Samuel Eliot Morison Historical World:

Sailor Historian Samuel Eliot Morison, 1989 Thirty four selections that best represent Morison's scope, depth and vigor as a writer and explorer. Samuel Morison, a Harvard professor for 25 years, was recipient of the Pulitzer Prize and the Bancroft Award. The Oxford History of the American People Samuel Eliot Morison, 1972 Operations in North African Waters, October 1942-June 1943 Samuel Eliot Morison, 2001 Volume II Operations in North African Waters October 1942-June 1943 covers naval operations on the Atlantic coast of North Africa and in the Mediterranean. Morison focuses especially on Operation Torch, the all American effort to capture bases in French Morocco thereby opening up a second front to relieve the Russians.

Samuel Eliot Morison's Historical World Gregory M. Pfitzer, 1991 At a time when his colleagues prided themselves on their ability to write the dullest prose on narrowest topics Morison 1887-1976 set out to write history that would appeal to the general public without loss of intellectual rigor and succeeded. Making History Gregory M. Pfitzer, 1987 History of United States Naval Operations in World War II. Samuel Eliot Morison, 2001 This book deals with the defense of our own shores and ships. It describes the gradual emergence of the Navy from the neutrality patrol and Western Hemisphere defense through the full fledged war with Germany and Italy. The Two Ocean War Samuel Eliot Morison, 1963 This book has been written in the hope of bringing the exploits of the United States Navy in World War II to the attention of new readers. I have not attempted a uniform condensation of the fifteen previous volumes I have written but rather to select the most important battles and campaigns. The Maritime History of Massachusetts 1783-1860 Samuel Eliot Morison, 2008-01-17 The Harvard educated historian relates the history of seafaring Massachusetts during the period when the clipper ship dominated the seas. In his preface Morison states that this is no catalogue of ships or a naval chronicle but a story of maritime enterprise and of the shipping, seaborne commerce, whaling and fishing belonging to one American Commonwealth. Three Centuries of Harvard, 1636-1936 Samuel Eliot Morison, 1986-10-15 Samuel Eliot Morison sat down to tell the whole story of Harvard informally and briefly with the same genial humor and ability to see the human implications of past events that characterize his larger multi volume series on Harvard.

History of United States Naval Operations in World War II: Operations in North African waters, October 1942-June 1943 Samuel Eliot Morison, 1947 Each of these 15 volumes covers a period and campaigns in the Pacific, Atlantic and North African waters during World War II. It was Morison's aim to show what the U.S. Navy accomplished in the greatest of all wars and how it was done. The story in the main is one of fighting that is what the Navy is for and what its entire effort was directed toward. But the author included enough space to strategic discussions, planning, organization and logistics to explain the end product, the naval operations. And when other armed services of the United States and her allies participated he brought them in too although not in so great detail. Filled with many maps, a number of them larger fold outs and black and white photos of the ships, personnel and operations.
