Why We Write H. Nigel Thomas, 2006 In this volume African Canadian novelists and poets discuss the complexities of the writing experience Most of the writers interviewed here are humanists i.e. they see their work as serious depictions of the human condition admit that their works are informed by an African Canadian ontology and adhere to the notion that their books must delight and instruct These interviews therefore are valuable additions to the creative process of the individual writers Apart from identifying how the writers geographical and social origins have influenced their work the questions deliberately avoid autobiography Instead these writers respond to the exigencies of craft the manipulations of publishers the criticism of readers and the absence of a clearly identifiable market for their works Interviewed in this volume Ayanna Black Austin Clarke George Elliott Clarke Wayne Compton Afua Cooper Bernadette Dyer Cecil Foster Claire Harris Lawrence Hill Nalo Hopkinson Suzette Mayr Pamela Mordecai M.
