Foster,2015-09-29 One of the world's leading art theorists dissects a quarter century of artistic practice Bad New Days examines the evolution of art and criticism in Western Europe and North America over the last twenty five years exploring their dynamic relation to the general condition of emergency instilled by neoliberalism and the war on terror Considering the work of artists such as Thomas Hirschhorn Tacita Dean and Isa Genzken and the writing of thinkers like Jacques Rancière Bruno Latour and Giorgio Agamben Hal Foster shows the ways in which art has anticipated this condition at times resisting the collapse of the social contract or gesturing toward its repair at other times burlesquing it Against the claim that art making has become so heterogeneous as to defy historical analysis Foster argues that the critic must still articulate a clear account of the contemporary in all its complexity To that end he offers several paradigms for the art of recent years which he terms abject archival mimetic and precarious

Takedown Farah Nayeri,2022-01-25 Farah Nayeri addresses the difficult questions plaguing the art world from the bad habits of Old Masters to the current grappling with identity politics For centuries art censorship has been a top down phenomenon kings popes and one party states decided what was considered obscene blasphemous or politically deviant in art Today censorship can also happen from the bottom up thanks to calls to action from organizers and social media campaigns Artists and artworks are routinely taken to task for their insensitivity In this new world order artists critics philanthropists galleries and museums alike are recalibrating their efforts to increase the visibility of marginalized voices and respond to the people's demands for better ethics in art But what should we the people do with this newfound power With exclusive interviews with Nan Goldin Sam Durant Faith Ringgold and others Nayeri tackles wide ranging issues including sex religion gender ethics animal rights and race By asking and answering questions such as Who gets to make art and who owns it How do we correct the inequities of the past What does authenticity exploitation and appropriation mean in art Takedown provides the necessary tools to navigate the art world

Thinking Utopia Jörn Rüsen,Michael Fehr,Thomas W. Rieger,2006-12-01 After the breakdown of socialist and communist systems in the East it had become fashionable to declare the so called end of utopia end of history end of narratives The authors of this volume do not share this view but think that it is time to rehabilitate utopian thought The political concept of Utopia that has given its name to these transcendental projections onto the world has been too narrow to describe and analyze the moving forces of the mind perceiving human existence beyond reality By broadening the perspectives of utopian studies these essays enable the reader to reconstruct scholarly paradigms and strategies of utopian complex and holistic thinking in modern cosmology philosophy sociology in literary historical and political sciences and to compare traditions and ways of Western utopian thought to the practice in the East

Memorial Mania Erika Doss,2022-12-22 In the past few decades thousands of new memorials to executed witches victims of terrorism and dead astronauts along with those that pay tribute to civil rights organ donors and the end of Communism have dotted the American landscape Equally ubiquitous though until now less the subject of serious inquiry are temporary memorials spontaneous offerings of flowers and candles that materialize at sites of tragic and traumatic death In Memorial Mania Erika Doss argues that these memorials underscore our obsession with issues of memory and history and the urgent desire to express and claim those issues in visibly public contexts Doss shows how this desire to memorialize the past disposes itself to individual anniversaries and personal grievances to stories of tragedy and trauma and to the social and political agendas of diverse numbers of Americans By offering a framework for understanding these sites Doss engages the larger issues behind our culture of commemoration Driven by heated struggles over identity and the politics of representation Memorial Mania is a testament to the fevered pitch of public feelings in America today

Space (Re)Solutions Peter Mörténböck,Helge Mooshammer,2014-03-15 The rapid changes currently taking place in our urban political and institutional environments have shifted spatial practice to centre stage both in civic life and academic research Social networking political projects cross border movements artistic interventions urban and environmental initiatives self organized educational practices all articulate the challenges involved in organizing the spaces we share In this volume visual culture scholars from around the world discuss the practical turn in different fields of critical engagement proposing fresh ways to assert an interpenetrated space of research and intervention

provides a conceptual and global overview of the field of Surrealist studies Methodologically the companion considers Surrealism s many achievements but also its historical shortcomings to illuminate its connections to the historical and cultural moment s from which it originated and to assess both the ways in which it still shapes our world in inspiring ways and the ways in which it might appear problematic as we look back at it from a twenty first century vantage point Contributions from experienced scholars will enable professors to teach the subject more broadly by opening their eyes to aspects of the field that are on the margins of their expertise and it will enable scholars to identify new areas of study in their own work by indicating lines of research at a tangent to their own The companion will reflect the interdisciplinarity of Surrealism by incorporating discussions pertaining to the visual arts as well as literature film and political and intellectual history

Culture Strike Laura Raicovich, 2021-12-14 A leading activist museum director explains why museums are at the center of a political storm In an age of protest cultural institutions have come under fire Protestors have mobilized against sources of museum funding as happened at the Metropolitan Museum and against board appointments forcing tear gas manufacturer Warren Kanders to resign at the Whitney That is to say nothing of demonstrations against exhibitions and artworks Protests have roiled institutions across the world from the Abu Dhabi Guggenheim to the Akron Art Museum A popular expectation has grown that galleries and museums should work for social change As Director of the Queens Museum Laura Raicovich helped turn that New York municipal institution into a public commons for art and activism organizing high powered exhibitions that doubled as political protests Then in January 2018 she resigned after a dispute with the Queens Museum board and city officials This public controversy followed the museum s responses to Donald Trump s election including her objections to the Israeli government using the museum for an event featuring Vice President Mike Pence In this lucid and accessible book Raicovich examines some of the key museum flashpoints and provides historical context for the current controversies She shows how art museums arose as colonial institutions bearing an ideology of neutrality that masks their role in upholding conservative capitalist values And she suggests ways museums can be reinvented to serve better public ends
