Sana An Autobiography Of Michael Somare:

Sana Michael Somare,1980 Sana Michael Thomas Somare,1975 Sana ,1975 Sana Michael Thomas Somare,2010 Democracy and Custom in Sāmoa Asofou So'o,2008 Subject Samoa became an independent state on 1 January 1962 In moving toward independence Samoans made it clear that they wanted a political structure that reflected custom and tradition as well as democracy The post independence period demonstrated the practical difficulty of reconciling the two The author examined the co existence of the two systems of governance He concludes that while there has been significant progress towards democracy with positive and negative impacts for indigenous institutions values and practices it has been restricted by the persistence of customary ideals The mixing of tradition and democracy is seen as a phase in the process of continuous social and political change in which practices and values that no longer fit current circumstances are discarded for more relevant and appropriate ones The Art of Clothing: A Pacific Experience Susan Kuchler,Graeme Were,2014-05-22 The Art of Clothing A Pacific Experience is a collection of richly textured and tremendously engaging empirical studies of cloth and clothing in colonial and post colonial Pacific contexts By challenging readers to reconsider the very nature of the materiality of clothing the editors productively situate this volume at the intersection of a number of ongoing interdisciplinary projects that are coalescing around an interest in cloth and clothing The book as a whole speaks lucidly to issues of current concern in a wide range of academic fields including cultural studies material culture Pacific history art history history of religions and museum studies Bob Hawke Blanche d'Alpuget,2019-11-18 To mark Bob Hawke s extraordinary life and legacy this master work brings together the story of the man in full in a definitive hardback commemorative biography Bob Hawke began life as a good Christian boy from a teetotal family became a wild drinking womanising student a Rhodes Scholar a champion of workers a folk hero recognised throughout the country a dynamic politician who was elected four times as Australia s Prime Minister and transformed his country He was our longest serving Labor Prime Minister and considered by many our greatest By the early 1980s Australia was on the road to becoming the poor white trash of Asia Hawke as prime minister with Paul Keating as treasurer changed all that Australia became a forward looking and humane country whose voice commanded respect on the international stage Hawke was an environmentalist before it was fashionable he loathed racism helped end apartheid in South Africa sent ministers to end the war in Cambodia foresaw that China would become a great world power and established the first Chinese investment in an iron ore mine in Australia His journey from the manse of a small South Australian country town to the palaces of Europe Asia and the United States is the odyssey of a leader it is hard to imagine we will ever see the like of again a man of towering passions and commitment to causes and an unshakeable love of humanity Hawke Blanche d'Alpuget,2010-10-01 BESTSELLING BIOGRAPHY NOW BACK IN PRINTBlanche d Alpuget s classic 1982 biography of Robert J Hawke remains one of the finest examples of political biography in Australian literature Robert James Lee Hawke is one of the great men of Australian public life and his story makes compelling reading Blanche d'Alpuget's sensitivity and psychological insight into Hawke's early years reveal how the son of devout Christian parents was reared to public duty and to the ambition of political leadership Known throughout his life as a tireless campaigner for workers rights and a man of wild personal habits Hawke was a Rhodes Scholar educated in three universities before rejecting an academic career to commit himself to the trade union movement As President of the ACTU from 1970 to 1980 he was a master negotiator and peacemaker in industrial life He agitated for social and economic reforms becoming a folk hero and the most popular Australian of his time While he was President of the Australian Labor Party he sought to heal its wounds after the sacking of the Whitlam government as the leader of Australia's unions he held back potentially violent industrial action over this most divisive issue To unionists he was a giant killer to some employers a crypto Communist bent upon their destruction Hawke The Early Years is an intimate portrait of a man of extraordinary achievements who struggles to overcome his drinking and philandering in order to rise to the highest office in Australia

