Mr. Pim Passes by A. A. Milne, 2014-05-16 The morning room at Marden House Buckinghamshire decided more than a hundred years ago that it was all right and has not bothered about itself since Visitors to the house have called the result such different adjectives as mellow old fashioned charming even baronial and antique but nobody ever said it was exciting Sometimes Olivia wants it to be more exciting and last week she rather let herself go over some new curtains she still has the rings to put on It is obvious that the curtains alone will overdo the excitement they will have to be harmonized with a new carpet and cushions Olivia has her eye on just the things but one has to go carefully with George What was good enough for his great great grandfather is good enough for him However we can trust Olivia to see him through it although it may take time A scene plot is given at the end of the play There are three ways of coming into the room by the open windows leading from the garden by the doors to R or by the staircase from up R Mr Pim chooses the latter way or rather Anne chooses it for him and Mr Pim kindly and inoffensively follows her She comes down steps and crosses to C followed by Mr Pim
