The Confident Woman Marjorie Hansen Shaevitz, 2012-01-04 How Confident Are You Marjorie Hansen Shaevitz has won national awards for her work in women's health and has enjoyed the success some people only dream of a prosperous professional life a long happy marriage two Stanford educated children and a bestselling book The Superwoman Syndrome which coined a term for a generation of women Despite all of her accomplishments however she struggled with the issue of confidence After conducting extensive research she found that she was far from alone Many women experience the paradox of enjoying success in their business and personal lives while lacking confidence in themselves The Confident Woman focuses on the issues that women face in growing up as girls in this society Using a series of seven steps complete with techniques and questions Shaevitz presents an accessible and proven program that helps women regain their confidence It is written for women of all ages ending with an epilogue for mothers who want practical tips for raising confident daughters In clear concise prose filled with anecdotes and humor The Confident Woman focuses on what women say they want practical advice that they can use now The Dying Time Joan Furman, David McNabb, 1997 that addresses equally the concerns of those who are dying and those who have committed themselves to meeting their physical emotional and spiritual needs The choice of home hospital or hospice care the importance of basic nursing skills and recognizing the signs of a failing body are all considered with frankness and sensitivity Bare-Bones Meditation Joan Tollifson, 2010-02-10 Born with only one hand Joan Tollifson grows up feeling different finds identity as a bisexual lesbian and a disability rights activist but also sinks into drug addiction and alcoholism She embraces Zen Buddhism and then a very bare bones spirituality that has no form Bare Bones Meditation reveals the inner process of the mind in a new way and Tollifson's account is beautifully written intense and from the heart

Compassion in Action Ram Dass, 1995-10-03 Featuring an eye catching new cover this classic guide is for those ready to commit time and energy to relieving suffering in the world No two people are better qualified to help us along this path than Ram Dass who has spent more than 25 years teaching and writing on the subject of living consciously and Mirabi Bush who succeeded him as chairperson of the Seva Foundation God at the Edge Niles Goldstein, 2001-04-24 Here is a book about adventure raw experience and facing inner demons Niles Elliot Goldstein is a young rabbi who sets out to find God in tough and often scary situations dogsledding above the Arctic Circle taking the Silk Road into Central Asia without a visa being chased by a grizzly bear cruising with DEA agents through the South Bronx and spending a night in jail in New York City's Tombs He explores the connections between struggle and growth fear and transcendence and uncertainty and faith seeking the boundary where the finite meets the Infinite Goldstein is not alone in making this kind of pilgrimage There has always been a strong tradition of seekers who looked for revelation outside conventional religious settings and encountered God in moments of anguish terror and pain Goldstein juxtaposes his own experiences with those of some of the great historical figures of Judaism and Christianity Jonah and St John of the Cross Moses Maimonides and Julian of Norwich Nachman of Bratslav and Martin Luther as well as lesser known mystics and preachers and he discovers as they did that it can sometimes take a journey to the edge to recognize God's presence in our lives Holidays and Holy Nights

Christopher Hill,2003 This joyous sparkling book opens the treasure chest of liturgical year to bring the creative power of the Divine into our ordinary lives here and now Heal Thy Self Saki Santorelli,2010-04-07 Perhaps our real work whether offering or seeking care is to recognize that the healing relationship the field upon which patient and practitioner meet is to use the words of the mythologist Joseph Campbell a self mirroring mystery the embodiment of a singular human activity that raises essential questions about self other and what it means to heal thy self Saki Santorelli Today we are experiencing extraordinary technological advances in the diagnosis and treatment of illness while at the same time learning to take more responsibility for our own health and well being In this book Saki Santorelli director of the nationally acclaimed Stress Reduction Clinic explores the ancient roots of medicine and shows us how to introduce mindfulness into the crucible of the healing relationship so that both patients and caregivers begin to acknowledge that we are all wounded and we are all whole His approach revolutionizes the dynamics of the patient practitioner relationship In describing the classes at the clinic and the transformation that takes place in this alchemical process he offers insights and effective methods for cultivating mindfulness in our everyday lives As he reveals the inner landscape of his own life as a health care professional and we join him and those with whom he works on this journey of human suffering and courage we become aware of and honor what is darkest and brightest within each one of us Everything Starts from Prayer Mother Teresa of Calcutta,2010-06-29 At the Home for the Dying in Calcutta Mother Teresa often cared for the residents as they approached the end As she was ministering to one illness ravaged man a visitor overheard her whisper a few words to him These few words embody some of Mother Teresa's most wonderful wisdom This is what she said You say a prayer in your religion and I will say a prayer as I know it Together we will say this prayer and it will be something beautiful for God These gentle words of solace and care provide us with a glimpse at a Mother Teresa we've often overlooked Mother Teresa the universal teacher of prayer The world has admired the Mother Teresa who devoted her life to caring for the poorest of the poor everywhere But her close associates knew that all of Mother Teresa's outer activity of caring and action was the natural consequence of her devotion the overflow of her deep inner life They witnessed her reliance upon contemplative practice and they recognized Mother Teresa not only as a devout Catholic but also as a great ecumenical teacher of prayer Grace Unfolding Greg
