thinkers to have emerged from the French literature and philosophy of the 1970s Hélène Cixous, Luce Irigaray and Julia Kristeva forcing a timely reconsideration of the full spectrum of revolutionary practices by women in the years following the events of May 68. Lavishly illustrated with over 200 images, the book also features an illuminating foreword by art historian Griselda Pollock.

Assassination of experience by painting, Monory Jean-François Lyotard, 2013. Lyotard met Jacques Monory in 1972 and the text on him published at that time was the first that Lyotard dedicated to contemporary art since Discourse Figure. Lyotard's interest in the plastic arts thus fits fully within the setting of his political preoccupations. The artist protagonist stages the recurring motifs that fascinate Lyotard: the scene of the crime, the revolver, the woman, the victim, glaciers, deserts, stars. The atmosphere of the essays on Monory is Californian. Monory's imaginary repertoire goes well beyond the masters of modernity and is in line rather with a modern contemporary surrealism. Both Lyotard and Monory live the dilemma of Americanization, the America represented by cinema, fashion, novels, music. It is in this atmosphere that Lyotard and Monory will finally evoke their supreme experience of difference, desire and fear, exultation and a profound malaise. The plastic universe of Monory and the aesthetic meditations of Lyotard are in perfect symbiosis.

Sarah Wilson's epilogue thoroughly outlines both the history of a friendship and at the same time the intellectual and artistic climate of the 1970s.

5/1/1968 J. Jackson, A. Milne, J. Williams, 2011-08-26. The events of 1968 are often seen purely as a student revolution but impacted on every aspect of French society: theatre, film, sexuality, race, the countryside, the factories. This volume explores the full diversity of this extraordinary upheaval and shows how 1968 continues to reverberate in France today.
