L. Levy,2009-10 San Antonio 1972 was either the strongest chess tournament ever played in the history of the United States or if not the very strongest then second only to New York 1924 What makes this book especially great is not merely was it a great tournament with great players but that the players annotated some of their own games In this day and age there are millions of games in the chess databases but annotated games are increasingly hard to find This book has games annotated by Karpov Larsen Hort Suttles Mecking Donald Byrne Gligoric Keres Saidy Portisch Kaplan Evans and Smith Two games were annotated by both Larsen and Petrosian In addition many of the games were annotated by International Master David Levy This book was originally published in Descriptive Chess Notation Since that time Descriptive has become almost obsolete For that reason all 120 games in this book have been converted into modern Algebraic Notation and are included in an appendix in the back of the book The games in the back are grouped and sorted alphabetically according to the player of the white pieces Thus all games in which Browne played White are first followed by the games by Byrne Campos Lopez Evans Gligoric Hort Kaplan Karpov Keres Larsen Mecking Petrosian Portisch Saidy and Smith in that order Church's Fried Chicken, Inc. San Antonio 72 Bent Larsen,D. N. L. Levy,1973 Groningen 1946 International Chess Tournament Max Euwe,2020-07-13 Groningen 1946 was the first major chess tournament after the conclusion of World War II It was a 20 player round robin Most of the strongest players of the world were present Many of the games were exciting and are well annotated by Euwe They demonstrate that even the strongest grandmasters can make obvious blunders All of the traditional world champions had died during or in the immediate aftermath of the war Emanuel Lasker died January 11 1941 at age 72 Capablanca died 8 March 1942 at age 53 in the same hospital room as Lasker had died Alekhine died March 24 1946 at age 53 This meant FIDE could take control of the World Championship as there was nobody left alive who could claim the world championship as a personal possession Groningen 1946 was much stronger than London A and B mainly because the top players were allowed out of the Soviet Union for the first time Botvinnik Smyslov Flohr Boleslavsky and Kotov represented the Soviet Union and Najdorf came from Argentina his new country to play It had been hoped that Fine and Reshevsky would come from the USA to play but they did not arrive An indication of the relative strengths was Martin Christoffel champion of Switzerland who finished Second in London B but finished last in Groningen Another indicator was Botvinnik and Euwe had been in a race for first place However when Kotov defeated Botvinnik that seemed to end his chances for first place until Euwe blundered and lost to Najdorf That ended for the time being the allegation that the Soviet players would throw games to each other to secure first place This was the last tournament in which Euwe got a good result In the World Championship Tournament held in 1948 Euwe scored one win six draws and 13 losses for 4 16 This poor result showed that Euwe could no longer compete credibly for the World Championship
