Peter Eisenman Holocaust Memorial Berlin:

Holocaust Memorial Berlin Hanno Rauterberg, Hlne Binet, Eisenman Architects, 2005 Mediation at the Holocaust Memorial in Berlin I. Dekel, 2013-07-02 Analyzing action at the Holocaust memorial in Berlin this first ethnography of the site offers a fresh approach to studying the memorial and memory work as potential civic engagement of visitors with themselves and others rather than with history itself The Perversion of Holocaust Memory Judith M. Hughes, 2022-02-24 In the early years of the 21st century it appeared that the memory of the Holocaust was secure in Western Europe that in order to gain entry into the European Union the countries of Eastern Europe would have to acknowledge their compatriots complicity in genocide Fifteen year later the landscape looks starkly different Shedding fresh light on these developments The Perversion of Holocaust Memory explores the politicization and distortion of Holocaust remembrance since 1989 This innovative book opens with an analysis of events across Europe which buttressed confidence in the stability of Holocaust memory and brought home the full extent of nations participation in the Final Solution And yet as Judith M Hughes reveals in later chapters mainstream accountability began to crumble as the 21st century progressed German and Jewish suffering was equated anti Semitic rhetoric re entered contemporary discourse populist leaders side stepped inconvenient facts and more recently with the revival of ethno nationalism Holocaust remembrance has been caught in the backlash of the European refugee crisis The four countries analyzed here France Germany Hungary and Poland could all claim to be victims of Nazi Germany the Allies or the Communist Soviet Union but they were also all perpetrators Ultimately it is this complex legacy which Hughes adroitly untangles in her sophisticated study of Holocaust memory in modern Europe The New Berlin Karen E. Till, An innovative exploration of German memory national identity and modernity embodied in the public spaces of the new capital Shoah Presence: Architectural Representations of the Holocaust Eran Neuman, 2016-04-01 Through the analysis of several commemorative acts in space matter and image namely museums and memorials this book reflects on the ways in which architecture as a discipline a practice and a discourse represents the Holocaust In doing so it problematises how one presents an extreme historical case in a contemporary context and integrates the historical into actuality By examining several cases the book defines the issues faced by various architects who dealt with this topic and discusses their separate and distinctive approaches In each case it analyses the ways in which the cultural and political contexts of commemoration led to a different interpretation of the condition Focusing on the Ghetto Fighters House the world s first Holocaust museum Yad Vashem Israel s national Holocaust memorial in Jerusalem the US Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington and the Holocaust Memorial in Berlin the book discusses how the representation of history by architecture creates a dialectic process in which architecture mediates the past to the present while at the same time creating a present saturated with historical contexts It shows how together they are incorporated into one another and create a new reality past and present intertwined Museum Transformations Annie E. Coombes, Ruth B.

Phillips, 2020-11-17 MUSEUM TRANSFORMATIONS DECOLONIZATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION Edited By ANNIE E COOMBES AND RUTH B PHILLIPS Museum Transformations Decolonization and Democratization addresses contemporary approaches to decolonization greater democratization and revisionist narratives in museum exhibition and program development around the world The text explores how museums of art history and ethnography responded to deconstructive critiques from activists and poststructuralist and postcolonial theorists and provided models for change to other types of museums and heritage sites The volume's first set of essays discuss the role of the museum in the narration of difficult histories and how altering the social attitudes and political structures that enable oppression requires the recognition of past histories of political and racial oppression and colonization in museums Subsequent essays consider the museum's new roles in social action and discuss experimental projects that work to change power dynamics within institutions and leverage digital technology and new media

The Remembered and Forgotten Jewish World Daniel J. Walkowitz, 2018-09-05 Part travelogue part social history and part family saga this book investigates the politics of heritage tourism and collective memory Acclaimed historian Daniel J Walkowitz visits key Jewish heritage sites from Berlin to Belgrade to Warsaw to New York to discover which stories of the Jewish experience get told and which get silenced

