Simon, Charlotte Wardi, 2011-07-22 The articles in this collection originated from an international symposium at the University of Haifa and centre around a major topic in German European and American literature i.e. the way in which Jewish self definition both positive and negative has materialized as a product of the tensions between secular culture and society on the one hand and Jewish tradition and religion on the other. The broad range of authors, most of them of German speaking origin, necessarily results in an almost equally broad range of answers to this central question. The volume is dedicated to the memory of the Israeli literary scholar Chaim Shoham.
