Fascination with quotidian experience in modern art literature and philosophy promotes ecstatic forms of reflection on the very structure of the everyday world Gosetti Ferenczi examines the ways in which modern art and literature enable a study of how we experience quotidian life She shows that modernism while exhibiting many strands of development can be understood by investigating how its attentions to perception and expectation to the common quality of things or to childhood play give way to experiences of ecstasy the stepping outside of the ordinary familiarity of the world While phenomenology grounds this study through Husserl Heidegger Merleau Ponty and Bachelard what makes this book more than a treatise on phenomenological aesthetics is the way in which modernity itself is examined in its relation to the quotidian Through the works of artists and writers such as Benjamin Czanne Frost Klee Newman Pollock Ponge Proust Rilke Robbe Grillet Rothko Sartre and Twombly the world of quotidian life can be seen to harbor a latent ecstasy The breakdown of the quotidian through and after modernism then becomes an urgent question for understanding art and literature in its capacity to further human experience and it points to the limits of phenomenological explications of the everyday On Inflection Patrick O.
