Peter Paul And Mary Holiday Concert:

Peter Paul and Mary Peter Yarrow, Noel Paul Stookey, Mary Travers, 2014-11-04 This carefully crafted and collectible volume tells the intimate story of Peter Paul and Mary and their music in their words and with iconic images that follow their passionate fifty year journey to the center of America's heart. Photographs many rare and never before published taken over five decades by some of the world's top photographers follow them from their earliest performances in the 1960s when Mary was the most desired beautiful and charismatic performer and a new role model for women. Follow the trio as they lead America to discover the passionate soul of folk music. Join the struggle for racial equality, social justice and freedom in this memorable journey from the historic 1963 March on Washington with Martin Luther King Jr to the trio's appearance before a half million people in 1969 to end the Vietnam War to their singing at the Hollywood Bowl for Survival Sunday in 1978 helping to launch the anti nuke movement the world's first international environmental movement. Through these images readers will feel and almost hear the trio's songs calling for a more caring better world as they performed with a courage and conviction that became for so many the embodiment and soundtrack of their generation's awakening to conscience to activism and to a new dream for all of humankind. Peter Paul and Mary's songs of defiant hope and a certain unmasked innocence are still a powerful part of our American consciousness and this book reenacts the history of how the trio marked many lives with their indelible stamp of honesty of the sort we all yearn to recapture and recreate today for ourselves our children and the generations to come.

With My Face to the Wind Linda Anne King, 2012-02-24 Like cancer untreated PTSD can kill if not the body the mind and soul. Linda King has portrayed in real time what it is like to live with full blown post traumatic stress disorder. With My Face to the Wind is not only for those who have PTSD or those who support friends and family with PTSD but it is also for professionals who want a window into the mind and heart of someone struggling to overcome PTSD. With this 2021 revision Linda hopes that readers who have lived with the symptoms of this disorder which often goes undiagnosed will learn coping skills along with hope and faith to continue on their journey. Linda King's With My Face to the Wind is an inspiring read like no other. Her story is one of the tragedies and triumphs with tears and laughter guiding the way. Mrs King knows how to tell her tales and pushes her readers to better themselves by accepting themselves. I suggest this book to anyone PTSD suffers mis understood teenagers and those who are perfectly fine. This book will lead you to your best self. Anna Katherine Beerman While sharing some of her personal tragedies Linda King weaves just enough verifiable psychological content without causing brain freeze to know that she's done her homework. Her wit and humor shine through just in the nick of time. Rhonda B Holmes Author The WORD Diet What you have written is too powerful to be read in one or two settings. As a registered nurse I've been accustomed to reading professional abstracts and journals quickly and incorporating new learning into my nursing practice. It was the unanticipated emotional impact that caused me to read it in small doses spread over a couple of months and your format of introducing that information throughout the book as it coincided with stages in your own emotional journey will make it much easier for individuals affected by PTSD to understand and apply it to their own circumstances Elen Wright R N
