Sand Mountain:

Ghosts and Legends of Nevada's Highway 50 Janice Oberding, 2018-09-17 The 287 mile stretch of highway that runs east to west across Nevada's desert is billed as the Loneliest Road in America. But those who explore it find there is plenty to discover along the way in the towns of Austin, Eureka, Ely, Fallon, and Fernley. Every one of these places has its own unique history, ghosts, and stories to tell. From the sordid lynching of Richard Jennings to the humorous legend about a famous sack of flour, author Janice Oberding treks across Highway 50 seeking spirits and uncovering the tales of Singing Sand Mountain, the Red Headed Giants, the Giroux Mine Disaster, and many more.

A large hearted wide angled book I couldn't put it down. Ian Frazier. A personal exploration of the American West and the work of one of America's greatest photographers. Timothy O'Sullivan is America's most famous war photographer. You know his work even if you don't know his name. A Harvest of Death taken at Gettysburg is an icon of the Civil War. He was also among the first photographers to elevate what was then a trade to the status of fine art. The images of the American West he made after the war while traveling with the surveys led by Clarence King and George Wheeler display a prescient awareness of what photography would become years later. Ansel Adams would declare his work surrealistic and disturbing. At the same time we know very little about O'Sullivan himself. Nor do we know really know much more about the landscapes he captured. Robert Sullivan's Double Exposure sets off in pursuit of these two enigmas. This book documents the author's own road trip across the West in search of the places many long forgotten or paved over that O'Sullivan pictured. It also stages a
