Pacific Islands Education , The Pacific Printer ,1920 Pacific Star Reg Newell,2015-10-01 The war in the South Pacific saw some of the most gruelling fighting of World War Two Conditions were unpleasant fetid heat torrential downpours and hostile flora and fauna while the Japanese enemy were ruthless and would often fight to the last man Amphibious warfare jungle warfare and the need to co operate with our American ally all meant that new demands were made on New Zealand soldiers Yet the war in the South Pacific came to be seen as an easy war generally overlooked with the exception of Guadalcanal by historians From ignorance of what the soldiers were called upon to endure the notion arose that service in the South Pacific was somehow less worthy than the real war in Europe against the Nazis This attitude continued in the post war world and today the soldiers of 3NZ Division are all but forgotten Pacific Star sets the record straight shedding new light on the sacrifices and tribulations which the soldiers of 3NZ Division had to endure in the service of the Allied cause The book covers their initial deployment in Fiji and New Caledonia and describes the major battles the division fought in the Solomons Vella Lavella the Treasury Islands and the Green Islands as well as their sometimes strained relationship with the US military Reg Newell has interviewed veterans for this book which includes new maps and previously unpublished photographs The New York Clipper Annual ,1893 International Relations Theory and the Asia-Pacific G.

Winding up the British Empire in the Pacific Islands W. David McIntyre, 2016-11-24 Little has been written about when how and why the British Government changed its mind about giving independence to the Pacific Islands Using recently opened archives Winding Up the British Empire in the Pacific Islands gives the first detailed account of this event As Britain began to dissolve the Empire in Asia in the aftermath of the Second World War it announced that there were some countries that were so small remote and lacking in resources that they could never become independent states However between 1970 and 1980 there was a rapid about turn Accelerated decolonization suddenly became the order of the day Here was the death warrant of the Empire and hastily arranged independence ceremonies were performed for six new states Tonga Fiji Solomon Islands Tuvalu Kiribati and Vanuatu The rise of anti imperialist pressures in the United Nations had a major role in this change in policy as did the pioneering examples marked by the release of Western Samoa by New Zealand in 1962 and Nauru by Australia in 1968 The tenacity of Pacific Islanders in maintaining their cultures was in contrast to more strident Afro Asia nationalisms The closing of the Colonial Office by merger with the Commonwealth Relations Office in 1966 followed by the joining of the Commonwealth and Foreign Offices in 1968 became a major turning point in Britain s relations with the Islands In place of long nurtured traditions of trusteeship for indigenous populations that had evolved in the Colonial Office the new Foreign Commonwealth Office concentrated on fostering British interests which came to mean reducing distant commitments and focussing on the Atlantic world and Europe

The Vietnam War in the Pacific World Brian Cuddy,Fredrik Logevall,2022-10-05 Fifty years since the signing of the Paris Peace Accords signaled the final withdrawal of U S troops from Vietnam the war s mark on the Pacific world remains The essays gathered here offer an essential postcolonial interpretation of a struggle rooted not only in Indochinese history but also in the wider Asia Pacific region Extending the Vietnam War s historiography away from a singular focus on American policies and experiences and toward fundamental regional dynamics the book reveals a truly global struggle that made the Pacific world what it is today Contributors include David L Anderson Mattias Fibiger Zach Fredman Marc Jason Gilbert Alice S Kim Mark Atwood Lawrence Jason Lim Jana K Lipman Greg Lockhart S R Joey Long Christopher Lovins Mia Martin Hobbs Boi Huyen Ngo Wen Qing Ngoei Nathalie Huynh Chau Nguyen Noriko Shiratori Lisa Tran A Gabrielle Westcott