Empathetic Memorials Mark Callaghan, 2020-11-12 This book is a study of the Berlin Holocaust Memorial Competitions of the 1990s with a focus on designs that kindle empathetic responses Through analysis of provocative designs the book engages with issues of empathy secondary witnessing and depictions of concentration camp iconography It explores the relationship between empathy and cultural memory when representations of suffering are notably absent The book submits that one design represents the idea of an uncanny memorial and also pays attention to viewer co authorship in counter monuments Analysis of counter monuments also include their creative engagement with German history and their determination to defy fascist aesthetics As the winning design for The Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe is abstract with an information centre there is an exploration of the memorial museum Callaghan asks whether this configuration is intended to compensate for the abstract memorial's ambiguity or to complement the design's visceral potential Other debates explored concern political memory national memory and the controversy of dedicating the memorial exclusively to murdered Jews

Totem and taboo in architectural imagination Alessandro Rocca, 2022-05-18 Identify powerful features of the architecture of the present time seeking to illuminate hidden knowledge and processes through a few key concepts The image apparently it seems so essential to understand today's architecture but which on closer analysis turns out instead to be an absence an unsolved problem an enigma hidden behind a culture secretly afflicted by iconoclasm Post production and montage so relevant in the avant garde and now fixed as an indispensable but often hidden creative component The parody the hidden but almost always present humor that corrodes the immediate message of architecture and makes it more unstable and above all more interesting Ornament a component censored by Modernism that today is once again the protagonist in new guises The relationship with the classic a secret affair that remains as a founding root of Western architecture The Persistence of Nationalism Angharad Closs Stephens, 2013-03-12 This is a book about the difficulties of thinking and acting politically in ways that refuse the politics of nationalism The book offers a detailed study of how contemporary attempts by theorists of cosmopolitanism citizenship globalism and multiculturalism to go beyond nationalism often reproduce key aspects of a nationalist imaginary It argues that the challenge of resisting nationalism will require more than a shift in the scale of politics from the national up to the global or down to the local and more than a shift in the count of politics to an emphasis on diversity and multiculturalism In order to avoid the grip of nationalist thinking we need to re open the question of what it means to imagine community Set against the backdrop of the imaginative geographies of the War in Terror and the new beginning promised by the Presidency of Barack Obama the book shows how critical interventions often work in collaboration with nationalist politics even when the aim is to resist nationalism It claims that a nationalist imaginary includes powerful understandings of freedom subjectivity sovereignty and political space time which must also be placed under question if we want to avoid reproducing ideas about us and them Drawing on insights from feminist cultural and postcolonial studies as well as critical approaches to International Relations and Geography this book presents a unique and refreshing approach to the politics of nationalism Denkmal Für Die Ermordeten Juden Europas, Berlin Joachim Schlör, Jürgen Hohmuth, 2005 A Journey through Forgiveness , 2020-05-18 In the present book scholars and activists from a variety of disciplinary perspectives engage each other around the topic of forgiveness They examine its benefits and costs its motives and its limitations The different voices do not sing in unity but by the end of the book you might conclude that some times of beautiful harmony were heard Disciplining the Holocaust Karyn Ball, 2008-10-23 Disciplining the Holocaust examines critics efforts to defend a rigorous and morally appropriate image of the Holocaust Rather than limiting herself to polemics about the proper approach to traumatic history Karyn Ball explores recent trends in intellectual history that govern a contemporary ethics of scholarship about the Holocaust She examines the scholarly reception of Goldhagen s Hitler s Willing Executioners the debates culminating in Eisenman s Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe in Berlin Lyotard s response to negations of testimony about the gas chambers psychoanalytically informed frameworks for the critical study of traumatic history and a conference on feminist approaches to the Holocaust and genocide Ball s book bridges the gap between psychoanalysis and Foucault s understanding of disciplinary power in order to highlight the social implications of traumatic history BOOK JACKET Disputed Memory Tea Sindbæk Andersen, Barbara Törnquist-Plewa, 2016-06-20 The world wars genocides and extremist ideologies of the 20th century are remembered very differently across Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe resulting sometimes in fierce memory disputes This book investigates the complexity and contention of the layers of memory of the troubled 20th century in the region Written by an international group of scholars from a diversity of disciplines the chapters approach memory disputes in methodologically innovative ways studying representations and negotiations of disputed pasts in different media including monuments museum exhibitions individual and political discourse and electronic social media Analyzing memory disputes in various local national and transnational contexts the chapters demonstrate the political power and social impact of painful and disputed memories The book brings new insights into current memory disputes in Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe It contributes to the understanding of processes of memory transmission and negotiation across borders and cultures in Europe emphasizing the interconnectedness of memory with emotions mediation and politics