Being Political Jack Corbett, 2015-01-31 Politicians everywhere tend to attract cynicism and inspire disillusionment They are supposed to epitomize the promise of democratic government and yet invariably find themselves cast as the enemy of every virtue that system seeks to uphold In the Pacific politician has become a byword for corruption graft and misconduct This was not always the case the independence generation is still remembered as strong leaders but today's leaders are commonly associated with malaise and despair Once heroes of self-determination politicians are now the targets of donor attempts to institute good governance while Fiji's 2006 coup was partly justified on the grounds that they needed cleaning up But who are these much maligned figures How did they come to arrive in politics What is it like to be a politician Why do they enter stay and leave Drawing on more than 110 interviews and other published sources including autobiographies and biographies Being Political provides a collective portrait of the region's political elite This is an insider account of political life in the Pacific as seen through the eyes of those who have done the job We learn that politics is a messy unpredictable and at times dirty business that nonetheless inspires service and sacrifice We come to understand how being a politician has changed since independence and consider what this means for how we think about issues of corruption and misconduct We find that politics is deeply embedded in the lives of individuals families and communities an account that belies the common characterization of democracy in the Pacific as a faded or foreign flower Ultimately this is a sympathetic counter narrative to the populist critique We come to know politicians as people with hopes and fears pains and pleasures vices and virtues A reminder that politicians are human neither saints nor sinners is timely given the wave of cynicism and disaffection As such this book is a must read for all those who believe in the promise of representative government

South Pacific Bulletin, 1976

New Guinea Clive Moore, 2003-07-31 New Guinea the world's largest tropical island is a land of great contrasts ranging from small glaciers on its highest peaks to broad mangrove swamps in its lowlands and hundreds of smaller islands and coral atolls along its coasts Divided between two nations the island and its neighboring archipelagos form

Indonesia's Papua Province or Irian Jaya and the independent nation of Papua New Guinea both former European colonies. Most books on New Guinea have been guided by these and other divisions separating east from west, prehistoric from historic, precontact from postcontact, colonial from postcolonial. This is the first work to consider New Guinea and its 40 000 year history in its entirety. The volume opens with a look at the Melanesian region and argues that interlocking exchange systems and associated human interchanges are the invisible government through which New Guinea societies operate. Succeeding chapters review the history of encounters between outsiders and New Guinea's populations. They consider the history of Malay involvement with New Guinea over the past two thousand years, demonstrating the extent to which west New Guinea in particular was incorporated into Malay trading and raiding networks prior to Western contact. The impact of colonial rule, economic and social change, World War II, decolonization and independence are discussed in the final chapter.

State and Society in Papua New Guinea, 2001-2021 R. J. May, 2022-08-09. In a previous volume State and Society in Papua New Guinea: The First Twenty Five Years 2001, reprinted by ANU E Press in 2004, a collection of papers by the author published between 1971 and 2001 was put together to mark Papua New Guinea's first 25 years as an independent state. This volume presents a collection of papers written between 2001 and 2021 which update the story of political and social development in Papua New Guinea in the first two decades of the twenty first century. The chapters cover a range of topics from an evaluation of proposals for political reform in the early 2000s, a review of the discussion of failing states in the island Pacific and the shift to limited preferential voting in 2007, to a detailed account of political developments from the move against Sir Michael Somare in 2011 to the election of Prime Minister Marape and his performance to 2022. There are also chapters on language policy, external and internal security, religious fundamentalism and national identity and the sustainability of economic growth.

Living Tradition Michael Kwa?ioloa, Ben Burt, 1997-01-01. Michael Kwaiolua grew up in the forested homeland of his ancestors on the Pacific island of Malaita and discovered the wider world by moving to the town on Honiara, capital of Solomon Islands. Living Tradition is the story of how his life changed as he came to terms with a world of contrasting cultures and values, combining family instruction and school, ancestral ghosts and born again Christianity, shell money exchanges and work for cash, restitution of wrongs and government law. Living Tradition is a work of collaboration between Michael Kwaiolua and Ben Burt, an anthropologist who has been researching the culture and history of Kwaraae since 1979. It presents social and cultural change from the personal perspective of autobiography, edited and interpreted with the benefit of academic research. Kwaiolua's theme is the importance of his traditional culture in providing an essential but ambivalent foundation for life in changing times. He presents a lively personal account of how Kwaraae tradition is lived even as it is transformed in confrontation with Christianity and European culture, a vivid illustration of life in the contemporary Pacific Islands.

