Hydrofictions Boast Hannah Boast, 2020-07-06 Water is a major global issue that will shape our future Rarely however has water been the subject of literary critical attention This book identifies water as a crucial new topic of literary and cultural analysis at a critical moment for the world's water resources focusing on the urgent context of Israel Palestine It argues for the necessity of recognising water s vital importance in understanding contemporary Israeli and Palestinian literature showing that water is as culturally significant as that much more obvious object of nationalist attention the land In doing so it offers new insights into Israeli and Palestinian literature and politics and into the role of culture in an age of environmental crisis Hydrofictions shows that how we imagine water is inseparable from how we manage it This book is urgent and necessary reading for students and scholars in Middle East Studies postcolonial ecocriticism the environmental humanities and anyone invested in the future of the world s water Bulletin . At the Beach Jean-Didier Urbain,2003 Around the world when people think of vacation it s the beach they want even when long distances must be traversed the seashore is the place to escape the rigors of modern life How did this come to be and what does our ongoing love affair with the beach mean How do shore vacations differ from traditional tourism and what does this tell us about our fears and dreams In At the Beach Jean Didier Urbain offers witty and insightful answers to these questions Urbain traces the transformation of the beach from a place of mythological threats and a demanding workplace fraught with danger to a destination for medical treatment and the pursuit of pleasure He looks to the emergence of the modern vacation in the nineteenth century examines representations of beachgoing in literature and the arts and shows the transgressive side of beach culture from nudism to hedonism to various scandals about costume behavior and sexuality that make the beach the site of social spectacle as well as leisure Urbain's ultimate focus is the paradoxical enterprise of the residential seaside vacationer who travels in order to stay in one place and who leaves the everyday world behind to reconstruct an idealized version of it at the shore He argues that unlike tourists who move from place to place beach vacationers are not seeking to explore nature to discover other cultures or even to get away from it all rather they are attempting to re create their own identities through a simplified community they can no longer find elsewhere Blending history with social observation Urbain presents an original incisive and entertaining account of this enduring ritual of escape The Federal and State Constitutions, Colonial Charters, and Other Organic Laws of the State, and recreation Territories, and Colonies Now Or Heretofore Forming the United States of America Francis Newton Thorpe, 1909 The Earth William Mullinger Higgins, 1838 The Most Excellent Hugo Grotius His Three Books Treating of the Rights of War and Peace ... in anglophone francophone and hispanophone Caribbean literature Jeannine Murray Rom n shows how a shared regional aesthetic emerges from the descriptions of music dance and oral storytelling events Because the historical circumstances that led to the development of performance traditions supersede the geopolitical and linguistic divisions of colonialism the literary uses of these traditions resonate across the linguistic boundaries of the region The author thus identifies the aesthetic that emerges from the act of writing about live arts and moving bodies as a practice that is grounded in the historically geographically and culturally specific features of the Caribbean itself Working with twentieth and twenty first century sources ranging from theatrical works and novels to blogs Murray Rom n examines the ways in which writers such as Jacques Stephen Alexis Zo Vald s Rosario Ferr Patrick Chamoiseau and Marlon James experiment with textually compensating for the loss of the corporeality of live relationship in performance traditions Through their exploration of the interaction of literature and performance she argues Caribbean writers themselves offer a mode of bridging the disjunction between cultural and philosophical approaches within Caribbean studies The Law Journal Reports Henry D.
