San Jose Reflections:

San Jose Reflections Edith Brockway, 1977-01-01      Reflections of the Past, 1996      Reflections of the Past Terry Christensen, Ellen Garboske, Charlene Duval, Phil Grasser, Mary J. Ignoffo, 1996      Merchant Vessels of the United States, 1989      Reflection Collection Donna Arlene Wudyka, 2020-05-18 This is a story of a recovering alcoholic who wants to share her experiences with you At times what is written in this book is deadly serious and at the same time funny You ll laugh out loud and you might shed a tear or two If you are an alcoholic you will recognize yourself in these pages You will get the support and education you need to stop drinking and maintain a sober lifestyle If you know or suspect someone you love is an alcoholic this book will be valuable to you as well The author gives you information that helped her get sober and stay sober for over 37 years The author began drinking at the tender age of 9 She had one drink and realized she liked the taste of alcohol Even at that young age she managed to get her hands on booze During her teen years the drinking became worse She lost a 4 year scholarship when she decided drinking was more important than not drinking when she played on the high school baseball team The drinking only got worse after that until she hit her rock bottom moment and resolved to begin Sobriety      Reflections of a Whale-watcher Michelle A. Gilders, 1995 A biologist describes her voyages and experiences through the Sea of Cortez and the Pacific Ocean in search of whales      Phantom Reflections Mike McCarthy, 2008-12-23 Hair raising descriptions of aerial combat as seen from the cockpit of a fighter jet Thoughtful reflections on what it meant to fight in Vietnam As the Vietnam War raged thousands of miles away Mike McCarthy completed his flight training in the United States eager to get into the war and afraid it would end before he could participate He needn t have worried By 1967 he was flying his F 4 Phantom II fighter with the U S Air Force s 433rd Tactical Fighter Squadron also known as Satan s Angels Before his tour ended McCarthy completed 124 missions during the intense air war over North Vietnam and Laos and earned the Distinguished Flying Cross His memoir recreates the horror and exhilaration of air combat      Further Reflections on the Journey to the Omega Point Tom Reidy, Further Reflections on the Journey to the Omega Point is a sequel to my previous book Reflections on the Journey to the Omega Point It is a further collection of my reflections on various subjects based on insights I have gained over 71 years of living They follow no particular pattern or sequence and at times may be repetitious but some things are worth repeating since they contain valuable lessons and wisdom that come to all of us over a lifetime of living This book is written from a Roman Catholic viewpoint but it has something for people of all Faiths One disclaimer These are strictly my observations and opinions right or wrong these are my personal conclusions on the topics discussed      Reflection of Justice J. Callahan, 2004-12 United States Attorney Michelle Prescott was raped and murdered in her hotel room After a lengthy investigation the FBI identified their suspect through DNA evidence recovered at the crime scene that also linked him to a series of similar crimes David Barnes was arrested and is facing trial for capital murder While preparing for trial Defense Investigator Clint Wells finds that his client abandoned at birth may have a twin brother with a lengthy history of violent crimes Are they brothers and if so which brother is the killer are just two of the questions Clint must answer in an investigation that takes him halfway across the continent and into the jungles of Central America in search of justice      "Pimp: Reflection of My Life " Noble Dee,2013-02-01 In our society today although used out their original contexts the words Pimp and Pimpin have been embraced whole heartedly by todays hip hop generation and frequently used in slang to describe a motif of a newly set standard of flamboyant living However in his debut release Donald Ray Lavan AKA Noble Dee provides the true definition of both words separating the real and the facts from the faade and the fiction of todays controversial terminology Best of all he describes in very minute details what the Game Pimpin was like for him in his era the 1960s to Y2K The New Millienium In this tell all non fiction Noble Dee illustrates in a very blaxploitation mannerhis personal existence in the game Not only does he exploit his successes he also exposes the very grim details of the life both in tones whereas you the reader bask in his glory and share his pains the pain of possibly regret in the life that he cherished for almost four calendar decades Wholeheartedly Noble Dee expresses how his own glorification of the game indirectly allured his first born daughter into a position to be manipulated and exploited by pimps just as he had manipulated and exploited so many daughters throughout his 35 years plus career Not since Robert Beck revealed to the masses the vivid street Realities of a Pimps Life in his book Pimp The Story of My Life By Iceberg Slim has the entrenching truth behind the lifestyle termed pimpin been exposed to this degree Thus the primary title Pimp Reflections of My Life www JumpInterstateN biz      Bruce Nauman Constance Lewallen,Dore Bowen,2019-01-08 The first book devoted solely to Bruce Nauman s corridors and other architectural installations Bruce Nauman Spatial Encounters deftly explores the significance of these works in the development of his singular art practice examining them in the context of the period and in relation to other artists like Dan Graham Robert Morris Paul Kos and James Turrell Designed for viewer participation Bruce Nauman s architectural installations often confound expectations and induce physical and psychological unease The essays in this book consider these works which begin in 1969 and continue into the 1970s and beyond in terms of the physical perceptual and psychological pressures they exert on the participant Three interlocking perspectives on the topic Constance M Lewallen s historical overview Dore Bowen s case study of Nauman s 1970 Corridor Installation with Mirror San Jose Installation Double Wedge Corridor with Mirror and a supplementary essay by Ted Mann on Nauman s drawings provide a comprehensive and in depth approach The book coincides with the major retrospective exhibition Bruce Nauman Disappearing Acts at the Schaulager Museum Basel Switzerland March 17 August 26 2018 and the Museum of Modern Art and MoMA PS1 New York October 21 2018 March 17 2019      The Hidden Lamp Florence Caplow,Susan Moon,2013-11-05 The Hidden Lamp is a collection of one hundred koans and stories of Buddhist women from the time of the Buddha to the present day This revolutionary book brings together many teaching stories that were hidden for centuries unknown until this volume These stories are extraordinary expressions of freedom and fearlessness relevant for men and women of any time or place In these pages we meet nuns laywomen practicing with their families famous teachers honored by emperors and old women selling tea on the side of the road Each story is accompanied by a reflection by a contemporary woman teacher personal responses that help bring the old stories alive for readers today and concluded by a final meditation for the reader a question from the editors meant to spark further rumination and inquiry These are the voices of the women ancestors of every contemporary Buddhist

