An Architectural Guidebook to Los Angeles Robert Winter,2009-09 Known as the bible to Los Angeles architecture scholars and enthusiasts Robert Winter and David Gebhard's groundbreaking guide to architecture in the greater Los Angeles area is updated and revised once again From Art Deco to Beaux Arts Spanish Colonial to Mission Revival Winter discusses an impressive variety of architectural styles in this popular guide that he co authored with the late David Gebhard New buildings and sites have been added along with all new photography Considered the most thorough L A architecture guide ever written this new edition features the best of the past and present from Charles and Henry Greene's Gamble House to Frank Gehry's Disney Philharmonic Hall This was and is again a must have guide to a diverse and architecturally rich area Robert Winter is a recognized architectural historian who lives in Los Angeles and has led architectural tours through the Los Angeles area since 1965 He is a professor at Occidental College in Los Angeles Architecture of Great Expositions

1937-1959 Rika Devos,Alexander Ortenberg,2016-03-09 This book investigates architecture as a form of diplomacy in the context of the Second World War at six major European international and national expositions that took place between 1937 and 1959 The volume gives a fascinating account of architecture assuming the role of the carrier of war related messages

some of them camouflaged while others quite frank The famous standoffs between the Stalinist Russia and the Nazi Germany in Paris 1937 or the juxtaposition of the USSR and USA pavilions in Brussels 1958 are examples of very explicit shows of force The book also discusses some less known and more subtle messages revealed through an examination of several additional pavilions in both Paris and Brussels of a series of expositions in Moscow of the Universal Exhibition in Rome that was planned to open in 1942 and of London s South Bank Exposition of 1951 all of them related in one way or another to either an anticipation of the global war or to its horrific aftermaths A brief discussion of three pre World War II American expositions that are reviewed in the Epilogue supports this point It indicates a significant difference in the attitude of American exposition commissioners who were less attuned to the looming war than their European counterparts The book provides a novel assessment of modern architecture s involvement with national representation Whether in the service of Fascist Italy or of Imperial Japan of Republican Spain or of the post war Franquista regime of the French Popular Front or of socialist Yugoslavia of the arising FRG or of capitalist USA of Stalinist Russia or of post colonial Britain exposition architecture during the period in question was driven by a deep faith in its ability to represent ideology The book argues that this widespread confidence in architecture s ability to act as a propaganda tool was one of the reasons why Modernist architecture lent itself to the service of such different masters
