Sulle tracce degli Umiliati Maria Pia Alberzoni, Annamaria Ambrosioni, Alfredo Lucioni, 1997      Trade, Commodities and Shipping in the Medieval Mediterranean David Jacoby, 2024-10-28 This fourth collection by David Jacoby focuses on Western economic expansion the Eastern Mediterranean during the 11th 15th centuries He is concerned to emphasize the interconnections linking the West Byzantium and the Levant and to examine normative sources for commercial activity charters etc against the background of actual practice such as reflected in notarial documents The articles deal with the evolution of urban centres the trade in raw materials and at the same time questions of technology transfer and the mobility of merchants and craftsmen Particular attention is given to the silk trade the author argues that demographic expansion in the Byzantine world as in the West stimulated economic growth and demand for silk led to the emergence of a market driven industry in Byzantium      La mobilità sociale nelle società preindustriali: tendenze, cause ed effetti (secc.

XIII-XVIII) / Social mobility in pre-industrial societies: tendencies, causes and effects (13th-18th centuries)

Angela Orlandi, 2025-05-08 Social mobility in the pre industrial era has become a key topic in historiographical debate with implications for the present This volume examines the sources methods and dynamics of the phenomenon through both quantitative and qualitative approaches The collection is structured into six areas study methodologies links with economic growth and inequality geographical and demographic mobility the impact of family structures and inheritance systems dynamics of social decline and the perception of mobility The use of interdisciplinary tools provides new perspectives on understanding social trajectories in the past      I Prezzi Delle Cose Nell'età Preindustriale Istituto internazionale di storia economica F. Datini. Settimana di studio, 2017-01-01 La dinamica dei prezzi uno degli argomenti classici della storia economica L'attenzione per questo tema fu particolarmente viva a partire dagli anni trenta del novecento in tutti i paesi europei I materiali raccolti e pubblicati a quell'epoca continuano a costituire una base documentaria importante per ogni ricerca sull'andamento economico delle economie pre industriali L'interesse per i prezzi si ridusse dagli anni settanta agli anni novanta ripreso tuttavia negli ultimi quindici venti anni come conseguenza della rinnovata attenzione per il tema della crescita e per i cambiamenti di lungo periodo nelle economie del passato Il confronto fra i livelli di sviluppo di economie diverse come quella europea e quella asiatica insieme con l'uso di strumenti statistici più avanzati nel campo della storia economica ha rafforzato l'interesse per i prezzi I contributi presenti in questo volume si articolano intorno a due macro temi La formazione dei prezzi nelle economie e società pre industriali durante i secoli dal XII all'inizio del XIX e il movimento dei prezzi nel lungo periodo nonché il rapporto esistente con quello di altre variabili economiche e non economiche quali la popolazione la massa monetaria il prodotto la produttività la velocità di circolazione della moneta i cambiamenti nelle istituzioni

La moda come motore economico: innovazione di processo e prodotto, nuove strategie commerciali, comportamento dei consumatori / Fashion as an economic engine: process and product innovation, commercial strategies, consumer behavior Giampiero Nigro, 2022-05-03 The study of the textile sector has always been central to economic history from reconstructions of the dynamic growth in the medieval wool industry to the rise of silk and light and mixed fabrics in the modern era to the driving role of cotton in the industrialisation process Although the dynamics of textile manufacturing are closely linked to the transformations of fashion economic history has long neglected its role as a factor in economic change treating it primarily as a kind of exogenous catalyst This book makes a decisive contribution to the understanding of a fundamental transformation the consequences of which are projected into contemporary society but which matured in pre industrial times the advent of fashion

The Merchant of Venice: the Activity of Patricians in the Late Middle Ages Jean-Claude Hocquet, 2025-02-03 For the first time The Merchant of Venice looks at the place and role of the late medieval merchant nobility in the great international trade that took place in the world known at the time from China and Asia to Flanders and England These merchants who travelled the world were also shipowners sailors and bankers They used modern banking techniques and credit based on bills of exchange held no secrets for them They traded spices porcelain cotton and silk dyes and glassware for drapery wool and metals These merchants used part of their profit to embellish their city which amazed foreign visitors and were always on the lookout for the latest discoveries and inventions Venice was at the height of its power at the time but it was also on the eve of its weakening

