San Juan Ciudad Sonada:

San Juan, ciudad soñada Edgardo Rodríguez Juliá, 2005 Edgardo Rodriguez Julia is an expert and lyrical guide to the history inhabitants and culture of his native city of San Juan recalling scenes from his childhood while chronicling the social and physical changes in the city Publisher's description      San Juan Edgardo Rodríguez Juliá, 2007-07-16 San Juan Memoir of a City conducts readers through Puerto Rico's capital guided by one of its most graceful and reflective writers Edgardo Rodríguez Juliá No mere sightseeing tour this is culture through immersion a circuit of San Juan's historical and intellectual vistas as well as its architecture In the allusive cityscape he recreates Rodríguez Juliá invokes the ghosts of his childhood of San Juan's elder literati and of characters from his own novels On the most tangible level the city is a place of cabarets and cockfighting clubs flâneurs and beach bums smoke-filled bars and honking automobiles Poised between a colonial past and a commercial future the San Juan he portrays feels at times perilously close to the pitfalls of modernization Tenement houses and fading mansions yield to strip malls and Tastee Freezes asphalt hems in jacarandas and palm trees In Puerto Rico he muses life is not simply cruel it is also busy erasing our tracks Through this book available here in English for the first time Rodríguez Juliá resists that erasure thoughtfully etching a palimpsest that preserves images of the city where he grew up and rejoicing in the one where he still lives Best Books for Regional General Audiences selected by the American Association of School Librarians and the Public Library Association      Dream Nation María Acosta Cruz, 2014-03-19 Over the past fifty years Puerto Rican voters have roundly rejected any calls for national independence Yet the rhetoric and iconography of independence have been defining features of Puerto Rican literature and culture In the provocative new book Dream Nation María Acosta Cruz investigates the roots and effects of this profound disconnect between cultural fantasy and political reality Bringing together texts from Puerto Rican literature history and popular culture Dream Nation shows how imaginings of national independence have served many competing purposes They have given authority to the island's literary and artistic establishment but have also been a badge of countercultural cool These ideas have been fueled both by nostalgia for an imagined past and by yearning for a better future They have fostered local communities on the island and still helped define Puerto Rican identity within U.S. Latino culture In clear accessible prose Acosta Cruz takes us on a journey from the 1898 annexation of Puerto Rico to the elections of 2012 stopping at many cultural touchstones along the way from the canonical literature of the Generación del 30 to the rap music of Tego Calderón Dream Nation thus serves both as a testament to how stories symbols and heroes of independence have inspired the Puerto Rican imagination and as an urgent warning about how this culture has become detached from the everyday concerns of the island's people A volume in the American Literature Initiatives series      The Palgrave Handbook of Literature and the City Jeremy Tambling, 2017-02-17 This book is about the impact of literature upon cities world-wide and cities upon literature It examines why the city matters so much to contemporary critical theory and why it has inspired so many forms of writing which have attempted to deal with its challenges to think about it and to represent it Gathering together 40 contributors who look at different modes of writing and film making in throughout the world this handbook asks how the modern city has engendered so much theoretical consideration and looks at cities and their literature from China to Peru from New York to Paris from London to Kinshasa It looks at some of the ways in which modern cities whether capitals shanty towns industrial or rust belt have forced themselves on people s ways of thinking and writing

City Fictions Amanda Holmes, 2007

Using concepts from urban and cultural studies City Fictions examines the representation of the city in the works of five important late twentieth century Spanish American authors Octavio Paz Julio Cortazar Christina Peri Rossi Diamela Eltit and Carlos Monsavaiz While each of these authors is influenced at least partially by a specific Spanish American city be it Mexico City Buenos Aires Montevideo or Santiago the element that brings them together is the way in which the city is fictionalized in their work they all equate both language and the body with urban space In these metaphors language breaks down and the body disintegrates creating a disturbing picture of violent decline The poetry of Paz associates the urban surroundings with dissolving sentences and desensitized fingertips for Cortazar characters walking through cities are seen as both creating and unraveling written texts

Golpes bajos / Low Blows Alicia Borinsky, 2007-04-04 In these short bilingual stories set in Buenos Aires with each piece appearing in Spanish and English on facing pages Alicia Borinsky provides unique glimpses into the lives of the city's inhabitants its businessmen and tango dancers politicians and torturers triumphant divas and discarded children a gallery of characters from a broad spectrum of contemporary Argentine society She portrays a world of violence corruption love and betrayal The brevity of the pieces suggests a breathlessness and ephemeral quality the fast paced rhythm of the present Yet within these small moments flicker the larger forces that shape ordinary lives Civil wars are fought shady deals are made unwanted children are born And in Borinsky's ironic but life affirming prose human foibles are exposed Best Books for General Audiences selected by the Public Library Association

The Natural World in Latin American Literatures Adrian Taylor Kane, 2014-01-10 From the Popol Vuh to postmodernism imagery of the natural world has played an important role in Latin American literature In contrast to the rise of ecocritical scholarship in Anglophone literary studies Latin American literary ecocriticism has been slower to take root This volume of eleven essays seeks to advance the ecocritical conversation among Latin Americanists furthering insight into the relationship between humans and their environments The essays address regions as diverse as Patagonia and the Chihuahua Desert

