San Juan De La Cruz Mysticism Sartre:

San Juan de la Cruz Robert Richmond Ellis,1992 In this iconoclastic book Ellis submits the life and work of San Juan de la Cruz to the scrutiny of Sartrean analysis In so doing he clarifies the existential affinities that San Juan de la Cruz shares with other Golden Age Spanish writers as well as with the most significant exponents of western apophatism The study asserts that apophatic mysticism in contrast to the cataphatic theology of the scholastics expresses in religious terms many of the fundamental intuitions of modern secular existentialism In fact San Juan de la Cruz and Sartre both raise similar ontological questions Notwithstanding they make radically different choices regarding the existence of God The

Establishing a link between phenomenology and hermeneutics as seen by philosophers notably Heidegger and Husserl and as applied by students of religion notably Eliade and van der Leeuw is the pioneering aim of this book No existing book ties together the cross disciplinary strands in a way that is useful for religious studies A phenomenological and therefore hermeneutical approach to religion prides itself on being aware of its own presuppositions and those of others that are brought to bear on data to be interpreted Thus it seeks to gain an access to the religious worlds of other peoples in as pure a form as possible Phenomenological hermeneutics differs from the traditional comparative study of religion in an important way the new method attempts an empathic understanding of religious experiences before making any comparisons or drawing any inferences Part I shows how the phenomenological approach must arise from a crisis of doubt within the prevailing tradition It goes on to compare this approach to the mystics understanding of the scope and limitations of rational consciousness contrasting it with the nominalists dichotomy between faith and reason Part II starts with Eliade s creative hermeneutics which holds that an object or an act becomes real only insofar as it imitates or repeats an archetype particularly the archetype of the sacred It goes on to develop Cassirer s point that myth is a particular way of seeing Part III starts by showing how art like religion is an imitation of an archetype It goes on to apply hermeneutical phenomenology to the interpretation of ritual Ritual gesture Chapter 6 argues thematizes the world establishing a mystical symbolic relationship between body and world the seen and the unseen Part III continues with a critique of the writings of Carlos Castaneda arguing that these contain the symbolic elements of both archaic shamanism and classical mysticism The final chapter treats the three tiered cosmos that is universal in folklore the tier of family home land artifacts the tier of clan tribe nation and the tier of weather seasons natural forces Each tier has its loric power and these powers are united by shamans and mystics in one sacred kingdom of power
