Afoot and Afield: Inland Empire Money David, Money Jennifer, 2010-03-12 The Inland Empire, the area east of Los Angeles and located primarily in San Bernardino and Riverside counties, is known as Southern California's big backyard. And with its mountain foothill valley and desert recreational opportunities, it's a hiker's paradise. Afoot and Afield: Inland Empire describes nearly 200 noteworthy hikes ranging from easy to very strenuous in this first comprehensive hiking guide to the length and breadth of Inland Empire. These hikes explore Southern California's three tallest mountains, the stark beauty of the high desert including Joshua Tree National Park and Mojave National Preserve, as well as trails that wind through urban and regional parks. Each hike is shown on custom-created maps that also include GPS waypoints; the maps alone are worth the price of the book. Map San Bernardino Mountains Wilderness Press, 2016-05-10 This completely updated full-color recreation map covers the San Bernardino, Santa Rosa, and San Jacinto mountains, including Lake Arrowhead, Big Bear Lake, San Gorgonio Wilderness, and San Jacinto State Park. The map is a suggested companion to John Robinson's classic guide, San Bernardino Mountain Trails. Hiking the Pacific Crest Trail: Southern California Shawnté Salabert, 2017-10-20 The Pacific Crest National Scenic Trail (PCT) traces a 2,650-mile route from the California-Mexico border north to the border of Washington and Canada. While many hikers attempt a thru-hike every year, beginning in Campo, California, and connecting their footsteps all the way to Manning Park, B.C., even more people enjoy section hiking, tackling the trail in bits and pieces. This guidebook serves as a road map to section hiking the Southern California portion of the PCT, beginning at its southern terminus in Campo and ending 942.5 miles north at Tuolumne Meadows in Yosemite National Park. From the magical cactus gardens of the Mojave Desert to the snowy peaks of the High Sierra, this book covers one of the most biologically and geologically diverse portions of the PCT. Author Shawnté Salabert serves as your personal trail guide along the way, offering informative route descriptions, interesting sidebars, and colorful stories that will deepen your experience on this iconic trail, whether you're headed out for a weekend, a week, or a month. Each volume of this new series focuses on section-by-section pieces of the PCT and includes the following features: Inspirational full-color guides with over 150 color photographs in each trail section; 4 to 10 night trips; Detailed camp-to-camp route descriptions; Easy-to-understand route maps and elevation profiles; Details on specific campsites and most reliable water sources; Road access to and from various trail sections; Info on permits, hazards, restrictions, and more; Alternate routes and connecting trails; Clear references to the PCT's established system of section letters designating trail segments from

Mexico to Canada so you can easily cross reference the guides with other PCT resources Key wilderness sights along the way