The Flight of the Condor Jennifer Gabrielle Edwards, 2007-09-20 After decades of violence of all kinds what remains are the stories History is revised and debated its protagonists bear witness its writers ensure that all the suffering has not been in vain These stories from Colombia contain pain and love and sometimes even humor allowing us to see an utterly vibrant and pulsating country amidst so much death and loss We encounter townspeople overcome by fear a man begging unsuccessfully for his life an execution delayed for Christmas the sounds and smells of burning coffee plantations and other glimpses of daily life This anthology reflects some of Colombia's finest literary talent and most of these stories appear here for the first time in English translation They reveal the contradictions and complexities of the human condition yet they also offer hope for the future In their bold revelations of the depths of despair these writers provide gripping portrayals of humanity's tenacious resistance to those very depths Best Books for Regional General Audiences selected by the American Association of School Librarians and Outstanding Book selected by the Public Library Association

Into the Mainstream Jorge Febles, 2009-03-26 Into the Mainstream Essays on Spanish American and Latino Literature and Culture is a direct outgrowth of Jorge Febles's involvement with the annual conference of the American Culture Association and the Popular Culture Association In that sense the compilation expands on a project initiated in 1993 by Helen Ryan Ransom with her book Imagination Emblems and Expressions Essays on Latin American Caribbean and Continental Culture and Identity Bowling Green Ohio Bowling Green State University Popular Press 1993 David William Foster who penned a lengthy preface to that collection justified its intent by underscoring The very fact that our approach to culture is dominated by categories based on high academic institutionalized phenomena poses from the very outset the question of how to deal with all those other cultural manifestations that do not comfortably assimilate to the accepted canon Ryan Ransom 3 The past fourteen years however have witnessed a radical transformation of that so called canon due to the widespread acceptance of ideas espoused by cultural theorists like Garc a Canclini Homi Bhabha Said Stuart Hall Benhabib Bourdieu and countless others Therefore the ambivalence regarding what constitutes culture identified by Foster is inoperative nowadays to a substantial degree In fact a fundamental component of the postmodern outlook resides in the ability to blend comfortably the high and the low the elitist and the popular realms of production in a multiplicity of textual artifacts creative as well as critical in nature Hence the essays that conform Into the Mainstream do not question barriers anymore nor do they expound on the need to assign a discursive intellectual space to matters pertaining to popular culture Thus this collection espouses an inclusive approach in which a variety of analytical approaches coalesce to reflect on an equally kaleidoscopic textuality Pursuant to its comprehensive nature Into the Mainstream airs established as well as developing critical voices so as to reflect both ideological continuity and evolving viewpoints Scholars who have compiled strong academic records like Hortensia Morell Raquel Rivas Rojas Elsa Gilmore David Petreman and Benjam n Torres Caballero share a venue with younger critics like Corey Shouse Tourino Roberto Vela C rdova Stacy Hoult Eduardo del R o Bruce Campbell Laura Redruello Dinora Cardoso and April Marshall as well as with two graduate students about to complete their academic preparation Nuria Ib ez Quintana and Mar a Teresa Vera Rojas The result is an eclectic compilation meant to elicit discussion on the basis of its variety Into the Mainstream s primordial objective is to place these provocative essays which are expanded versions of papers presented during the annual gathering of the American Culture Association and the Popular Culture Association in the period 2002 2005 along with the numerous subjects they treat in the academic mainstream where they rightfully belong

The Mexico City Reader Ruben Gallo, 2009-09-29 Mexico City is one of Latin America s cultural capitals and one of the most vibrant urban spaces in the world The Mexico City Reader is an anthology of Crónicas short hybrid texts that are part literary essay part urban reportage about life in the capital This is not the City of

Palaces of yesteryear but the vibrant chaotic anarchic urban space of the 1980s and 1990s the city of garbage mafias necrophiliac artists and kitschy millionaires Like the visitor wandering through the city streets the reader will be constantly surprised by the visions encountered in this mosaic of writings a textual space brimming with life and crowded with flirts flirtatious students Indian dancers food vendors fortune tellers political activists and peasant protesters The essays included in this anthology were written by a panoply of writers from well known authors like Carlos Monsivís and Jorge Ibagón to younger figures like Fabrizio Mejía Madrid and Juieta García González all of whom are experienced practitioners of the city The texts collected in this anthology are among the most striking examples of this concomitant theory and practice of Mexico City that most delirious of megalopolises An exciting literary journey Carolyn Malloy Multicultural Review The Bonjour Gene J. Pa(i)sajes urbanos Varios Autores, 2018-10-15 Los textos reunidos en Pa(i)sajes urbanos reflexionan sobre la imbricación paisaje-pasaje partiendo de la centralidad de la ciudad como espacio capitalizador de la vida social en América Latina y el Caribe y llaman la atención sobre un proceso que en última instancia resulta sumamente heterotemporal y asimétrico tanto en términos regionales como nacionales. La convergencia y la superposición de modelos de desarrollo urbano y social diversos precoloniales, coloniales, modernos, posmodernos y poscoloniales, las formas de inscripción de una memoria y un porvenir, las relaciones más o menos profundas con los esquemas y paradigmas socioestéticos, ex fono, la mayor o menor intensidad de los flujos migratorios internos y externos, los grados y formas diversos de mestizaje e hibridez, estos son algunos de los focos de los que se apropian estos ensayos generando ellos mismos paisajes y pasajes de las ciudades latinoamericanas, entrecruzamientos que hacen del orden de los ensayos un juego de infinitas posibilidades.
