Portraits From The Belly Of The Whale:

Portraits from the Belly of the Whale Michael Garlington, 2005 Garlington's images shimmer and flicker lighting a pathway to an absurd land of dreams 100 fantastical portraits which subvert reality Garlington's eye is unsparing yet his images also convey a wry compassion for the outcast His images are more than mere portraits of the bizarre as he simultaneously dissects and embraces his subjects as fellow pilgrims Some of the images in this book come from cross country excursions in Photo Car a sedan Garlington covered with samples of his work The car served as a magnet and an ice breaker to draw subjects to his lens Portraits David Patterson, 2021-06-01 Elie Wiesel identified himself as a Vizhnitzer Hasid who was above all things a witness to the testimony and teaching of the Jewish tradition at the core of the Hasidic tradition While he is well known for his testimony on the Holocaust and as a messenger to humanity he is less well known for his engagement with the teachings of Jewish tradition and the Hasidic heritage that informs that engagement Portraits illuminates Wiesel's Jewish teachings and the Hasidic legacy that he embraced by examining how he brought to life the sages of the Jewish tradition David Patterson reveals that Wiesel's Hasidic engagement with the holy texts of the Jewish tradition does not fall into the usual categories of exegesis or hermeneutics and of commentary or textual analysis Rather he engages not the text but the person the teacher and the soul This book is a summons to remember the testimony reduced to ashes and the voices that cry out from those ashes Just as the teaching is embodied in the teachers so is the tradition embodied in their portraits A Catalogue of Engraved Portraits, Topographical Drawings and Prints, Coins, Gems, Autographs, Antiquities ... William Henry Overall, 1872 Camerawork, 2006 A Collection of Engraved Portraits James Anderson Rose, 1874

Building the Body of Christ Daniel C. Cochran,2020-11-17 In Building the Body of Christ Daniel C Cochran argues that monumental Christian art and architecture played a crucial role in the formation of individual and communal identities in late antique Italy The ecclesiastical buildings and artistic programs that emerged during the fourth and fifth centuries not only reflected Christianity s changing status within the Roman Empire but also actively shaped those who used them Emphasizing the importance of materiality and the body in early Christian thought and practice Cochran shows how bishops and their supporters employed the visual arts to present a Christian identity rooted in the sacred past but expressed in the present through church unity and episcopal authority He weaves together archaeological and textual evidence to contextualize case studies from Rome Aquileia and Ravenna showing how these sites responded to the diversity of early Christianity as expressed through private rituals and the imperial appropriation of the saints Cochran shows how these early ecclesiastical buildings and artistic programs worked in conjunction with the liturgy to persuade individuals to adopt alternative beliefs practices and values that contributed to the formation of institutional Christianity and the Christianization of late antique Italy Pen Pictures of Europe Elizabeth Peake,1874 Words and Pictures Meyer Schapiro,2013-02-06 No detailed description available for Words and Pictures English Medieval Mural Paintings Alan Caiger-Smith,1963 *The History of the Holy Jesus ... other a longing for the chaste pleasures for a quiet and mystical world completely different from that in which he found himself The question of the relations between body and mind as well as the mystery of human consciousness haunt him to the very last but after his mid life crisis depicted in Eyeless in Gaza 1936 a strong faith in the reality of a spiritual world is obvious In the end he even manages to reinstate the body in his scheme of things Series Human Potentialities Studien zu Aldous Huxley zeitgenössischer Kultur Studies in Aldous Huxley Contemporary Culture Vol 5