Medieval Latin Frank Anthony Carl Mantello, A. G. Rigg, 1996 Organized with the assistance of an international advisory committee of medievalists from several disciplines Medieval Latin An Introduction and Bibliographical Guide is a new standard guide to the Latin language and literature of the period from c A D 200 to 1500 It promises to be indispensable as a handbook in university courses in Medieval Latin and as a point of departure for the study of Latin texts and documents in any of the fields of medieval studies Comprehensive in scope the guide provides introductions to and bibliographic orientations in all the main areas of Medieval Latin language literature and scholarship Part One consists of an introduction and sizable listing of general print and electronic reference and research tools Part Two focuses on issues of language with introductions to such topics as Biblical and Christian Latin and Medieval Latin pronunciation orthography morphology and syntax word formation and lexicography metrics prose styles and so on There are chapters on the Latin used in administration law music commerce the liturgy theology and philosophy science and technology and daily life Part Three offers a systematic overview of Medieval Latin literature with introductions to a wide range of genres and to translations from and into Latin Each chapter concludes with a bibliography of fundamental works texts lexica studies and research aids This guide satisfies a long standing need for a reference tool in English that focuses on medieval latinity in all its specialized aspects It will be welcomed by students teachers professional latinists medievalists humanists and general readers interested in the role of Latin as the learned lingua franca of western Europe It may also prove valuable to reference librarians assembling collections concerned with Latin authors and texts of the postclassical period ABOUT THE EDITORS F A C Mantello is professor of Medieval Latin at The Catholic University of America A G Rigg is professor of English and medieval studies and chairman of the Medieval Latin Committee at the University of Toronto s Centre for Medieval Studies PRASIE FOR THE BOOK This extraordinary volume joint effort of dozens of scholars in eight countries will be in constant use for research for advising students and designing courses and for answering the queries of nonmedievalist colleagues Medieval Latin provides a foundation for advances in research and teaching on a wide front Though Mantello and Rigg s Medieval Latin is a superb reference volume I recommend that it also be read from beginning to end in small increments of course The rewards will be sheaves of notes and an immensely enriched appreciation of Medieval Latin and its literature Janet M Martin Princeton University Speculum A remarkable achievement and no one interested in medieval Latin can afford to be without it Journal of Ecclesiastical History Everywhere there is clarity conclusion judicious illustration and careful selection of what is central This guide is a major achievement and will serve Medieval Latin studies extremely well for the foreseeable future The Classical Review

Craft Guilds in the Early Modern Low Countries Catharina Lis,Hugo Soly,2017-03-02 In the half millennium of their existence guilds in the Low Countries played a highly significant role in shaping the societies of which they were a part One key aspect that has been identified in recent historical research to explain the survival of the guilds for such a long time is the guilds continued adaptability to changing circumstances This idea of flexibility is the point of departure for the essays in this volume which sheds new light on the corporate system and identifies its various features and regional variances The contributors explore the interrelations between economic organisations and political power in late medieval and early modern towns and address issues of gender religion and social welfare in the context of the guilds This cohesive and focussed volume will provide a stimulus for renewed interest and further research in this area It will appeal to scholars and students with an interest in early modern economic social and cultural history in particular but will also be valuable to those researching into political religious and gender history

Women of the Humiliati Sally Brasher,2004-11-23 This book examines the contribution of women to the Humiliati movement providing original archival evidence indicating that women dominated the group s membership These findings have implications for both women s spirituality and women s work correcting the received opinion that the patriarchal nature of Italian society and of the church limited the institutional options available to women It also suggests that women found innovative ways to participate in the increasingly restrictive textile industry of the region This work provides a glimpse at the novel ways in which women in medieval Italy were able to satisfy their spiritual and economic needs within the confines of a male dominated church and society

The Medieval Broadcloth Kathrine Vestergard Pedersen,Marie-Louise Nosch,2009-11-19 The eight papers presented here provide a useful introduction to medieval broadcloth and an up to date synthesis of current research The word broadcloth is nowadays used as an overall term for the woven textiles mass produced and exported all over Europe It was first produced in Flanders as a luxurious cloth from the 11th century and throughout the medieval period Broadcloth is the English term Laken in Flemish Tuch in German Drap in French Kl de in the Scandinavian languages and Verka in Finish As the concept of broadcloth has deriving from the written sources it cannot directly be identified in the archaeological textiles and therefore the topic of medieval broadcloth is very suitable as an interdisciplinary theme The first chapter John Munro presents an introduction to the subject and takes the reader through the manufacturing and economic importance of the medieval broadcloth as a luxury item Chapter two Carsten Jahnke describes trade in the Baltic Sea area detailing production standards shipping and prices Chapters three four and five Heini Kirjavainen Riina Rammo and Jerzy Maik deal with archaeological textiles excavated in the Baltic Finland and Poland Chapters six and seven Camilla Luise Dahl and Kathrine Vesterg rd Pedersen concern the problems of combining the terminology from the written sources with archaeological textiles The last chapter reports on an ongoing reconstruction project at the open air museum in Eindhoven Holland Anton Reurink has tried to recreate a medieval broadcloth based on written and historical sources During the last few years he has reconstructed the tool for preparing and spinning wool and a group of spinners has produced a yarn of the right quality He subsequently wove approximately 20 metres of cloth and conducted the first experiment with foot fulling

An Economic and Social History of the Ottoman Empire Halil Inalcik, Donald Quataert, 1997-05 A major contribution to Ottoman history now published in paperback in two volumes

