Radical Hospitality: Benedict's Way of Love Lonni Collins Pratt, 2011-06-01 For readers of The Benedict Option here is another invaluable collection of Benedictine wisdom to live by Today s culture is increasingly hostile and suspicious toward anyone who appears to be different especially when tragedy strikes Our instinct is to bolt our doors and protect the ones we love But deep within the heart of Benedictine spirituality lies a remedy to hatred fear and suspicion hospitality At once deeply comforting and sharply challenging true Benedictine hospitality requires that we welcome the stranger not only into our homes but into our hearts With warmth and humor drawing from the monastic tradition and sharing personal anecdotes from their own lives Pratt and Homan encourage us to embrace not only the literal stranger but the stranger within and the stranger in those we love

God Do U Hear Me ? Reggie Beamon, The Limits of Hospitality Jessica Wroblewski, 2012-04-01 Practicing hospitality is central to building a civil society not to mention living a Christian life It can be enriching and joy filled but it can also be profoundly demanding and sometimes even dangerous In The Limits of Hospitality Jessica Wroblewski explores the ethical questions surrounding the practice of hospitality particularly hospitality that is informed by Christian theological commitments While there is no algorithm that distinguishes between ethically legitimate and illegitimate boundaries the variety of circumstances in which hospitality is relevant and the nature of hospitality itself make advocating firm and fixed boundaries difficult How much more so for Christians for whom the practice of hospitality should be a manifestation of agape a participation in God s eschatological welcome extended to all people through Jesus Christ Are limits to hospitality then merely a regrettable concession to our finite and fallen condition Wroblewski offers a rich theological reflection that will interest anyone who has a role in the practice of hospitality in community

Whether such communities are families households churches educational institutions or nation states St. Benedict's
