Long Road To Teatime:

Pasture and Flock Anna Jackson, 2018-03-08 Uneasy nights out with dead Russian poets dalliances with German gasfitters and emotionally fraught games of badminton are brought together for the first time along with a brand new body of work in this time spanning selection of Anna Jackson's poetry Local gothic suburban pastoral and answerings back to literary icons are all enhanced by Jackson's light hand and sly humour Pastoral yet gritty intellectual and witty sweet but with stings in their tails the poems and sequences collected in Pasture and Flock are essential reading for both long term and new admirers of Jackson's slanted approach to lyric poetry

I, Clodia, and Other Portraits Anna Jackson, 2015-02-01 I Clodia is the story of Clodia Metelli poet and lover and her relations with her far away paramour Catullus with her husband Metellus Celer her brother Publius Clodius and her accuser Cicero By giving Clodia the Lesbia of Catullus's famous love poetry her own first person narration Anna Jackson upends and reinvigorates the beloved classical sequence with biting wit and tender attention Who was Clodia and what did she think about the affair the gossip the scandal the poems Jackson honours and subverts her source material in lines that are a marvel of ventriloquism The book's second section The photographer's secret furthers this superb exploration of voice and portrayal The photographer in this sequence reads writes gives presents and considers the art of portraiture But who is examining and who is being examined Above all else Anna Jackson takes us within and without a range of characters in her characteristically witty style sometimes mock breathless sometimes dryly pointed and always clever stylish and emotionally engaging If a photograph is a secret about a secret as Diane Arbus put it these poems are also secrets about lives about portraiture about those who have the power to record and betray

Living Classics S. J. Harrison, 2009-08-20 This collection of essays explores the extensive use of Latin and Greek literary texts in a range of recent poetry written in English It contains both contributions from poets who include Tony Harrison Seamus Heaney and Michael Longley talking about their uses of classical literature in their own work in lyric poetry and in theatre poetry and essays from academic experts on the same topics Living Classics asks why contemporary poets are returning to making versions of and allusions to Greek and Roman literature in their work and interrogates the parallel interest of modern classical scholars in the contemporary reception of classical texts

The Long Road Home Connie Monk, 2016-01-14 Sophie and Lydia Westlake have always been close and think of each other as sisters despite the fact that they are really cousins Sophie has always been the prettier more light hearted younger sister whilst Lydia has grown up in her shadow and is more serious and reserved But until dashing young architect Christian Mellor arrives in town on the day of the annual summer fete their differences had never mattered Both girls immediately fall for Christian's charms as he becomes a regular visitor to the family home having been commissioned to do some building work for their father Sophie marries Christian blissfully unaware of her sister's secret passion for her husband Lydia is devastated and tells no one how she really feels But cannot let go of her feelings for Christian especially when Sophie confides that she is unhappy in the marriage
