenous rights culture and identities and impose assimilationist policies In doing so they have rejected or ignored Indigenous attempts at dialogue and partnership Other settler countries such as New Zealand Canada and the United States of America have all negotiated treaties with Indigenous people and have developed constitutional ways of engaging cross culturally In Australia the limited recognition that Indigenous people have achieved to date shows that the state is unable to resolve long standing issues with Indigenous people Movement beyond the current colonial relationship with Indigenous Australians requires a genuine dialogue to not only examine the legal and intellectual framework that constrains Indigenous recognition but to create new foundations for a renewed relationship based on intercultural negotiation mutual respect sharing and mutual responsibility This must involve building a shared understanding around addressing past injustices and creating a shared vision for how Indigenous people and other Australians will associate politically in the future

Peter Howson, Art LA '90 Peter Howson,1990 Art and War Laura Brandon,2012-11-25 This is a truly encyclopedic survey of artists responses both official and personal to the horrors of war Art and War reveals the sheer diversity of artists portrayals of this most devastating aspect of the human condition from the heroic paintings of Benjamin West and John Singer Sargent to brutal and iconic works by artists from Goya to Picasso and the equally oppositional work of Leon Golub Nancy Spero and others who reacted with fury to the Vietnam War Laura Brandon pays particular attention to work produced in response to World War I and World War II as well as to more recent art and memorial work by artists as diverse as Barbara Kruger Alfredo Jarr and Maya Lin She looks finally to the reactions of contemporary artists such as Langlands and Bell to the US invasion in 2001 of Afghanistan and the War on Terror Tate Gallery Tate Gallery,1996

In Denial Robert Manne, 2001-04-01 In this national bestseller Robert Manne attacks the right wing campaign against the Bringing them home report that revealed how thousands of Aboriginal children had been taken from their parents What was the role of Paddy McGuinness as editor of Quadrant How reliable was the evidence that led newspaper columnists from Piers Akerman in the Sydney Daily Telegraph to Andrew Bolt in the Melbourne Herald Sun to deny the gravity of the injustice done In a powerful indictment of past government policies towards the indigenous Australians Robert Manne has written a brilliant polemical essay which doubles as a succinct history of how indigenous Australians were mistreated and an exposure of the ignorance of those who want to deny that history In complex intellectual conflicts there will always be argument about whether the antagonists are committed to finding the truth or to winning the battle This essay tells us that Robert Manne is intent on finding the truth Morag Fraser editor Eureka Street In Denial is a work of both the head and the heart It is carefully researched and powerfully expressed It needs to be widely read The Hon P J Keating former Prime Minister of Australia

A Matter of Opinion Alan Ramsay, 2011-05-14 For more than two decades from mid 1987 to the end of 2008 no one had greater access to our national parliament and its politicians than Alan Ramsey Informed insightful and unafraid his Wednesday and Saturday columns in The Sydney Morning Herald were always essential reading for many thousands of Australians Here are 150 of his unflinching views of key political events of that era among them the often turbulent Hawke Keating years the 1990 recession we had to have Labor s stunning dumping of Bob Hawke in December 1991 after he had led his party to four successive election victories in eight years the Howard Government s slavish subservience to the Bush White House the insidious channeling of Hansonism John Howard s never ever GST the invasion of Iraq the disintegration of the Democrats as a political force after the 1997 defection to Labor of its leader Cheryl Kernot the manipulation by both sides of politics of the 2001 children overboard incident and the scandal of the Governor General who ultimately resigned after the cover up by the Anglican Church in Queensland of serial child abuse in church schools Yet Ramsey s keen eye often observed with affection the values and behavior of others in national life and he was as ready to give credit as he was to lay into the humbug pomposity and deceit of political personal and sectional self interest Some matters of opinion of Alan Ramsey there is no one now and no one coming along who can write like this David Marr I ll miss his profound dislike of hypocrisy and his instinct for plain speaking Kerry O Brien A lion of a journalist in every way Michelle Grattan In an arena of journalism where sameness is a vice Ramsey is entirely his own man les Carlyon For years his column