The Origins of Capitalism and the "Rise of the West" Eric Mielants, 2008-03-15 In this study Eric Mielants provides a novel interdisciplinary interpretation of the origins of modernity and capitalism in particular He argues that contrary to popular thinking the Rise of the West should not be analyzed in terms of the Industrial Revolution or the colonization of the New World but viewed from long term developments that occurred in the Middle Ages A fascinating overview of different civilizations in East Asia South Asia and Northwestern Africa is provided and systematically compared and contrasted with Western Europe This book addresses some of the major debates that have recently unfolded in world history comparative sociology political economy sociological theory and historical sociology Mielants indicates how many existing theories such as Marxism World Systems Theory and Smithian Modernization Theory have suffered from either Eurocentric or limited temporal and spatial analyses which prevents them from a complete understanding of why the origins of capitalism and citizenship emerged in Western Europe

Naviguer, commercer, gouverner Claire Judde de Larivière, 2008-11-30 The convoys of public galleys the typical form of Venetian medieval sea faring had disappeared gradually by the time of the battle of Lepanto This disappearance was not the sign of a general economic crisis but was nevertheless the corollary of important political economic and social changes which marked the history of sixteenth century Venice Through the study of economic actors their identity their practices and their functions this book analyses public and private commercial navigation in relation to the evolution of forms and functions of the State within a general context of the redefinition of the relationship between public good and private interests      Merchant Networks in the Early Modern World, 1450-1800 Sanjay

Subrahmanyam, 2016-12-05 Merchant organisation was a global phenomenon in the early modern era and in the growing contacts between peoples and cultures merchants may be seen as privileged intermediaries This collection is unique in essaying a truly global coverage of mercantile activities from the Wangara of the Central Sudan Mississippi and Huron Indians to the role of the Jews the Muslim merchants of Anatolia to the social structure of the mercantile classes in early modern England The histories of merchant communities are not their histories alone but also the histories of assumptions concerning their contexts From the comparative perspective adopted here it emerges that in markets where Western European merchants vied for place with competitors from the Near East South Asia or East Asia they were very often unsuccessful      Production and Consumption in the Low Countries, 13th-16th Centuries Raymond van

Uytven, 2024-10-28 The subject of this volume is the relationship between production and consumption considered not only as the supply and demand sides of economic life but within the broader context of the societies of the Low Countries between the 12th and the 16th centuries Amongst the topics covered are the reality of the so called late medieval depression comparisons between the great merchant cities of Bruges and Antwerp and the actual importance of the trade in art and luxury goods One group of articles then looks in detail at the cloth industry which remained the mainstay of the region s wealth and the effects upon it of changes in technology and in fashion while the volume concludes with two studies specially translated from Dutch on wine and beer consumption      The Crown of Aragon , 2017-09-25 The Crown of Aragon A

Singular Mediterranean Empire recovers the history of an empire which was of great importance in the late medieval Mediterranean but which has since been relegated almost to oblivion by the course of history The Crown of Aragon was a Mediterranean crossroads between west and east for the economy and between north and south for culture and religion drawing in many different peoples covering Iberia to Greece A new vision of the Crown of Aragon as a framework of overlapping identities facilitates its historiographical recovery showcased in the chapters of this volume which analyse the economy institutions social evolution political strategy and cultural expression in literature and art of the Crown of Aragon Contributors are David Abulafia Lola Badia Xavier Barral i Altet Pere Benito Maria Bonet Jes s Brufal Alessandra Cioppi Damien Coulon Luciano Gallinari Isabel Grifoll Adam J Kosto Esther Mart Seta s Sebastiana Nocco Antoni Riera Flocel Sabat and Antoni Simon      Trading Conflicts Georg Christ, 2012-01-20 Based on Mamluk and Venetian sources this book offers a thorough analysis of the various conflicts arising around Levant trade It demonstrates how these conflicts more often than not cut across cultural divides in Late Medieval Mamluk Alexandria      Money, Morality, and Culture in Late Medieval and Early Modern Europe Diane Wolfthal, 2016-12-05 One of the first volumes to explore the intersection of economics morality and culture this collection analyzes the role of the developing monetary economy in Western Europe from the twelfth to the seventeenth century The contributors scholars from the fields of history literature art history and musicology investigate how money infiltrated every aspect of everyday life modified notions of social identity and encouraged debates about ethical uses of wealth These essays investigate how the new symbolic system of money restructured religious practices familial routines sexual activities gender roles urban space and the production of literature and art They explore the complex ethical and theological discussions which developed because the role of money in everyday life and the accumulation of wealth seemed to contradict Christian ideals of poverty and charity revealing a rich web of reactions to the tensions inherent in a predominately Christian neo capitalist culture Money Morality and Culture in Late Medieval and Early Modern Europe presents a comprehensive multi disciplinary assessment of the ways in which the rise of the monetary economy fundamentally affected morality and culture in Western Europe
