on the global deployment of British propaganda and cultural diplomacy in colonial and post colonial theatres such as Cyprus India and Sierra Leone Chapters re evaluate the propaganda work of prominent writers including Arthur Koestler and Dylan Thomas in the light of new archival research study how organisations including the BBC British Council and Ministry of Information engaged with new media forms analyse cultural representations of propaganda service and investigate how British literature and culture was deployed and projected as a form of soft power across the globe Featuring contributions from a variety of disciplines including literary studies visual culture book history and radio history this book brings together a constellation of established and emerging scholars to show the crucial role played in shaping and mediating the techniques and content of British information campaigns of the mid twentieth century Fascism and Constitutional Conflict James Loughlin, 2019 The first major assessment of the British fascist and neo fascist engagement with the Ulster question from Rotha Lintorn Orman s British Fascists in the 1920s and early 1930s Oswald Mosley s BUF in the 1930s and neo fascist Union Movement in the post war period through to the National Front and BNP during the Troubles Historical Dictionary of World War II Anne Sharp Wells, 2013-12-24 This dictionary covers the complex and costly conflict that began when Germany ruled by Adolf Hitler and the Nazi Party invaded neighboring Poland on 1 September 1939 and concluded when Germany surrendered on 7 9 May 1945 leaving much of the European continent in ruins and its population devastated The war against Germany Italy and the other European Axis members was fought primarily in Europe the Mediterranean the Middle East East and North Africa and the Atlantic Ocean The Axis powers were defeated by the Allies led by the Grand Alliance of Great Britain the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics The Historical Dictionary of World War II The War against Germany and Italy relates the history of this war through a chronology an introductory essay maps and photos and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 300 cross referenced entries on the countries and geographical areas involved in the war as well as the nations remaining neutral wartime alliances and conferences significant civilian and military leaders and major ground naval and air operations This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about World War II Voices from Exile , 2015-11-24 The sixteen essays in this volume are a tribute to Hamish Ritchie s deep interest in exile as a literary and historical phenomenon The first eight focus on the British and Irish context including studies of J rgen Kuczynski and his family Martin Miller Lilly Kann Hermann Sinsheimer Albin Stuebs Ludwig Hopf and Paul Bondy as well as contributions on the Association of Jewish Refugees and the exile experience as reflected in Klaus Mann s Der Vulkan The following four contributions widen the discussion to encompass Germany the Netherlands Austria and Yugoslavia by focusing on the diaries of Anne Frank and Etty Hillesum the early poetry of Bertolt Brecht and works by Vladimir Vertlib Aleksandar Ajzinberg and David Albahari The historical dimension is deepened with contributions on William Joyce Joseph Jonas the marginalisation of the mass emigration of the Jews within German memory and the exile of princesses for whom until recent times marriage often meant a life far from home

Terrorism and Modern Literature Alex Houen, 2002-09-12 Is terrorism's violence essentially symbolic Does it impact on culture primarily through the media What kinds of performative effect do the various discourses surrounding terrorism have Such questions have not only become increasingly important in terrorism studies they have also been concerns for many literary writers This book is the first extensive study of modern literature's engagement with terrorism Ranging from the 1880s to the 1980s the terrorism examined is as diverse as the literary writings on it chapters include discussions of Joseph Conrad's novels on Anarchism and Russian Nihilism Wyndham Lewis's avant garde responses to Syndicalism and the militant Suffragettes Ezra Pound's poetic entanglement with Segregationist violence Walter Abish's fictions about West German urban guerrillas and Seamus Heaney's and Ciaran Carson's poems on the Troubles in Northern Ireland In each instance Alex Houen explores how the literary writer figures clashes or collusions between terrorist violence and discursive performativity What is revealed is that writing on terrorism has frequently involved refiguring the force of literature itself In terrorism studies the cultural impact of terrorism has often been accounted for with rigid structural theories of its discursive roots But what about the performative effects of violence on discourse Addressing the issue of this mutual contagion Terrorism and Modern Literature shows that the mediation and effects of terrorism have been historically variable Referring to a variety of sources in addition to the literature newspaper and journal articles legislation letters manifestos the book shows how terrorism and the literature on it have been embroiled in wider cultural fields The result is not just a timely intervention in debates about terrorism's performativity Drawing on literary critical theory and philosophy it is also a major contribution to debates about the historical and political dimensions of modernist and postmodernist literary practices Encyclopedia of Radio 3-Volume Set Christopher H. Sterling, 2004-03-01 Produced in association with the Museum of Broadcast