The Penitent State Paul Muldoon, 2023-09-06 This book asks a deceptively simple question what are states actually doing when they do penance for past injustices Why are these penitential gestures especially the gesture of apology becoming so ubiquitous and what implications do they carry for the way power is exercised Drawing on the work of Schmitt Foucault and Agamben the book argues that there is more at stake in sovereign acts of repentance and redress than either the recognition of the victims or the legitimacy of the state Driven by an interest in healing such acts testify to a new biopolitical raison d'état in which the management of trauma emerges as a critical expression of attempts to regulate the life of the population The Penitent State seeks to show that the key issue created by the age of apology is not whether sovereign acts of repentance and redress are sincere or insincere but whether the political measures licensed in the name of healing deserve to be regarded as either restorative or just

Memorials in Berlin and Buenos Aires Brigitte Sion, 2014-12-01 The Memorial to the Murdered Jews in Berlin inaugurated in 2005 and the Monument to the Victims of State Terrorism within the Memory Park Parque de la Memoria in Buenos Aires partially unveiled in 2007 have been controversial from start to finish While these sites differ in many respects Germany and Argentina share a history of dictatorial regimes that murdered civilians on a massive scale The Nazis implemented the genocide of millions of Jews and other minorities during World War II In Argentina the junta led state repression was responsible for the disappearance and subsequent murder of thousands of civilians between 1976 and 1983 Decades later new governments in Germany and Argentina acknowledged the responsibility of their respective states for these mass murders by memorializing the victims with a national monument in the capital city for the first time This study of two memorials develops a model and method for analyzing the memorialization of recent tragedies that share several basic characteristics the state creates a self-indicting national memorial to the victims of state-sponsored mass murder in the absence of their bodies Analyzed as sites of conflicting performances and as performances themselves these memorials illuminate the ways in which people engage with them and how an architecture of absence triggers embodied memory through somatic experience While death tourism and architourism are a key to their success in attracting visitors they also pose a threat to their commemorative role Besides assessing the success and failure of these memorials Sion explores the ways in which these sites are paradigmatic and offers a model for analyzing a transnational circuit of commemorative practices

Facing the Nazi Past William John Niven, 2002 Facing the Nazi Past reflects on the most important developments and debates affecting the way united Germany remembers its past today This timely account is set to provoke fresh discussion of this dramatic historical period Jacket Resonant Violence Kerry Whigham,2022-02-11 From the Holocaust in Europe to the military dictatorships of Latin America to the enduring violence of settler colonialism around the world genocide has been a defining experience of far too many societies In many cases the damaging legacies of genocide lead to continued violence and social divisions for decades In others however creative responses to this identity based violence emerge from the grassroots contributing to widespread social and political transformation Resonant Violence explores both the enduring impacts of genocidal violence and the varied ways in which states and grassroots collectives respond to and transform this violence through memory practices and grassroots activism By calling upon lessons from Germany Poland Argentina and the Indigenous United States Resonant Violence demonstrates how ordinary individuals come together to engage with a violent past to pave the way for a less violent future Graphical Heritage Luis

Agustín-Hernández,Aurelio Vallespín Muniesa,Angélica Fernández-Morales,2020-05-11 This book presents the proceedings of the 18th International Conference on Graphic Design in Architecture EGA 2020 focusing on heritage including architectural and graphic heritage as well as the graphics of heritage Consisting of two parts Representation and Analysis and Concept and Creation this second volume gathers selected contributions on topics ranging from graphic representation to the graphic presentation of ideas i e artistic creation to bridge the gap between graphic heritage and the graphics of heritage Given its scope this volume will appeal to architectural and graphic designers artists and engineers providing them with extensive information on new methods and a source of inspiration for future research and interdisciplinary collaborations
