Selected Poems Of Po Chu I:

The Selected Poems of Po Chü-i Juyi Bai, 1999 The quintessential Chinese poet translated by David Hinton recipient of the Harold Morton Landon Translation Award Bo Juyi Juyi Bai, 2000 The Tang dynasty was the great age of Chinese poetry and Po Chü-i 772-846 was one of that era's most prolific major poets His appealing style marked by deliberate simplicity won him wide popularity among the Chinese public at large and made him a favorite with readers in Korea and Japan as well From Po Chü-i's well preserved corpus personally compiled and arranged by the poet himself in an edition of seventy-five chapters the esteemed translator Burton Watson has chosen 128 poems and one short prose piece that exemplify the earthy grace and deceptive simplicity of this master poet For Po Chü-i writing poetry was a way to expose the ills of society and an autobiographical medium to record daily activities as well as a source of deep personal delight and satisfaction constituting along with wine and song one of the chief joys of existence Whether exposing the gluttony of arrogant palace attendants during a famine describing the delights of drunkenly chanting new poems under the autumn moon depicting the peaceful equanimity that comes with old age or marveling at cool Zen repose during a heat wave these masterfully translated poems shine with a precisely crafted artlessness that conveys the subtle delights of Chinese poetry Translations from Po Chü-i's Collected Works: Regulated and patterned poems of Middle Age (822-832) Juyi Bai, 1976 Selected Poems James Wright, Robert Bly, Anne Wright, 2005-05-11 The first selected poems of a major poet who wrote with more heart than any other North American poet of the twentieth century Rodney Jones Parnassus More than any other poet of his generation James Wright spoke to the great sadness and hope that are inextricable from the iconography of America its rail yards rivers cities and once vast natural beauty Speaking in the unique lyrical voice that he called his Ohioan Wright created poems of immense sympathy for society's alienated and outcast figures and also of ardent wonder at the restorative power of nature Selected Poems fills a significant gap in Wright's bibliography that of an accessible carefully chosen collection to satisfy both longtime readers and those just discovering his work Edited and with an introduction by Wright's widow Anne and his close friend the poet Robert Bly who also wrote an introduction Selected Poems is a personal deeply considered collection of work with pieces chosen from all of Wright's books It is an overdue and timely new view of a poet whose life and work encompassed the extremes of American life Selected Poems Kenneth Rexroth, 2014-06-10 The late Kenneth Rexroth 1905-1982 is surely one of the most readable of this century's great American poets He is also one of the most sophisticated Like William Carlos Williams he honed his writing to a controlled and direct language His intellectual complexity matches Wallace Stevens his polymath erudition Ezra Pound He is first among our nature poets His love poems and erotic lyrics are unsurpassed Rexroth's Selected Poems brings together in a single volume a representative sampling of sixty years work Here are substantial passages from his longer poems The Homestead Called Damascus 1920-1925 begun while the poet was in his teens the cubist Prolegomenon to a Theodicy 1925-1927 the philosophical masterpiece The Phoenix and the Tortoise 1940

