Eaton, 2010-06-21 This book examines how cultural and ideological reactions to activism in the post Civil Rights Black community were depicted in fiction written by Black women writers 1965 1980 By recognizing and often challenging prevailing cultural paradigms within the post Civil Rights era writers such as Toni Morrison Alice Walker Toni Cade Bambara and Paule Marshall fictionalized the black community in critical ways that called for further examination of progressive activism after the much publicized end of the Civil Rights Movement Through their writings the authors confronted marked shifts within African American literature politics and culture that proved detrimental to the collective wellness of the community at large Deferrals of Domain NA NA, 2016-04-30 Contemporary female novelists tend to portray the relationship between women and the state as profoundly negative in contrast to various constructions in current feminist theory Martine Watson Brownley analyzes novels by Margaret Atwood Paule Marshall Nadine Gordimer and Margaret Drabble to explore the significance of this disparity The book uses literary analysis to highlight elements of state power that many feminist theorists currently occlude ranging from women's still minimal access to state politics to the terrifying violence exercised by modern states At the same time however feminist theory clarifies major elements in many contemporary women's lives about which the novels are ambivalent or misleading such as romantic love and the role of sexuality in state politics Deferrals of Domain fills a double gap both authorial and topical in current critical treatments of women writers and will be of interest to both literary and women's studies scholars Encyclopedia of the African Diaspora Carole Boyce Davies, 2008-07-29 The authoritative source for information on the people places and events of the African Diaspora spanning five continents and five centuries The field of African Diaspora studies is rapidly growing Until now there was no single authoritative source for information on this broad complex discipline Drawing on the work of over 300 scholars this encyclopedia fills that void Now the researcher from high school level up can go to a single reference for information on the historical political economic and cultural relations between people of African descent and the rest of the world community Five hundred years of relocation and dislocation of assimilation and separation have produced a rich tapestry of history and culture into which are woven people places and events This authoritative accessible work picks out the strands of the tapestry telling the story of diverse peoples separated by time and distance but retaining a commonality of origin and experience Organized in A Z sections covering global topics country of origin and destination country the work is designed for easy use by all

Literary Passion, Ideological Commitment Dawn Duke, 2008 This study examines Afro Cuban and Afro Brazilian women writers as well as analysing the roles of women of African descent in Cuban and Brazilian literature Initially literary imagination locked women into circumscribed roles a result of hierarchies embedded in slavery and colonialism and sustained by hierarchical theories on race and gender The discussion illustrates how these negative aspects have influenced the mainstream literary imagination that contrasts with the self portrayals created by women writers themselves Even as there continues to be disadvantageous constructions there is no doubt that a modification has occurred over time in images representation and articulation It is a change directly associated with the instances when women themselves are the writers The historiographic image of the Afro Cuban and Afro Brazilian woman as a written object is ideologically replaced by a vision of her as a writing subject It is here that the vision of a creative multifaceted and diversified literature becomes important

Sylvia Wynter Katherine McKittrick, 2015-02-02 The Jamaican writer and cultural theorist Sylvia Wynter is best known for her diverse writings that pull together insights from theories in history literature science and black studies to explore race the legacy of colonialism and representations of humanness Sylvia Wynter On Being Human as Praxis is a critical genealogy of Wynter's work highlighting her insights on how race location and time together inform what it means to be human The contributors explore Wynter's stunning reconceptualization of the human in relation to concepts of blackness modernity urban space the Caribbean science studies migratory politics and the interconnectedness of creative and theoretical resistances The collection includes an extensive conversation between Sylvia Wynter and Katherine McKittrick that delineates Wynter's engagement with writers such as Frantz Fanon W E B DuBois and Aim C saire among others the interview also reveals the ever extending range and power of Wynter's intellectual project and elucidates her attempts to rehistoricize humanness as praxis

BOOK JACKET Caribbean Women Writers, 2024-06-24 The Poetics of Difference Mecca Jamilah Sullivan, 2021-10-19 Winner of the Modern Language Association MLA s William Sanders Scarborough Prize From Audre Lorde Ntozake Shange and Bessie Head to Zanele Muholi Suzan Lori Parks and Missy Elliott Black women writers and artists across the African Diaspora have developed nuanced and complex creative forms Mecca Jamilah Sullivan ventures into the unexplored spaces of black women s queer creative theorizing to learn its languages and read the textures of its forms Moving beyond fixed notions Sullivan points to a space of queer imagination where black women invent new languages spaces and genres to speak the many names of difference Black women s literary cultures have long theorized the complexities surrounding nation and class the indeterminacy of gender and race and the multiple meanings of sexuality Yet their ideas and work remain obscure in the face of indifference from Western scholarship Innovative and timely The Poetics of Difference illuminates understudied queer contours of black women s writing Black Women's Rights Carole Boyce Davies, 2022-11-01 Black Women s Rights Leadership and the Circularities of Power presents Black women as alternative and transformative leaders in the highest political positions and at grassroots community levels Beginning with a critique of the assumption of an equivalence between masculinity and political leadership Carole Boyce Davies moves through the various conceptual definitions intents and meanings of leadership and the differences in the presentation of practices of leadership by women and feminist scholars She studies the actualizing of political leadership in the Presidency of Ellen Johnson Sirleaf the historical role of Shirley Chisholm as the first woman to run for presidency of the United States on a leading party ticket the promise of the Black left feminist leadership of Brazilian Marielle Franco and the current model of Prime Minister Mia Mottley of Barbados in advancing new leadership models from the Caribbean This book proclaims the 21st century as the century for Black women s leadership Women's Labor in the Global Economy