Fair Reflection of Society in Judicial Systems - A Comparative Study Sophie Turenne,2015-07-20 This book addresses one central question if justice is to be done in the name of the community how far do the decision makers need to reflect the community either in their profile or in the opinions they espouse Each contributor provides an answer on the basis of a careful analysis of the rules assumptions and practices relating to their own national judicial system and legal culture Written by national experts the essays illustrate a variety of institutional designs towards a better reflection of the community The involvement of lay people is often most visible in judicial appointments at senior court level with political representatives sometimes appointing judges They consider the lay involvement in the judicial system more widely from the role of juries to the role of specialist lay judges and lay assessors in lower courts and tribunals This lay input into judicial appointments is explored in light of the principle of judicial independence The contributors also critically discuss the extent to which judicial action is legitimised by any democratic pedigree of the judges or their decisions The book thus offers a range of perspectives all shaped by distinctive constitutional and legal cultures on the thorny relationship between the principle of judicial independence and the idea of democratic accountability of the judiciary

Decolonizing Theology in Revolution Ary Fernández-Albán,2018-11-20 Drawing on decolonial perspective this book provides a critical retrieval of Sergio Arce s theological thought and proposes it as a source of inspiration to continue renewing liberation theologies in Cuba and in Latin America In light of current social contexts in Cuba and abroad this volume examines the relevance of Arce s theological legacy identifying significant contributions and also key limitations It presents a panoramic view of the historical contexts previous to Arce s articulation of his theology and also reconstructs the various stages of the development of his theology by reviewing his major writings from the early 1960s to the late 1990s Bringing Arce into a conversation with other recognized Latin American liberation theologians this book delivers a reconstruction of his major theological insights related to discourses and practices of liberation highlighting important similarities and differences between their approaches

Global Border Crossings Kathryn L. Norsworthy,Ellyn Kaschak,2013-09-13 This book brings together a group of feminist activists psychologists and peace workers from countries on every continent who describe how they apply global transnational feminism in their activist peace and justice projects in the cultures and countries in which they live and work The contributors who are from different locations in the global village reflect on their engagement in Global South North border crossings and partnerships taking into consideration such variables as the gender economic class ethnic racial political and imperializing colonizing tensions inherent in the work Authors discuss the feminist principles that guide their work describe a project or set of projects illustrating how they apply feminist theory and practice and reflect on the complex tensions and conundrums inherent in negotiating cross national feminist partnerships in research practice and activism This book was originally published as a special issue of Women Therapy Meta-Level Architectures and Reflection Pierre Cointe, 2003-06-29 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the Second International Conference on Meta Level Architectures and Reflection Reflection 99 held in St Malo France in July 1999 The 13 revised full papers presented were carefully selected from 44 submissions Also included are six short papers and the abstracts of three invited talks The papers are organized in sections on programming languages meta object protocols middleware multi media work in progress applications and meta programming The volume covers all current issues arising in the design and analysis of reflective systems and demonstrates their practical applications The Not-So-Still Life Susan Landauer, William H. Gerds, Patricia Trenton, 2003-11-10 Presenting interpreting and celebrating the world renowned and the lesser known California artists who have uniquely defined and redefined the still life this volume offers an exploration of the sensual pleasures the aesthetic challenges and the intellectual and perceptual associations of a century of art through the prism of a single genre BOOK JACKET Installation art as experience of self, in space and time Christine Vial Kayser, Sylvie Coëllier, 2021-09-07 Installation art has modified our relationship to art for over fifty years by soliciting the whole body demonstrating its sensitivity to space surroundings and the living beings with which it is constantly interacting This book analyses this modification of perception through phenomenological approaches convoking Husserl Heidegger Merleau Ponty as well as Levinas Depraz and the neuroscientist Varela This theoretical framework is implicit in the various case studies which revisit works that have become classic or emblematic by Carl Andre Bruce Nauman Dan Graham inaugural experiments that remain available only through photographic and written archives by Jean Michel Sanejouand Philippe Parreno as well as the influence of the mode in the realm of music The book also examines the transference of this Western form to Asia revealing how it resonates with ancient Asian representations and practices often associated with the spiritual The distinct chapters underpin the role of space as a metaframe the common ground of the various installations While the nature and agency of space varies from social historical space leisurely or political space inner psychological space to shared empty space these installations reveal the chiasm between the individual body and the outside space The chapters bear testimony of the process in which the physical journey of the spectator's body within a material at times invisible space and its structural components takes place in time as a succession of micro experiences Installation art as experience of self in space and time adds to the existing literature of art history a level of theoretical experiential and transcultural analysis that will make this inquiry relevant to both university students and independent researchers in the academic fields of philosophy psychology aesthetics art theory and history religious and Asian studies Digging for Gold Barrett Williams, ChatGPT, 2024-12-15 Digging for Gold The Untold Journey of Gold Mining's Evolution and Safety Uncover the riveting history and compelling present of one of