Communications in Chicago the Encyclopedia of Radio includes more than 600 entries covering major countries and regions of the world as well as specific programs and people networks and organizations regulation and policies audience research and radio's technology This encyclopedic work will be the first broadly conceived reference source on a medium that is now nearly eighty years old with essays that provide essential information on the subject as well as comment on the significance of the particular person organization or topic being examined What Did You Do During the War? Richard

Griffiths, 2016-10-04 This book is a sequel to Richard Griffiths's two highly successful previous books on the British pro Nazi Right Fellow Travellers of the Right British Enthusiasts for Nazi Germany 1933-39 and Patriotism Perverted Captain Ramsay the Right Club and British Anti-Semitism 1939-1940 It follows the fortunes of his protagonists after the arrests of May/June 1940 and charts their very varied reactions to the failure of their cause while also looking at the possible reasons for the Government's failure to detain prominent pro Nazis from the higher strata of society Some of the pro Nazis continued with their original views and even undertook politically subversive activity here and in Germany Others finding that their pre-war balance between patriotism and pro Nazism had now tipped firmly on the side of patriotism fully supported the war effort while still maintaining their old views privately Other people found that events had made them change their views sincerely And then there were those who frightened by the prospect of detention or disgrace tried to hide or even to deny their former views by a variety of subterfuges including attacking former colleagues This wide variety of reactions sheds new light on the equally wide range of reasons for their original admiration for Nazism and also gives us some more general insight into what could be termed the psychology of failure Heritage Comics Dallas Signature Auction Catalog #820 Ivy Press,2006-03

South West Secret Agents Laura Quigley,2014-09-01 True tales of Second World War spies from across the West Country have been collected together for the very first time in this fascinating book From the rescue operations as the exodus from France began to the secret guerrilla army in Devon and Cornwall this book will amaze and intrigue with the incredible stories of Jasper Lawn of N51 the Helford Flotilla and the first escape routes for POWs agents and crashed airmen

Agent M Henry Hemming,2017-05-09 The fascinating improbable true story of Maxwell Knight the great MI5 spymaster and inspiration for the James Bond character M Maxwell Knight was perhaps the greatest spymaster in history He did more than anyone in his era to combat the rising threat of fascism in Britain during World War II in spite of his own history inside this movement He was also truly eccentric a thrice married jazz aficionado who kept a menagerie of exotic pets and almost totally unqualified for espionage Yet he had a gift for turning practically anyone into a fearless secret agent Knight's work revolutionized British intelligence pioneering the use of female agents among other accomplishments In telling Knight's remarkable story Agent M also reveals for the first time in print the names and stories of some of the men and women recruited by Knight on behalf of MI5 who were asked to infiltrate the country's most dangerous political organizations Drawing on a vast array of original sources Agent M reveals not only the story of one of the world's greatest intelligence operators but the sacrifices and courage required to confront fascism during a nation's darkest time The

Transformation Of Ireland 1900-2000 Diarmaid Ferriter, 2010-07-09 A ground breaking history of the twentieth century in Ireland written on the most ambitious scale by a brilliant young historian It is significant that it begins in 1900 and ends in 2000 most accounts have begun in 1912 or 1922 and largely ignored the end of the century Politics and political parties are examined in detail but high politics does not dominate the book which rather sets out to answer the question What was it like to grow up and live in 20th century Ireland It deals with the North in a comprehensive way focusing on the social and cultural aspects not just the obvious political and religious divisions
