sensitivity Bare-Bones Meditation Joan Tollifson,2010-02-10 Born with only one hand Joan Tollifson grows up feeling different finds identity as a bisexual lesbian and a disability rights activist but also sinks into drug addiction and alcoholism She embraces Zen Buddhism and then a very bare bones spirituality that has no form Bare Bones Meditation reveals the inner process of the mind in a new way and Tollifson's account is beautifully written intense and from the heart

Contemplative Practices in Higher Education Daniel P. Barbezat,Mirabai Bush,2013-12-04 Contemplative pedagogy is a way for instructors to empower students to integrate their own experience into the theoretical material they are being taught in order to deepen their understanding help students to develop sophisticated problem solving skills support students sense of connection to and compassion for others and engender inquiries into students most profound questions Contemplative practices are used in just about every discipline from physics to economics to history and are found in every type of institution Each year more and more faculty education reformers and leaders of teaching and learning centers seek out best practices in contemplative teaching and now can find them here brought to you by two of the foremost leaders and innovators on the subject This book presents background information and ideas for the practical application of contemplative practices across the academic curriculum from the physical sciences to the humanities and arts Examples of contemplative techniques included in the book are mindfulness meditation yoga deep listening contemplative reading and writing and pilgrimage including site visits and field trips The Living Church ,1996 The Confident Woman Marjorie Hansen Shaevitz,2012-01-04 How Confident Are You Marjorie Hansen Shaevitz has won national awards for her work in women's health and has enjoyed the success some people only dream of a prosperous professional life a long happy marriage two Stanford educated children and a bestselling book The Superwoman Syndrome which coined a term for a generation of women Despite all of her accomplishments however she struggled with the issue of confidence After conducting extensive research she found that she was far from alone Many women experience the paradox of enjoying success in their business and personal lives while lacking confidence in themselves The Confident Woman focuses on the issues that women face in growing up as girls in this society Using a series of seven steps complete with techniques and questions Shaevitz presents an accessible and proven program that helps women regain their confidence It is written for women of all ages ending with an epilogue for mothers who want practical tips for raising confident daughters In clear concise prose filled with anecdotes and humor The Confident Woman focuses on what women say they want practical advice that they can use now The Yoga Sutras of Patanjali Alistair Shearer,2010-03-24 A wonderful translation full of contemporary insight yet luminous with eternal truth Jacob Needleman The Yoga Sutras were cast in their present form in India around the third century b c Yoga is from the Sanskrit root meaning union and a sutra is a thread or aphoristic verse The basic questions Who am I Where am I going What is the purpose of life are asked by each new generation and Patanjali's answers form one of the oldest and most vibrant spiritual texts in the world He explains what yoga is how it works and exactly how to purify the mind and let it settle into absolute stillness This stillness is our own Self It is the indispensable ground for Enlightenment which is the ultimate goal of all our aspirations Alistair Shearer's lucid introduction and superb translation fully preserving Patanjali's jewel-like style bring these ancient but vital teachings to those who seek the path of self-knowledge today Bell Tower's series Sacred Teachings offers essential spiritual classics from all traditions May each book become a trusted companion on the way of truth encouraging readers to study the wisdom of the ages and put it into practice each day Compassion in Action Ram Dass, 1995-10-03 Featuring an eye-catching new cover this classic guide is for those ready to commit time and energy to relieving suffering in the world No two people are better qualified to help us along this path than Ram Dass who has spent more than 25 years teaching and writing on the subject of living consciously and Mirabai Bush who succeeded him as chairperson of the Seva Foundation Everything Starts from Prayer Mother Teresa of Calcutta, 2010-06-29 At the Home for the Dying in Calcutta Mother Teresa often cared for the residents as they approached the end As she was ministering to one illness-ravaged man a visitor overheard her whisper a few words to him These few words embody some of Mother Teresa's most wonderful wisdom This is what she said You say a prayer in your religion and I will say a prayer as I know it Together we will say this prayer and it will be something beautiful for God These gentle words of solace and care provide us with a glimpse at a Mother Teresa we've often overlooked Mother Teresa the universal teacher of prayer The world has admired the Mother Teresa who devoted her life to caring for the poorest of the poor everywhere But her close associates knew that all of Mother Teresa's outer activity of caring and action was the natural consequence of her devotion the overflow of her deep inner life They witnessed her reliance upon contemplative practice and they recognized Mother Teresa not only as a devout Catholic but also as a great ecumenical teacher of prayer Another World William Claassen, 2007-10-15 Another World explores day to day life in a small Trappist monastery tucked away in the Ozark foothills Interweaving memoir with conversations with the monks observations of community life and relationships with other visitors Claassen provides a window into contemporary monastic life Each chapter describes a day in the monastery The reading experience is like spending time away from the world in a real community that is very human and gently inspiring Eighteen black and white photos by the author further evoke the experience Planning Memorial Celebrations Rob Baker, 2013-03-13 Memorial services are not so much rites for the dead as celebrations by the living and for the living of the lives of those who have died Such ceremonies are an important way of saying good-bye yet most people are not sure exactly what to do when the task of arranging one falls to them Here is a practical and supportive guide explaining how to cope with all the details when efficiency is furthest from your mind Timing place and who should participate Selecting a minister or spiritual leader Choosing the right words and music Writing a eulogy Setting the scene with flowers photos and mementos Bringing closure by providing food drink and companionship afterward In addition to two sample memorial services an annotated bibliography and discography and a listing of memorial societies throughout the country Rob Baker offers helpful information and advice on funerals cremation undertakers including where to look on the Web to evaluate what they have to offer donating the body or its organs for medical purposes as well as a brief history of funerary traditions The Benedictine Gift to Music Katharine W. Le Mée, 2003 The Benedictine Gift to Music illustrates how Gregorian chant faithfully practiced each day for centuries by the Benedictines in monasteries and convents across Europe developed into the complex polyphonic music we enjoy today It details the outstanding contributions of the Benedictine musicians from the sixth century Abbey of St Benedict to the modern French Abbey of Solesmes For contemporary performers composers of sacred music and those interested in singing Gregorian chant The Benedictine Gift to Music explains the opportunity that chant provides to still the mind and enter in a meaningful way into the contemplative tradition of the Church BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
