After combing libraries and archives grilling county historians trekking to flood sites and collecting scores of graphic photographs Jonathan Burnett chose twenty eight floods from around the state to create this narrative of a century of disastrous events. Beginning with the famous Austin dam break of 1900 and ending with the historic 2002 flooding in the Hill Country Burnett chronicles the causes and courses of these catastrophic floods as well as their costs in material damage and human lives. Dramatic photographs of each event enhance the harrowing accounts of danger spawned by nature on a rampage. Together the stories and the pictures give readers a vivid and lasting image of the power and unpredictability of flash floods in Texas. A New Latin Dictionary Charlton Thomas Lewis, Charles Short, 1907 Forgotten Heroes William Wilbanks, 1998 The stories of 117 officers from the years 1840 through 1925 who were killed in the line of duty. New York Magazine, 1984-09-24 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country.