1944 and The Dragon and the Unicorn 1944 1950 and the meditative The Heart's Garden The Garden's Heart 1967 The shorter poems were originally gathered in In What Hour 1940 The Art of Wordly Wisdom 1949 The Signature of All Things 1950 In Defense of the Earth 1956 Natural Numbers 1964 New Poems 1974 and The Morning Star 1979 The New Directions Anthology of Classical Chinese Poetry Eliot Weinberger, 2003 Provides translations of more than two hundred fifty poems by over forty poets from early anonymous poetry through the Tang and Song dynasties Translations from Po Chu-i's Collected Works Juyi Bai, 1970 National Endowment for the Humanities ... Annual Report National Endowment for the Humanities, 1998 Writing and Representing Qualitative Research Maria K. E. Lahman, 2021-08-25 This book addresses foundational areas of qualitative writing such as journal articles and dissertations aesthetic representations including poetry and autoethnography publishing and reflexivity in representation in one practical and engaging text based on real experiences Author Maria K E Lahman draws on her experiences as a qualitative research professor and writing instructor and as someone who has published widely in scholarly journals employing both traditional and more innovative forms of writing The first part of the book covers writing tips how to represent data how to write a qualitative thematic journal article how to write a qualitative dissertation and provides guidance on the publication process The second part encourages the qualitative researcher to move beyond traditional forms of writing and consider how qualitative research can be represented more aesthetically as poems autoethnographies and visually The book concludes with a chapter on reflexivity in research representations Throughout the author provides vivid examples from her own work and that of graduate students and colleagues Collected Poems James Wright, 2012-01-01 Like an underground river the astonishing poems of Joseph Ceravolo have nurtured American poetry for fifty years a presence deeply felt but largely invisible Collected Poems offers the first full portrait of Ceravolo's aesthetic trajectory bringing to light the highly original voice that was operating at an increasing remove from the currents of the time From a poetics associated with Frank O'Hara and John Ashbery to an ever more contemplative deeply visionary poetics similar in sensibility to Zen and Dante William Blake and St John of the Cross this collection shows how Ceravolo's poetry takes on a direct quiet lyricism intensely dedicated to the natural and spiritual life of the individual As Ron Silliman notes Ceravolo's later work reveals him to be one of the most emotionally open vulnerable and self knowing poets of his generation Many new pieces including the masterful long poem The Hellgate are published here for the first time This volume is a landmark edition for American poetry and includes an introduction by David Lehman The Emperor's Regret and other Short Stories Dale A. Johnson, 2013-01-05 The Emperor's Regret are a collection of stories based on Chinese themes I have experimented with fiction In the first story The Emperor's regret I experiment with combining fiction story form with non fiction use of footnotes In the second story I experiment with western and eastern story forms In the third story I experiment with contemporary reality with ancient fantasy 99 Poems in Translation, 1997-02-07 Full of surprising juxtapositions and possessed of a gargantuan range of voices and styles 99 Poems in Translation is a unique convergence of some of the world's most beautiful poetry The poets range from Anna Akhmatova to Yuan Chen from Charles Baudelaire to Virgil each of them translated into memorable English by such poetic luminaries as Ben Johnson Elizabeth Bishop and Robert Graves Arranged alphabetically this collection spans centuries and continents Alcohol and Temperance in Modern History Jack S. Blocker Jr., David M. Fahey, Ian R. Tyrrell, 2003-12-17 A comprehensive encyclopedia on all aspects of the production consumption and social impact of alcohol Alcohol and Temperance in Modern History An International Encyclopedia spans the history of alcohol production and consumption from the development of distilled spirits and modern manufacturing and distribution methods to the present Authoritative and unbiased it brings together the work of hundreds of experts from a variety of disciplines with an emphasis on the extraordinary wealth of scholarship developed in the past several decades Its nearly 500 alphabetically organized entries range beyond the principal alcoholic beverages and major producers and retailers to explore attitudes toward alcohol in various countries and religions traditional drinking occasions and rituals and images of drinking and temperance in art painting literature and drama Other entries describe international treaties and organizations related to alcohol production and distribution global consumption patterns and research and treatment institutions as well as temperance prohibition and antiprohibitionist efforts worldwide Imagining Exile in Heian Japan Jonathan Stockdale, 2015-02-28 For over three hundred years during the Heian period 794-1185 execution was customarily abolished in favor of banishment During the same period exile emerged widely as a concern within literature and legend in poetry and diaries and in the cultic imagination as expressed in oracles and revelations While exile was thus one sanction available to the state it was also something more a powerful trope through which members of court society imagined the banishment of gods and heavenly beings of legendary and literary characters and of historical figures some transformed into spirits This compelling and well researched volume is the first in English to explore the rich resonance of exile in the cultural life of the Japanese court Rejecting the notion that such narratives merely reflect a timeless literary archetype Jonathan Stockdale shows instead that in every case narratives of exile emerged from particular historical circumstances moments in which elites in the capital sought to reveal and to re-imagine their world and the circulation of power within it By exploring the relationship of banishment to the structures of inclusion and exclusion upon which Heian court society rested Stockdale moves beyond the historiographical discussion of center and margin to offer instead a theory of exile itself Stockdale's arguments are situated in astute and careful readings of Heian sources His analysis of a literary narrative the Tale of the Bamboo Cutter for example shows how Kaguyahime's exile from the Capital of the Moon to earth implicitly portrays the world of the Heian court as a polluted periphery His exploration of one of the most well known historical instances of banishment that of Sugawara Michizane illustrates how the political sanction of exile could be met with a religious rejoinder through which an exiled noble is reinstated in divine form first as a vengeful spirit and then as a deity worshipped at the highest levels of court society Imagining Exile in Heian Japan is a model of interdisciplinary scholarship that will appeal to anyone interested in the interwoven connections among the literature politics law and religion of early and classical Japan

Sunflower Splendor Wuji Liu, Irving Yucheng Lo, 1975 A comprehensive anthology of Chinese poetry from the 12th century B C to the present This magnificent collection has the effect of a complete library rather than of an anthology of poetry A lyric quality comes through into our own language Every page is alive with striking and wonderful things immediately accessible Publishers Weekly Sunflower Splendor is the largest and on the whole best anthology of translated Chinese poems to have appeared in a Western language The New York Times Book Review This remarkably fine anthology should remain standard for a long time Library Journal excellent translations by divers hands Open to any page and listen to the still sad music Washington Post Bookworld

The Poetry of Meng Chiao in the Chinese Baroque Tradition Russell McLeod, 1973

Ezra Pound and the Appropriation of Chinese Poetry Ming Xie, 2021-12-12 First published in 1999 The subject of this book is the translation and appropriation of Chinese poetry by some English and American writers in the early decades of this century The author explores the be concerned as much with English translation of Chinese poetry per se as with the relationship between this body of translation from the Chinese and the developing poetics and practices of what is usually referred to as Imagism as much with the question of historical influence or ascription as with certain interpretive and critical aspects of this correlative relationship Focusing on the direct influence of Chinese poetry upon the theory and practice of Imagism attributing to Imagist poets in general and Ezra Pound in particular the perception in Chinese poetry of the essential qualities and principles for rejuvenating English poetry in the early decades of the century

The Secret Sayings of Ye Su Jay G. Williams, 2004-12 The Secret Sayings of Ye Su A Silk Road Gospel provides a translation of introduction to and commentary upon an extraordinary previously unknown manuscript This Christian gospel though written in koine Greek was obviously influenced by both Buddhist and Daoist ideas and probably derives from Tang dynasty China 8th or 9th century The account of how the manuscript emerged in 1994 and how it came to be translated by Dr Jay G Williams is in itself quite fascinating The author also describes the nature of the text and why he thinks it should be placed in the Tang dynasty period He provides a concise introduction not only to the history of Buddhism and the indigenous religions of China during this period but also to the Religion of Light a form of Christianity that entered China in 638 A D The work ends with a line by line commentary on each of the seventy two verses of this gospel Although undoubtedly ancient the work seems amazingly contemporary in its ideas offering a unique and quite radical vision of Ye Su Jesus and his teachings Neither orthodox nor gnostic The Secret Sayings comments about such topics as the place of women and gays within the community the nature of the kingdom and the source of Christian hope in the Source Although faith is emphasized doctrines and dogmas are not A place is found for both the Heavenly Father and the Earthly Mother but alone neither is regarded as ultimate The fellowship of believers is emphasized but value of the Church as an institution is seriously questioned