Sharon Harley,2007 Examines the ways in which women across the globe individually and collectively are responding to new economic pressures and historical circumstances that are shaping their lives      Contradictory Indianness Atreyee Phukan,2022-07-15 As Contradictory Indianness shows a postcolonial Caribbean aesthetics that has from its inception privileged inclusivity interraciality and resistance against Old World colonial orders requires taking into account Indo Caribbean writers and their reimagining of Indianness in the region Whereas for instance forms of Indo Caribbean cultural expression in music cuisine or religion are more readily accepted as creolizing thus Caribbeanizing processes an Indo Caribbean literary imaginary has rarely been studied as such Discussing the work of Ismith Khan Harold Sonny Ladoo Totaram Sanadhya LalBihari Sharma and Shani Mootoo Contradictory Indianness maintains that the writers engagement with the regional and transnational poetics of the Caribbean underscores symbolic bridges between cultural worlds conventionally set apart the Africanized and Indianized and distinguishes between cultural worlds assumed to be the same indenture and South Asian Indianness This book privileges Indo Caribbean fiction as a creolizing literary imaginary to broaden its study beyond a narrow canon that has inadvertently or not enabled monolithic and unidimensional perceptions of Indian cultural identity and evolution in the Caribbean and continued to impose a fragmentary and disconnected study of post indenture aesthetics within indenture s own transnational cartography      Historical Dictionary of Women in Sub-Saharan Africa Kathleen Sheldon,2005-03-16 This vast dictionary launches the new series Historical Dictionaries of Women in the World and fills a huge gap in the literature as there previously has not been any comprehensive reference work on African women This dictionary includes over 660 entries on notable women in history politics religion the arts and other sectors on events particularly associated with women on women s organizations and publications and on a range of topics that are important to women in general or that have a special importance for African women including marriage fertility market women goddesses and much more Entries include cross referencing information that facilitates readers ability to find related information The book also includes an introductory essay and a chronology on African women s history as well as an extensive bibliography divided into sub sections on different historical eras and subjects Access to finding specific information is further aided by a country index A wide range of users will find this reference extremely valuable including researchers in African or women s history high school and university students and people involved with African policy and development issues such as diplomats or aid workers      Prospects and Impediments of Feminist Monolithism Rosalyn Mutia,2021-02-01 This book reads mid twentieth century poetry by British American and Sub Saharan women to postulate the desirability and possibility of feminist monolithism It shows that there is a remarkable consistency in the themes and aesthetic preoccupations of poets widely separated from each other by both geographical space and historical epochs which highlights that there are pertinent cross cutting trends in women s poetry which could be exploited as a basis for monolithism The text identifies the main tenets of feminism as recognition of women s oppression and a determined effort through concerted strategies to resist and thwart this oppression and to navigate women out of peripheral positions into positions of power By showing that these tenets are uniformly present in the poetry of very different women it posits this uniformity as a stable ground on which feminist monolithism could be constructed without glossing over existent differences between and among women

Caribbean Women Writers and Globalization Helen C. Scott, 2016-04-08 Caribbean Women Writers and Globalization offers a fresh reading of contemporary literature by Caribbean women in the context of global and local economic forces providing a valuable corrective to much Caribbean feminist literary criticism Departing from the trend towards thematic diasporic studies Helen Scott considers each text in light of its national historical and cultural origins while also acknowledging regional and international patterns Though the work of Caribbean women writers is apparently less political than the male dominated literature of national liberation Scott argues that these women nonetheless express the sociopolitical realities of the postindependent Caribbean providing insight into the dynamics of imperialism that survive the demise of formal colonialism In addition she identifies the specific aesthetic qualities that reach beyond the confines of geography and history in the work of such writers as Oonya Kempadoo Jamaica Kincaid Edwidge Danticat Pauline Melville and Janice Shinebourne Throughout Scott's persuasive and accessible study sustains the dialectical principle that art is inseparable from social forces and yet always strains against the limits they impose Her book will be an indispensable resource for literature and women's studies scholars as well as for those interested in postcolonial cultural and globalization studies

Fearless Speech in Indonesian Women's Writing Jafar Suryomenggolo, 2021-10-01 By offering perspectives from Indonesian female workers this book discusses the contemporary progress of working class feminism from the Global South It presents a critical reading of the socio political conditions that allow female workers to narrate their lives and work as precariat labor toiling under the forces of globalization Its analysis centers on their writings which appear in the form of legal documents personal accounts essays and short stories Thus the book shows how these women change their situation by challenging the political order and demanding gender justice with their fearless speech
