Rails Of The Silver Gate The Spreckels San Diego Empire:

Rails of the Silver Gate Richard V. Dodge,1975 Empire Builder Sandra E. Bonura,2022-12 Empire Builder is the previously untold story of John D Spreckels the pioneer who almost singlehandedly built San Diego after creating empires in sugar shipping transportation and building development up and down the coast of California and across the Pacific

Explorations and Entanglements Hartmut Berghoff, Frank Biess, Ulrike Strasser, 2018-11-16 Traditionally Germany has been considered a minor player in Pacific history its presence there was more limited than that of other European nations and whereas its European rivals established themselves as imperial forces beginning in the early modern era Germany did not seriously pursue colonialism until the nineteenth century Yet thanks to recent advances in the field emphasizing transoceanic networks and cultural encounters it is now possible to develop a more nuanced understanding of the history of Germans in the Pacific The studies gathered here offer fascinating research into German missionary commercial scientific and imperial activity against the backdrop of the Pacific s overlapping cultural circuits and complex oceanic transits San Diego Trolleys Douglas W. Mengers, 2017 Starting with the first horse drawn trolleys introduced by the San Diego Streetcar Company in 1886 San Diego s history included the growth and decline of several trolley systems After electricity arrived San Diego was the site of early experimentation for electric trolleys on the West Coast and home to a short lived cable car system In the 1890s sugar baron John D Spreckels purchased these failed lines and consolidated them into the San Diego Electric Railway This railway expanded rapidly leading to the development of new trolley suburbs at the turn of the century including North Park Normal Heights and Mission Beach Ridership waned with the Depression and the introduction of autobuses and though it temporarily rose during the war years this decline led to the dismantling of the trolley system in April 1949