Writing & Culture Balz Engler, 1992. Asia in the Pacific Islands R. G. Crocombe, 2007. A spectacular transition is under way in the Pacific Islands as a result of which all our lives will be radically different. In the last fifty years or so Asia has begun to play a bigger and bigger role in all aspects of Islands life migration trade and investment aid and development information and media religion culture and sport It is replacing the West The process is irreversible With his trademark breadth and depth of knowledge and understanding of the region based on over half a century of experience study and deliberation Ron Crocombe documents the early connections between Asia and the Pacific details recent and continuing changes and poses challenging theories about the future Publisher My Gun, My Brother August I. K. Kituai, 1998-05-01

Despite the heated competition for colonial possessions in Papua New Guinea during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the personnel required to run an effective administration were scarce As a result the Australian colonial regime opted for a quick solution it engaged Papua New Guineans often to perform the most hazardous and most unpopular responsibilities Based on extensive interviews with former policemen written records of the time and reminiscences of colonial officials this book links events involving police villagers and government officers kiaps over a forty year period to wider issues in the colonial history of Papua New Guinea and by extension of the Pacific Islands and beyond Political Life Writing in the Pacific Jack Corbett, Brij V. Lal, 2015-07-29 This book aims to reflect on the experiential side of writing political lives in the Pacific region The collection touches on aspects of the life writing art that are particularly pertinent to political figures public perception and ideology identifying important political successes and policy initiatives grappling with issues like corruption and age old political science questions about leadership and dirty hands These are general themes but they take on a particular significance in the Pacific context and so the contributions explore these themes in relation to patterns of colonisation and the memory of independence issues elliptically captured by terms like culture and tradition the nature of self presented in Pacific life writing and the tendency for many of these texts to be written by outsiders or at least the increasingly contested nature of what that term means A Trial Separation Donald Denoon, 2012-05-01 When it came in September 1975 Papua New Guinea's independence was marked by both anxiety and elation In the euphoric aftermath decolonisation was declared a triumph and immediate events seemed to justify that confidence By the 1990s however events had taken a turn for the worse and there were doubts about the capacity of the State to function Before independence Papua New Guinea was an Australian Territory Responsibility lay with a minister in Canberra and services were provided by Commonwealth agencies In 1973 Prime Minister Gough Whitlam declared that independence should be achieved within two years While Australians were united in their desire to decolonise many Papua New Guineans were nervous of independence This superlative history presents the full story of the trial separation of Australia and Papua New Guinea concluding that given the intertwined history geography and economies of the two neighbours the decolonisation project of independence is still a work in progress Australian Dictionary of Biography, Volume 19 Melanie Nolan, 2021-03-09 Volume 19 of the Australian Dictionary of Biography ADB contains concise biographies of individuals who died between 1991 and 1995 The first of two volumes for the 1990s it presents a colourful montage of late twentieth century Australian life containing the biographies of significant and representative Australians The volume is still in the shadow of World War II with servicemen and women who enlisted young appearing but these influences are dimming and there are now increasing numbers of non white non male non privileged and non straight subjects The 680 individuals recorded in volume 19 of the ADB include Wiradjuri midwife and Ngunnawal Elder Violet Bulger Aboriginal rights activist poet playwright and artist Kevin Gilbert and Torres Strait Islander community leader and land rights campaigner Eddie Mabo HIV AIDS child activists Tony Lovegrove and Eve Van Grafhorst have entries as does conductor Stuart Challender the first Australian celebrity to go public about his HIV AIDS condition in 1991 The arts are as always well represented including writers Frank Hardy Mary Durack and Nene Gare actors Frank Thring and Leonard Teale and arts patron Ian Potter We are beginning to see the effects of the steep rise in postwar immigration flow through to the ADB Artist Joseph Stanislaw Ostojka Kotkowski was born in Poland Pilar Moreno de Otaegui co founded the Spanish Club of Sydney Chinese restaurateur and community leader Ming Poon Dick Low migrated to Victoria in 1953 Often we have a dearth of information about the domestic lives of our subjects politician Olive Zakharov however bravely disclosed at the Victorian launch of the federal government s campaign to Stop Violence Against Women in 1993 that she was a survivor of domestic violence in her second marriage Take a dip into the many fascinating lives of the Australian Dictionary of Biography The Pacific Islands Brij V.
